Love and Death in a Hot Country Shiva Naipaul, 1984      Love and Death in a Hot Country Shiva Naipaul, 1985      A Hot Country Shiva Naipaul, 1983 Een contactarme vrouw en haar idealistische man leven los van elkaar en van de maatschappij hun doelloos bestaan in een pas onafhankelijk Caraïbisch land      Love and Death in Goethe Ellis Dye, 2004 Explores the central theme of Romantic poetry in the works of the most important German Romantic poet of all Goethe in association with his younger Romantic compatriots the Schlegels Novalis Fichte and Schelling struggled with the subject object dichotomy and tried to bridge the gap between self and other consciousness and nature His theory and practice prefigured the Romantics determination to display and interrogate the linguistic and cultural structures informing their own thinking and modes of representation what Goethe calls one's Vorstellungsart His work exploits subverts and supplants inherited conventions and signs demonstrating with virtuosic irony that literature is a system of texts pre texts and pre established but dynamic conceptual models Love and Death in Goethe One and Double explores Goethe's use in a wide range of his poetry and prose of the theme of Liebestod love and death and related embodiments of the paradox of unity in duality Ellis Dye also examines Goethe's use of other themes related to love and death the femme fatale the vagina dentata Frau Welt the Lorelei venereal disease the Lustmord and considers issues of selfhood and individuation as well as the possibility that the love death theme contains an implicit gender bias toward the existential fact of personal separateness Poems plays and novels are dealt with nevertheless as works of art not only as illustrations of an idea or as points of intersection in a system of rhetorical conventions and are examined for intellectual cohesiveness elegance and integrity of design as well as special meanings and effects Love and Death in Goethe One and Double explores the meaning of the central theme of Romantic poetry in the works of the most important Romantic poet of all Students of literary culture both the lay reader and the Goethe specialist will be enlightened by its approach and find pleasure and instruction in its revelations Robert Ellis Dye is Professor of German at Macalester College      Love and death in a hot country Shiva Naipaul, Jorgen Moe, 1989*      Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide

The Stepmother Tongue John Skinner, 1998-09-18 There are numerous twentieth century writers in English who are not technically native speakers of the language and whose relation to it is ambivalent problematic or even hostile by a simple kinship analogy one may often speak of the stepmother tongue Whilst fully aware of the current debates in postcolonial theory John Skinner is also conscious of its sometimes unhelpful complexities and contradictions The focus of this study is thus firmly on the fictional practice of the writers discussed He offers the reader an insight into the diversity and rewards of contemporary anglophone fiction whilst analysing some eighty individual texts A uniquely comprehensive guide the book will be welcomed by students and teachers of postcolonial literature

A Hot Country Shiva Naipaul, 1995 Cuyama a small country in South America its spirit robbed by centuries of conquerors and colonizers is poised on the brink of crisis Shiva Naipaul's passionate and evocative novel focuses on two casualties of Cuyama's post Independence malaise Aubrey St Pierre dedicated to redeeming the sins of his slave owning ancestors and his wife Dina While Aubrey sits in his highbrow bookshop composing protest letters to The Times in London and New York Dina stands aloof and passive in the face of an impending tragedy that seems to her more personal than political The fate of their marriage comes obliquely to reflect the fate of a nation portrayed by Naipaul with intense sympathy vision and eloquence

The British and Irish Novel Since 1960 James Acheson,1991-09-03 The essays in this collection survey the work of some of the most important British and Irish novelists of today They not only consider afresh the work of novelists who established their reputations before 1960 such as Doris Lessing and William Golding they also discuss the work of more recent novelists among them Kazuo Ishiguro Angela Carter and Graham Swift The contributors are drawn from various parts of the English speaking world and provide a variety of original perspectives on the novelists concerned

Love and Death in the Great War Andrew J. Huebner,2018 Love and Death in the Great War merges the stories of several American families with analysis of wartime popular culture It argues that family in lived experience and as symbolic motivator gave the war meaning recovering the conflict s personal dimensions But that narrative had undergone transformative challenges by war s end

Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought Anthony B. Pinn,2010-06-01 Black theology tends to be a theology about no body Though one might assume that black and womanist theology have already given significant attention to the nature and meaning of black bodies as a theological issue this inquiry has primarily taken the form of a focus on issues relating to liberation treating the body in abstract terms rather than focusing on the experiencing of a material fleshy reality By focusing on the body as a physical entity and not just a metaphorical one Pinn offers a new approach to theological thinking about race gender and sexuality According to Pinn the body is of profound theological importance In this first text on black theology to take embodiment as its starting point and its goal Pinn interrogates the traditional source materials for black theology such as spirituals and slave narratives seeking to link them to materials such as photography that highlight the theological importance of the body Employing a multidisciplinary approach spanning from the sociology of the body and philosophy to anthropology and art history Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought pushes black theology to the next level

Finding a Place Kris Rampersad,2002 Kris Rampersad s book takes an intimate look at the blossoming of Trinidad s literary consciousness Through the eyes and the words of the writers she maps their contribution to Indo Trinidadian literature from those evolutionary years in 1850 to it flowering in the 1950s It also represents a close look at the exciting oral culture of these people as depicted by their music dance and storytelling and examines the biographies of the main figures who contributed to social cultural economic and political development throughout this period While the main focus of the work is on language and literary development other aspects of Trinidad s development are also explored cross curation politics race relations social mobility and women s issues in relation to their influence and impact on the writings Further the raw
