British Archives Janet Foster, Julia Sheppard, 1995-09-27 Since it was first published in 1982 British Archives has established itself as the premier reference work to holdings of archives and manuscript collections throughout the UK The 3rd edition has been extensively revised and enlarged with more than 150 new entries further widening the range of the book Entries are structured to show the archives of the organisation as distinct from deposited collections and significant non manuscript material and additional details of fax number and conservation provision are included for the first time All the existing entries have been significantly updated together with the select bibliography and list of useful addresses of various organisations involved in the care and custody of archives The introduction provides an invaluable guide to researchers using archives including a summary of the relevant legislation and a detailed description of the usual holdings of county and other local authority record offices

The

Early Development of Irish Society: the Evidence of Aerial Photography Edward R. Norman, John Kenneth Sinclair Saint Joseph, John Kenneth Sinclair St. Joseph, 1969 The Golden Bridge Marjorie Kohli, 2003-10-15 To thousands of young people emigration has been the golden bridge by which they have passed from an apparently hopeless childhood to lives of useful service and assured comfort in this new land Mr G Bogue Smart Inspector of British Immigrant Children and Receiving Homes 1915 Many thousands of Canadians are descended from young immigrants transported to Canada from 1833 to 1939 Author Marjorie Kohli has meticulously documented the incredible story of the removal of thousands of waifs and strays and young men and women primarily from the UK and Ireland They braved the perilous voyage to an unknown future in Canada ultimately being placed throughout the Maritimes Ontario Quebec and westward as far as British Columbia The most comprehensive resource of its kind The Golden Bridge promises to be an indispensable tool for family researchers with a home child ancestor and of interest to those unfamiliar with this aspect of Canadian history This extensively researched book incorporates background detail on agencies and key organizers such as Maria Rye Annie Macpherson Thomas Barnardo and William Quarrier along with lesser knowns including Ellinor Close and Charles Young Marjorie Kohli is well known for her years of active involvement with juvenile and child migration issues Supported by charts passenger lists and archival visuals The Golden Bridge is a must read for genealogists and history buffs alike Lincolnshire Past & Present ,2006 The Victorian Gardener Anne Wilkinson, 2011-04-12 Gardening is one of the most popular leisure activities today and most people take it for granted that suitable plants equipment and information are easily available This was not always the case Anne Wilkinson's engaging book recreates the world of amateur Victorian gardeners those who had no idea how to start gardening and no information to help them In the 1860s gardening was mainly the preserve of professionals who worked on large estates but a new breed of gardeners was emerging ordinary householders Their gardens range from country cottage and rectory gardens to urban gardens behind terraced houses With no help from the professionals who refused to believe that gardens in towns were a practical possibility those innovators laid down the foundations for modern amateur gardening as it is today This book richly illustrated with images from contemporary magazines and other sources explores their journey to create their own piece of England's green and pleasant land OCR Sociology for A Level Book 2 Sue Brisbane, Katherine Roberts, Paul Taylor, Laura Pountney, 2016-08-01 Exam Board OCR Level A level Subject Sociology First Teaching September 2015 First Exam June 2017 Build students confidence to tackle the key themes of the 2015 OCR A Level Sociology specification with this clear and accessible approach delivered by a team of leading subject authors Develop knowledge and understanding of key Year 2 concepts in a contemporary context including globalisation and the digital social world Strengthen essential sociological skills with engaging activities at every stage of the course Reinforce learning and prepare for exams with practice and extension questions and exercises Heretics and Believers Peter Marshall, 2017-05-02 A sumptuously written people's history and a major retelling and reinterpretation of the story of the

English Reformation Centuries on what the Reformation was and what it accomplished remain deeply contentious Peter Marshall's sweeping new history the first major overview for general readers in a generation argues that sixteenth century England was a society neither desperate for nor allergic to change but one open to ideas of reform in various competing guises King Henry VIII wanted an orderly uniform Reformation but his actions opened a Pandora's Box from which pluralism and diversity flowed and rooted themselves in English life With sensitivity to individual experience as well as masterfully synthesizing historical and institutional developments Marshall frames the perceptions and actions of people great and small from monarchs and bishops to ordinary families and ecclesiastics against a backdrop of profound change that altered the meanings of religion itself This engaging history reveals what was really at stake in the overthrow of Catholic culture and the reshaping of the English Church
