

LOVE Poem

- I WROTE YOUR NAME
IN THE SKY,
BUT THE WIND BLEW IT AWAY.
- I WROTE YOUR NAME
IN THE SAND,
BUT THE WAVES WASHED IT AWAY.
- I WROTE YOUR NAME
IN MY HEART,
AND FOREVER IT WILL STAY.

Theories of Mimesis Arne Melberg, 1995-01-26 Mimesis with its connecting concepts of imitation simile and similarity has been cited since classical times in the exploration of the relationship between art and reality In this major study Arne Melberg discusses the theory and history of mimesis through narratological analysis of texts by Plato Cervantes Rousseau and Kierkegaard Moving away from the relatively straightforward representation of reality ideas in Erich Auerbach's Mimesis 1946 Melberg brings the concept of mimesis into the context of the literary theories of de Man and others Theories of Mimesis is a strenuously argued account of language and time charting the movement of mimesis from the Platonic philosophy of similarity to modern ideas of difference

Early Modern Women's Writing and Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Stephanie Merrim, 1999 This book maps the field of seventeenth century women's writing in Spanish English and French and situates the work of Sor Juana more clearly within that field It holds up the multi layered proto feminist writings of Sor Juana as a meaningful lens through which to focus the literary production of her female contemporaries Merrim's book advances the integration of Hispanic women authors and women's issues into the panorama of early modern women's writing and opens up unexplored commonalities between Sor Juana and her sister writers Early modern women writers whose works are explored include Marie de Gournay Margaret Fell Fox Catalina de Erauso Maria de Zayas Ana Caro Mme de Lafayette Anne Bradstreet St Teresa and Margaret Lucas Cavendish Merrim's study provides a full bodied picture of the resources that the cultural and historical climates of the seventeenth century placed at the disposal of women writers the manners in which women writers instrumentalized them the building blocks and concerns of early modern women's writing and the continuities between early modern and modern women's writing Written in an engaging clear manner this innovative study will be of interest not only to Hispanists but also to scholars in early modern studies women's studies history and comparative literature

Gender, Sexuality, and Material Objects in English Renaissance Verse Pamela S. Hammons, 2016-12-05 An important contribution to recent critical discussions about gender sexuality and material culture in Renaissance England this study analyzes female and male authored lyrics to illuminate how gender and sexuality inflected sixteenth and seventeenth century poets conceptualization of relations among people and things human and non human subjects and objects Pamela S Hammons examines lyrics from both manuscript and print collections including the verse of authors ranging from Robert Herrick John Donne and Ben Jonson to Margaret Cavendish Lucy Hutchinson and Aemilia Lanyer and situates them in relation to legal theories autobiographies biographies plays and epics Her approach fills a crucial gap in the conversation which has focused upon drama and male authored works by foregrounding the significance of the lyric and women's writing Hammons exposes the poetic strategies sixteenth and seventeenth century English women used to assert themselves as subjects of property and economic agents in relation to material items ranging from personal property to real estate despite the dominant patriarchal ideology insisting they were ideally temporary passive vehicles for men's wealth The study details how women imagined their multiple complex interactions with the material world the author shows that how a woman poet represents herself in relation to material objects is a flexible fiction she can mobilize for diverse purposes Because this book analyzes men's and women's poems together it isolates important gendered differences in how the poets envision human subjects use control possession and ownership of things and the influences effects and power of things over humans It also adds to the increasing evidence for the pervasiveness of patriarchal anxieties associated with female economic agency in a culture in which women were often treated as objects

Shakespeare, Love and Language David Schalkwyk, 2018-01-25 What is the nature of romantic love and erotic desire in Shakespeare's work In this erudite and yet accessible study David Schalkwyk addresses this question by exploring the historical contexts theory and philosophy of love Close readings of Shakespeare's plays and poems are delivered through the lens of historical texts from Plato to Montaigne and modern writers including Jacques Lacan Jean Luc Marion Ludwig Wittgenstein Jacques Derrida Alain Badiou and Stanley Cavell Through these studies it is argued that Shakespeare has no single or overarching concept of love and that in Shakespeare's work love is not an emotion Rather it is a form of action and disposition to be expressed and negotiated linguistically

Between Hebrew and Arabic Poetry Yosef Tobi, 2010-07-14 The book includes sixteen studies about medieval Hebrew poetry compared with Arabic poetry It is well known that since the tenth century medieval Hebrew poets took Arabic poetry as the ultimate paradigm in terms of prosody language purism and rhetorical devices and even in regard to poetical genres However the concept unifying all studies in this book is that a comparative examination must consider not only the identical elements in which Hebrew poetry borrowed from the Arabic one but also what is much more significant what Hebrew poetry stubbornly set itself at a distance from Arabic poetry The conclusive result of this sort of examination is that Hebrew poetry combined selectively borrowed Arabic poetical values with traditional ethical Jewish values to create a distinctive poetical school

Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz, Critique of a Sermon and Other Letters , 2025-02-04 Sor Juana's Respuesta a sor Filotea 1691 is one of her most widely read works and an established text in the history of women's writing Less frequently studied is the epistolary exchange to which it responds particularly Juana's Crisis sobre un sermón or Carta atenagórica 1690 her response to a sermon by the Portuguese Jesuit Antonio Vieira on Christ's greatest fineza or demonstration of love In the Crisis Sor Juana puts into practice what she would later argue in the Respuesta that women could and should engage in theological study and that a woman's well reasoned argument would defeat any man's ill founded and unorthodox thought This is the first annotated critical edition and English translation of the complete published exchange between Sor Juana and Manuel Fernández de Santa Cruz with a comprehensive introduction commented textual variants and extensive textual notes The introduction explores how the Crisis can be read in relation to Juana's other works including her love poetry her eucharistic drama El misterio del Sacramento and Primero sueño By analysing its central themes this study argues that the Crisis is key to Juana's defence of women's learning while also shedding light on her views on gender theological enquiry and the dynamics of love both religious and secular
