Love In Action A Practical Study Of Christian Ethics:

Love in Action Michael C. Armour, 2000-10-01 Love God and love your neighbor These are the two greatest commands according to Jesus But how do you do that and what does it mean in real life terms This well written study will help your group members see practical ways to carry out these commands and will help them become people that truly love The Routledge Handbook of Research Methods in Spirituality and Contemplative Studies Bernadette Flanagan, Kerri Clough, 2024-09-03 The Routledge Handbook of Research Methods in Spirituality and Contemplative Studies provides the first authoritative overview of methodology in this growing field Against the background of the pandemic and other global challenges spirituality is expanding as an agreed term with which to discuss the efforts people make to be fully present to deeper invisible dimensions of their personal identity and external reality but until now there have been few resources exploring the different methodological approaches researchers take This book explores the primary methodologies emerging First Person Second Person and Third Person and provides a systematisation of spirituality research in applied contexts for the first time Comprising 33 chapters by a team of international contributors the book is divided into seven parts Foundations Approaches to Contemplative Research Contemplative Research in Education Contemplative Research in Work and Leadership Contemplative Research in Science Health and Healing Contemplative Research in Social Sciences Contemplative Research and the Way Forward The Handbook provides readers practitioners and policymakers with methods and approaches which can facilitate a spiritual and contemplative stance in research activities It is an essential resource for researchers and students of Religion Spirituality and Research Methods Introduction to the Study of Dogmatics Hendrikus Berkhof, 1985 An Introduction That Aims to Initiate is how Hendrikus Berkof describes this book in which he provides beginning students and interested general readers with a concise guide to what to expect and what not to expect in the field of dogmatics A Philosophical Study of Christian Ethics George Freeland Barbour, 1911 Love and Christian Ethics Frederick V. Simmons, Brian Sorrells, 2016 At the heart of Christian ethics is the biblical commandment to love God and to love one's neighbor as oneself But what is the meaning of love Scholars have wrestled with this question since the recording of the Christian gospels and in recent decades teachers and students of Christian ethics have engaged in vigorous debates about appropriate interpretations and implications of this critical norm In Love and Christian Ethics nearly two dozen leading experts analyze and assess the meaning of love from a wide range of perspectives Chapters are organized into three areas influential sources and exponents of Western Christian thought about the ethical significance of love perennial theoretical questions attending that consideration and the implications of Christian love for important social realities Contributors bring a richness of thought and experience to deliver unprecedentedly broad and rigorous analysis of this central tenet of Christian ethics and faith William Werpehowski provides an afterword on future trajectories for this research Love and Christian Ethics is sure to become a benchmark resource in the field Oliver O'Donovan's Moral Theology

Samuel Tranter, 2020-10-01 This book offers the first sustained full length treatment of the wide ranging work of major Anglican theologian Oliver O Donovan Analyzing such key texts as Resurrection and Moral Order The Desire of the Nations and Ethics as Theology Samuel Tranter shows that the relationship between eschatology and ethics is an area of significant tension in O Donovan s evolving vision of moral theology Tranter traces this tension as it relates to O Donovan s writing and contemporary discussion around natural law divine command and human flourishing as well as to particular topics such as poverty marriage and singleness and biotechnology He also connects it with the broader doctrinal features of O Donovan s project such as his accounts of creation sin and redemption and his understanding of the relationships between the cross and the resurrection on one hand and Christology and pneumatology on the other Throughout Tranter indicates the implications of these themes for our understanding of the Christian life This volume establishes and evaluates O Donovan s influence on contemporary Christian ethicists and political theologians such as Luke Bretherton Gilbert Meilaender Jean Porter and Brent Waters and engages with critical readings of O Donovan such as those by Stanley Hauerwas and Gerald McKenny In conversation with these and other voices from a range of perspectives Tranter shows how O Donovan s proposals may be appropriated and amended as a resource for theology and ethics going forward

Happiness and the Christian Moral Life Paul J. Wadell, 2012-02-16 Happiness and the Christian Moral Life introduces students to Christian Ethics looking at ethics as a path to the good life and happiness rather than a strict set of rules or regulations Revised and updated throughout the second edition maintains the book s distinctive focus on happiness Each chapter now features a list of suggested readings to point students and instructors towards further resources Other changes to the second edition include a more fully developed account of Augustine s understanding of happiness new discussions of how technology shapes relationships and happiness and consideration of the relationship between the natural law and the virtues

