

AFRICAN SOLIDARITY DAY

On Saturday, April 4th, the Black community will observe African Solidarity Day. This day is a time to celebrate the rich cultural heritage of the African people and to reaffirm our commitment to the struggle for the liberation of all oppressed peoples. It is a day to remember the sacrifices of our ancestors and to inspire the youth to continue the fight for justice and equality. The day will be marked by a series of events, including a parade, a concert, and a community meeting. We urge all members of the Black community to participate in these events and to use this opportunity to strengthen our bonds of solidarity and to commit ourselves to the struggle for the liberation of all oppressed peoples.

ANTI- IMPERIALIST RALLY

The Black community is invited to an Anti-Imperialist Rally on Sunday, April 5th. This rally is a response to the increasing imperialism and aggression of the United States government. It is a time to voice our opposition to the war in Vietnam and to demand an end to the exploitation of the Black people. The rally will feature speeches by prominent leaders of the Black community and will be followed by a march. We urge all members of the Black community to attend the rally and to express their solidarity with the oppressed peoples of the world.

FIGHT INFLATION TOGETHER

The Black community is invited to a Fight Inflation Together rally on Monday, April 6th. This rally is a response to the rising cost of living and the economic hardship faced by the Black community. It is a time to demand that the government take action to control inflation and to provide for the basic needs of the Black people. The rally will feature speeches by prominent leaders of the Black community and will be followed by a march. We urge all members of the Black community to attend the rally and to express their solidarity with the oppressed peoples of the world.

MARCH AGAINST THIEF

The Black community is invited to a March Against Thief rally on Tuesday, April 7th. This rally is a response to the theft of the Black community's land, resources, and identity. It is a time to demand that the government return the land and resources to the Black people and to provide for their basic needs. The rally will feature speeches by prominent leaders of the Black community and will be followed by a march. We urge all members of the Black community to attend the rally and to express their solidarity with the oppressed peoples of the world.
