Edition of the Complete Fiction of Henry James provides for the first time a scholarly edition of a major writer whose work continues to be read quoted adapted and studied The nine tales in this volume published between 1884 and 1888 include The Aspern Papers set in Venice and featuring a devious scholar attempting to steal the letters of an American poet from his former lover and The Liar on the world of painters and their models These tales exemplify James's continuing interest in the art of short fiction during a period which saw him responding to the stimulations of French naturalism and successfully reworking the international theme that had made him famous at the end of the 1870s Extensive explanatory notes enable modern readers to understand the tales historical cultural and literary references Harper's New Monthly Magazine, 1888 Harper's Magazine made its debut in June 1850 the brainchild of the prominent New York book publishing firm Harper Brothers Harper's Magazine the oldest general interest monthly in America explores the issues that drive our national conversation through long form narrative journalism and essays and such celebrated features as the iconic Harper's Index With its emphasis on fine writing and original thought Harper's provides readers with a unique perspective on politics society the environment and culture University of the State of New York Bulletin, 1915 Madame De Mauves Henry James, 2019-11-26 In Madame De Mauves Henry James masterfully dissects the complex interplay of desire societal expectations and personal identity within the confines of 19th century Parisian society The novella unfolds through the lens of the protagonist Eugenie de Mauves whose delicate inner world is at odds with the oppressive structures of her marriage and social milieu James employs his characteristic intricate prose and psychological depth utilizing free indirect discourse to immerse readers in Eugenie's thoughts and feelings creating a rich tapestry of emotional nuance reflective of the broader context of Realism and the emerging Modernist ethos in literature Henry James a pivotal figure in American literature and a naturalized Briton was well acquainted with the cultural divides and moral complexities of his characters worlds His experiences living in both the United States and Europe profoundly shaped his understanding of social dynamics and human psychology In Madame De Mauves James channels the frustrations and aspirations of women in an era marked by patriarchal constraints which resonates with his own observations of society's inequities during his travels and literary career This novella is an essential read for anyone interested in the psychological dimensions of character development and the critique of societal norms James invites readers to contemplate the profound isolation experienced by individuals in their search for authenticity amidst societal confines Readers will find in Eugenie's story a timeless reflection on the struggles of the human spirit making Madame De Mauves a poignant exploration that remains relevant to contemporary discussions of gender and identity Haunted Museum Jonah Siegel, 2021-04-13 For centuries southern Europe and Italy in particular has offered writers far more than an evocative setting for important works of literature The voyage south has been an integral part of the imagination of inspiration Haunted Museum is a groundbreaking in depth look at fantasies of Italy from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth centuries focusing on a literary tradition Jonah Siegel terms the art romance the fantastic voyage south understood as the register of an ambivalent desire for art and a heightened experience of reality Siegel argues that Italy's allure derives not only from its celebrated promise of unique natural beauty and prized antiquities but from the opportunity it offers writers to place themselves in relation to a web of prior accounts of travel to the native land of genius Beginning with Goethe as the founding figure of the tradition Haunted Museum moves from a rich reframing of literature from the first half of the nineteenth century including new readings of works by Byron de Sta l Barrett Browning and others to an ambitious examination of Henry James s well known engagement with Europe newly understood as a response to this important literary legacy Readings of works by Freud Forster Mann and Proust demonstrate the longevity of the tradition of looking to Italy for the representation of desires as impossible to satisfy as they are to deny
