Sermons of Arthur C. McGill Arthur C. McGill, 2007-01-01 Throughout the 1960s and 1970s Arthur McGill had numerous opportunities to air his rich theological musings outside of the classroom We are now fortunate some twenty five years after his death to have seventeen sermons brought to us by the aid of his wife Lucille McGill and editor David Cain University of Mary Washington These homilies reveal the core themes that distinguish his theological writings relaxing in our neediness before God participating in the death to life pattern of self expenditure and rooting our hope in the unique power of Christ The collection culminates with what Cain notes as McGill s signature sermon on The Good Samaritan wherein we see that the reception of grace always precedes the extension of grace In addressing day to day issues such as possessions speech loneliness and anger McGill is both prophetic and pastoral He does not hesitate to say that the wickedness of Nineveh alas is the wickedness of the United States At the same time he brings a refreshing word with theological depth about human suffering and the God who models ultimate vulnerability This book is Theological Fascinations Volume One marking the hope that further volumes might emerge from the papers of Arthur C McGill evidencing the richness of his theological fascinations
