Saturday Review of Literature ,1925 Baptism by Fire Mark K. determine the fate of the nation and in many cases the fate of the world In this fascinating narrative presidential historian Mark Updegrove looks at eight U S presidents who inherited unprecedented crises immediately upon assuming the reigns of power George Washington led a fragile and fledgling nation while defining the very role of the presidency When Thomas Jefferson entered the White House he faced a nation bitterly divided by a two party schism far more severe than anything encountered today John Tyler stepped into the office of the presidency during the constitutional crisis left by the first death of a sitting president Abraham Lincoln inherited a divided nation on the brink of war Franklin D Roosevelt sought to quell America s fears during the depths of the Great Depression His successor Harry S Truman was sworn in as commander in chief at the close of World War II and John F Kennedy stepped into the increasingly heated atmosphere of the cold war In the wake of Watergate the first unelected president Gerald R Ford aimed to end America s long national nightmare As the forty fourth president takes office Updegrove presents a timely look at these chief executives and the challenges they faced In examining the ways in which presidents have addressed crises Baptism by Fire illustrates the importance of character in leadership and in the resilience of America itself The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1905