The Pastor as Friend? Dan Holder, 2025-01-23 Have you ever wondered what it means for pastors to be friends with people in their churches This is the fascinating question that Dan Holder dives into in this thought provoking book He uses in depth interviews with ordained pastors and their real life struggles and joys to get close to the essence of what friendship and friendliness mean in the pastoral setting Reflecting theologically on the findings and grappling with the thought and experience of figures such as Bonhoeffer Moltmann and C S Lewis he takes up in detail the four elements found to be essential to friendship mutuality affection freedom and openness Then envisioning what revised forms of practice for pastors in a local congregation might look like he formulates nine themes for a fruitful approach to pastoral friendship Holder doesn't shy away from the tough questions or try to offer easy answers Instead he invites readers into a nuanced thoughtful exploration of the topic one that acknowledges both the potential pitfalls and the profound opportunities of these relationships Prepare to be inspired challenged and encouraged Who knows Readers may just discover a new vision for the role of friendship in their own lives and ministries

New Dictionary of Christian Ethics & Pastoral Theology David J. Atkinson, David F. Field, Arthur F. Holmes, Oliver O'Donovan, 2013-11-21 Encompassing a wide range of topics from the timely health care and business ethics to the traditional atonement suffering and the kingdom of God this work features an easy to use reference system and eighteen articles that introduce readers to key themes in moral pastoral and practical theology Edited by David J Atkinson and David F Field with consulting editors Arthur Holmes and Oliver O Donovan

Research On Altruism & Love Stephen Post, 2003-05-15 Research on Altruism and Love is a compendium of annotated bibliographies reviewing literature and research studies on the nature of love An essay introduces each of the annotated bibliographies A variety of literature directly related to science and love issues or supporting those issues is covered in the Religious Love Interfaces with Science section This annotated bibliography is unique in that it approaches the field from a decidedly religious perspective It includes classical expositions of love that continue to influence contemporary scholars including Platos work on eros the work and words of Jesus Aristotle Augustine of Hippo Martin Luther Kierkegaard and Ghandi among others The contemporary discussion includes Anders Nygren's theological arguments in his classic Agape and Eros Pitirim Sorokin and others An issue that often emerges in this literature is the question of the nature and definition of love A second annotated bibliography features current empirical research in the field of Personality and Altruism with a focus on social psychology Among the topics covered are the altruistic personality altruistic behavior empathy helping behavior social responsibility and volunteerism Methodologies are diverse and studies include experiments local and national surveys naturalistic observation and combinations of these The Evolutionary Biology annotated bibliography covers the most significant works on altruism and love in the field of biology and evolutionary psychology The fourth and final annotated bibliography in this volume is entitled Sociology of Faith Based Volunteerism Here the focus is on literature on the interface of helping behavior and religious organizations as well as major pieces on voluntary associations

Mimesis in the Johannine Literature C. Bennema, 2017-09-21 Mimesis is a fundamental and pervasive human concept but has attracted little attention from Johannine scholarship This is unsurprising since Johannine ethics of which mimesis is a part has only recently become a fruitful area of research Bennema contends that scholars have not yet identified the centre of Johannine ethics admittedly due to the fact that mimesis is not immediately evident in the Johannine text because the usual terminology for mimesis is missing This volume is the first organized study on the concept of mimesis in the Johannine literature The aim of the study is to establish that mimesis is a genuine Johannine concept to explain its particulars and to show that mimesis is integral to Johannine ethics Bennema argues that Johannine mimesis is a cognitive creative process that shapes the believer's identity and behaviour within the context of the divine family Besides being instrumental in people's moral transformation mimesis is also a vital mechanism for mediating the divine reality to people The Epiphany of Love Livio Melina, 2010-09-14 Catholic moral theology faces a radical challenge in this age of moral upheaval No longer must it simply respond to specific questions about particular matter nor elaborate some method for the formulation of norms The challenge now is instead no less than comprehending the mystery of human action in its proper dynamism Livio Melina here guides the reader on a path that seeks to recover the integrality of moral experience and its place in Christian existence This path aims at rediscovering in moral action an epiphany of love and attempts to help us recognize a profound synergy between human and divine action

