Love Debate Poems Of Christine De Pizan:

The Love Debate Poems of Christine de Pizan Barbara K. Altmann, Christine de Pisan, Christine (de Pisan), 1998

Altmann is making a major contribution by providing this much needed text of Christine's significant but inadequately known debate poems together with essential philological codicological and historical background annotations together with a landmark literary critical preface Nadia Margolis editor The Christine de Pizan Society Newsletter This new edition of Christine de Pizan's love debate poems supercedes the only other modern edition 1886 by working from all existing fifteenth century versions and by using as a base manuscript the version now generally acknowledged as the definitive copy The poems Livre du Debat de deux amans the Livre des Trois jugemens and the Livre du Dit de Poissy are spirited discussions of approximately 2000 lines concerning the finer points of late medieval love doctrine and protocol Written early in the fifteenth century they are significant both because of their contribution to the tradition of debates and dits by such authors as Guillaume de Machaut Jean Froissart and Alain Chartier and because their author is arguably the most important female writer in the west before Austen Alongside the texts Altmann provides the first extended study of these debates in their own right offering a literary historical background to the form analyzing Christine's use of the traditional form and content of the love debate and providing sections on the codicology and philology of the poems She also provides an introduction summary and textual notes for each of the poems as well as a glossary for nonspecialist readers Barbara K Altmann is associate professor of French at the University of Oregon and author of articles on French medieval verse in French Studies and elsewhere

Joan of Arc and Christine de Pizan's Ditié Karen Green, 2021-06-29 Grounded in a close reading of the records of Joan's trial and rehabilitation on the early letters announcing her arrival at Chinon and on three literary works Christine de Pizan's Diti Martin le Franc's Le Champion des dames and Alain Chartier's Trait de l'Esperance this controversial work argues that serious historians should accept that Joan was trained It proposes that she was identified and taught how to behave in the expectation of the fulfillment of the Charlemagne Prophecy and other prophecies from the Joachite tradition It explores the possibility that Christine de Pizan who had been promoting these prophecies from the beginning of the century had some hand in the process that resulted in Joan's appearance and demonstrates at the very least that there are many links connecting Christine de Pizan to the knights who fought with Joan

The Lily and the Thistle William Calin, 2014-01-01 In The Lily and the Thistle William Calin argues for a reconsideration of the French impact on medieval and renaissance Scottish literature Calin proposes that much of traditional medieval and early modern Scottish culture thought to be native to Scotland or primarily from England is in fact strikingly international and European By situating Scottish works in a broad intertextual context Calin reveals which French genres and modes were most popular in Scotland and why The Lily and the Thistle provides appraisals of medieval narrative texts in the high courtly mode equivalent to the French romans amoureux comic didactic and satirical texts and Scots romance Special attention is accorded to texts composed originally in French such as the Arthurian Roman de Fergus as well as to the lyrics of Mary Queen of Scots and little known writers from the French and Scottish canons By considering both medieval and renaissance works Calin is able to observe shifts in taste and French influence over the centuries

Controlling Readers Deborah L. McGrady, 2012-12-17 Guillaume de Machaut 1300-1377 was the master poet of fourteenth century France He established models for much of the vernacular poetry written by subsequent generations and he was instrumental in institutionalizing the lay reader In particular his longest and most important work the Voir dit calls attention to the coexistence of public and private reading practices through its intensely hybrid form sixty three poems and ten songs invite an oral performance while forty six private prose letters as well as elaborate illustration and references to its own materiality promote a physical encounter with the book In Controlling Readers Deborah McGrady uses Machaut's corpus as a case study to explore the impact of lay literacy on the culture of late medieval Europe. Arguing that Machaut and his bookmakers were responding to contemporary debates surrounding literacy, McGrady first accounts for the formal invention of the lay reader in medieval art and literature, then analyses Machaut and his bookmakers' innovative use of both narrative and bibliographical devices to try to control the responses of his readers and promote intimate and sensual reading practices in place of the more common public performances of court culture. McGrady's erudite and exhaustive study is key to understanding Machaut, his works, and his influence on the history of reading in the fourteenth century and beyond.
