De Graaff, 2025-06-20 Scripture s compelling message of love and justice is powerfully relevant for today The implications of the Amsterdam way of interpreting Scripture are evident throughout the book It is both a personal and timely way of speaking to our disintegrating society The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice provides a meaningful and radical yet simple way of re connecting with the Bible As one of the founders of the Amsterdam way of interpretation Karel Deurloo stated The opportunity to learn anew and understand the language of the Bible has been taken away Often the focus is on the assumed origin and history of a text a historical literary approach or a fundamentalist view creating a fragmented moralistic and doctrinaire emphasis which has alienated many from churches Instead Deurloo and others focused on the prophetic meaning that speaks to all of us as the living word of God today This alternative is rooted in the Hebrew Scriptures Its abiding prophetic message of love and justice is reiterated in the Gospels and apostolic letters Hence the choice of subtitle Rediscovering the Old Testament It is a joyful journey of discovery finding new meaning in the Bible for our lives Creating Resistances: Pastoral Care in a Postcolonial World Melinda McGarrah Sharp, 2019-10-01 Multiple forms of oppression injustice and violence today have roots in histories of colonialism This connection to the past feels familiar for some and less relevant for others Understanding and responding to these connections is more crucial than ever yet some resist rather than face this task directly Others resist oppressive postcolonial conditions Using intercultural stories and pastoral care scholarship this book charts pathways through five resistances not me not here not now not relevant not possible to awaken creative pastoral care in a postcolonial world McGarrah Sharp recommends practices that everyone can do believing in each other revisiting how histories are taught imagining more passable futures heeding prophetic poets and crossing borders with healthy boundaries Themes in Latin American Cinema Keith John Richards, 2020-03-20 This updated and expanded edition gives critical analyses of 23 Latin American films

Mark Twain among the Indians and Other Indigenous Peoples is the first book length study of the writer's evolving views regarding the aboriginal inhabitants of North America and the Southern Hemisphere and his deeply conflicted representations of them in fiction newspaper sketches and speeches Using a wide range of archival materials including previously unexamined marginalia in books from Clemens's personal library Driscoll charts the development of the writer's ethnocentric attitudes about Indians and savagery in relation to the various geographic and social milieus of communities he inhabited at key periods in his life from antebellum Hannibal Missouri and the Sierra Nevada mining camps of the 1860s to the progressive urban enclave of Hartford's Nook Farm The book also examines the impact of Clemens's 1895-96 world lecture tour when he traveled to Australia and New Zealand and learned firsthand about the dispossession and mistreatment of native peoples under British colonial rule This groundbreaking work of cultural studies offers fresh readings of canonical texts such as The Adventures of Tom Sawyer A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court Roughing It and Following the Equator as well as a number of Twain's shorter works Mother and Motherland in Jamaica Kincaid Sabrina Brancato, 2005

This book introduces students to the work of the Caribbean writer Jamaica Kincaid The author offers a close analysis of six of Kincaid's works reading the central theme of the love hate relationship between mother and daughter as a metaphor for the dialectic of power and powerlessness governing nature and history Placed in the specific context of the Caribbean in colonial times the mother daughter plot reads as an allegory of the conflict between the motherland and the colony The association is played out at two levels with the nurturing figure of childhood embodying the African rooted Caribbean world and the scornful mother of adolescence evoking the subjugating colonial power Two conflicting worlds the African and the European meet in the duplicitous figure of the mother Rethinking Race in Modern Argentina Paulina Alberto, Eduardo

Elena, 2016-03-21 This book reconsiders the relationship between race and nation in Argentina during the twentieth and twenty first centuries and places Argentina firmly in dialog with the literature on race and nation in Latin America from where it has long been excluded or marginalized for being a white European exception in a mixed race region The contributors based both in North America and Argentina hail from the fields of history anthropology and literary and cultural studies Their essays collectively destabilize widespread certainties about Argentina showing that whiteness in that country has more in common with practices and ideologies of Mestizaje and racial democracy elsewhere in the region than has typically been acknowledged The essays also situate Argentina within the well established literature on race nation and whiteness in world regions beyond Latin America particularly other European settler societies The collection thus contributes to rethinking race for other global contexts as well

Getting to Know Waiwai Alan Campbell, 2002-09-11 Living with the Wayapi and their charismatic leader Waiwai is a serious adventure It is demanding and can turn dangerous in a moment The environment is a difficult one but beautiful and baffling in its richness And the job of learning about the people is like a journey without end Alan Campbell tells the story of these people and of the time he spent with them in an imaginative beautifully written account which looks back from a century into the future to relate a way of life that is being destroyed In doing so he addresses important and complex issues in current anthropological theory in a way which makes them accessible without sacrificing any of their subtlety