Passionate Deliberation M.F. Carr, 2012-12-06 Despite the modern recovery of virtue theory in ethics conceptions of temperance remain largely unexamined In this study I offer an examination of certain interpretive threads of temperance as a virtue beginning in classical philosophy and moving through early to medieval Christian conceptions I find contemporary notions of temperance to be sorely lacking when compared and contrasted to these historical conceptions Aristotelian and Thomistic accounts of temperance are particularly important to the normative statement of temperance I offer here To fully understand temperance one must recognize its place among the moral virtues in particular phronesis or practical judgment Though I place temperance within practical judgment this study stops short of offering a full account of virtue theory and how it may or may not relate to other theories of the moral life While contemporary views of temperance occasionally note its general relevance to the experience of emotion I elaborate upon the work of temperance as an essential part of the effort to include emotion in the moral life In present day studies of the psychology of emotion cognitive theories have reasserted the classical conception of emotion as consisting of both physiological and psychological elements of human personhood Temperance is the primary virtue in the moral agent's effort to appropriately include the entirety of the emotional experience in moral deliberation I find it relevant to a moral response to both the physiological and psychological elements of emotion

Chinese Affairs ..., 1921 Chinese Recorder and Missionary Journal, 1921 Church Caritas Ministry in the Perspective of Caritas-Theology and Catholic Social Teaching Giampietro Dal Toso, Heinrich Pompey, Rainer Gehrig, Jakub Doležal, 2015-12-31 Charitable services are sometimes held up as a shop window and Catholic social teaching as the best kept secret of the Church Reaching far beyond the usual writings on this topic the authors from four European topic relevant institutes attempt to formulate the inter relation between these two spheres or missions of the Church in relation to the outside world the importance of which is only tentatively questioned Giampietro Dal Toso current secretary of the Papal Council COR UNUM points to the theological inspiration of the Motu Proprio Intima ecclesiae natura to show the dramatic change in the position of the charitable service within the Church Magisterium Heinrich Pompey distinguished scholar and proponent of Charitable Service Studies Caritaswissenschaft in Freiburg Germany and Olomouc Czech Republic presents an exquisite model for conceptualisation of Charity Theology Rainer Gehrig representative of Charitable Service Studies in Murcia Spain delivers a survey of the details and differences in emphasis put on the charitable service and Catholic Social Teaching as well as a summary of academic institutes which offers an opportunity to study and explore the charitable services Jakub Dole el representative of Charitable Service Studies in Olomouc Czech Republic tables a model of integral caritas practice which maintains the balance between both courses of socio pastoral mission

Every Good Path Andrew Errington, 2019-12-26 Andrew Errington brings the book of Proverbs into discussion with two significant accounts of the nature and foundation of practical reason in Christian ethics those of Thomas Aquinas and Oliver O Donovan Aiming to move towards a framework for understanding Christian moral reasoning this book develops a significant critique of aspects of Aquinas s thought and provides a major engagement with O Donovan s moral theology Errington argues that the way the Book of Proverbs conceives of wisdom presents an important challenge to the Western theological and philosophical tradition Instead of a perfection of theoretical knowledge wisdom in Proverbs is a practical knowledge of how to act well grounded in the reality of the world God has made Discussing the complexities of practical reason moral reasoning in Aquinas world order and deliberation in the work of O Donovan and the place of created order in Christian Ethics this volume is invaluable for scholars and general readers in reconfiguring moral theology

The Perspective of Love Russell J. Snell, 2014-04-21 While many of the Reformers considered natural law unproblematic many Protestants consider natural law a Catholic thing and not persuasive Natural law it is thought competes with the Gospel overlooks the centrality of Christ posits a domain of pure nature and overlooks the noetic effects of sin This Protestant Prejudice however strong overlooks developments in contemporary natural law quite capable and willing to incorporate the usual objections into natural law While the natural law itself is universal and invariant theories about the natural law vary widely The Protestant Prejudice may respond to natural law understood from within the modes of common sense and classical metaphysics but largely overlooks contemporary natural law beginning from the first person account of subjectivity and practical reason Consequently the sophisticated thought of John Paul II Martin Rhonheimer Germain Grisez and John Finnis is overlooked Further the work of Bernard Lonergan allows for a natural law admitting of noetic sin eagerly incorporating grace community the limits of history a real but limited autonomy and the centrality of Christ in a natural law that is both graced and natural

Ethical Life Harry Redner, 2001 Australian philosopher of science Redner argues that cultural life consists of three fundamental aspects representation ethos and technics This is the second of four volumes setting out a comprehensive theory of human culture The first is A New Science of Representation the third and companion to the second will be Aesthetic Life and the third will be The Triumph of Technics His conclusion at the end of the series is that the contemporary global culture is a triumph of technics over representation and ethos c Book News Inc
