Porphyria's lover	Cottage in the countryside, during a storm. "The cottage" Lots of pathetic fallacy/ personification "Sullen wind was awake" "Vex the lake" "Shut the cold out and the storm" First 4 lines set the scene, speaker is reflecting Tangible location but also a little abstract. Methuen Notes Brownings Poetry:

Notes on Browning's Poetry Valerie L. Barnish, 1979 The Poetry of Robert Browning Britta Martens, 2016-01-01

Robert Browning's pre eminent status amongst Victorian poets has endured despite the recent broadening of the literary canon He is the main practitioner of the period's most important poetic genre the dramatic monologue while his engagement with many aspects of nineteenth century culture makes him a key figure in the wider field of Victorian studies This stimulating introduction to Browning criticism provides an overview of the major responses to the poet's work over the last two hundred years It offers an insightful guide to criticism from various theoretical perspectives elucidating Browning's participation in Victorian debates about aesthetics history politics religion gender and psychology A World of Possibilities Clyde de L. Ryals, 1990 A study of how romantic irony characterizes works in various genres by Carlyle Thackeray Browning Arnold Dickens Tennyson and Pater Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Student Book 1979-80 Klaus Boehm, Nick Wellings, 1979-08-31 Browning's Beginnings Herbert F. Tucker Jr., 1980-12-31

Browning's Beginnings was first published in 1980 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Browning's Beginnings offers a fresh approach to the poet who among major Victorians has proved at once the most congenial and most inscrutable to modern readers Drawing on recent developments in literary theory and in the criticism of romantic poetry Herbert F Tucker Jr argues that Browning's stylistic obscurity is the result of a principled poetics of evasion This art of disclosure in deferring formal and semantic finalities constitutes an aesthetic counterpart to his open ended moral philosophy of incompleteness Browning's poems like his enormously productive career find their motivation and sustenance in his optimistic love of the future a love that is indistinguishable from his lifelong fear that there will be nothing left to say The opening chapters trace the workings of Browning's art of disclosure with extensive and original interpretations of the unduly neglected early poems Pauline Paracelsus and Sordello and place special emphasis on Browning's attitudes toward poetic tradition and language A chapter on Browning's attitudes toward poetic tradition and language A chapter on Browning's plays identifies dynamics of representation in Pippa Passes Strafford and King Victor and King Charles Tucker discusses the pervasive analogy between Browning's ideas about poetic representation and about representation in its erotic and religious aspects and shows how the early poems and plays illustrate correlative developments in poetics and in the exploration and dramatic rendering of human psychology The remaining chapters follow the poetic psychology of Browning to its culmination in the great poems of his middle years exemplary readings of selected dramatic lyrics and monologues suggest that the ways of meaning in Browning's mature work variously bear out the sense of endlessness or perpetual initiation that is central to his poetic beginnings Tucker thus contends that the romantic and the Victorian Browning have more in common than is generally supposed and his book should appeal to students of both periods

Its discussion of general literary issues poetic influence closure representation and meaning in application to particular texts should further recommend Browning's Beginnings to the nonspecialist reader interested in poetry and poetic theory

Poetic Remaking George Bornstein, 1990-10-01 This volume offers a coherent view of post romantic poetic development through selective examples both of individual poems and of poetic influence Bornstein focuses most centrally on Browning in the Victorian period and Yeats and Pound in the Modern but also looks more briefly at works by Wordsworth Coleridge Keats Shelley Arnold Tennyson and Eliot The introductory manifesto Four Gaps in Postromantic Influence Study posits four new orientations for such work taking the volume rather than the individual poem as a unit stressing more centrally the Victorian mediation between Romantic and Modern allowing for national differences among English Irish and American traditions and basing influence studies as much on manuscript materials as on finished products Each of the following chapters follows one or more of those orientations The initial four chapters Remaking Poetry focus on readings of specific poetic texts The first treats Browning's first major volume as a unit the second reads his dramatic monologue Pictor Ignotus against Romantic acts of mind the third maps distinctively Victorian variations in the major form known as Greater Romantic Lyric and the fourth explores Yeats's mature revision of that form The second group of four chapters Remaking Poets stresses the dynamics of literary influence by which poets turn their forerunners into figures helpful to their own development The first three examine Yeats's encounter with Dante Spenser Browning and Tennyson respectively the fourth treats Pound's remaking of the poet he called his poetic father Browning in a way that suggests the limits of anxiety models of poetic influence For this volume Professor Bornstein has revised and expanded a select group of his recent essays and added a new one on the Greater Victorian Lyric

Browning, Victorian Poetics and the Romantic Legacy Dr Britta Martens, 2013-05-28 Taking an original approach to Robert Browning's poetics Britta Martens focuses on a corpus of relatively neglected poems in Browning's own voice in which he reflects on his poetry his self conceptualization and his place in the poetic tradition She analyzes his work in relation to Romanticism Victorian reactions to the Romantic legacy and wider nineteenth century changes in poetic taste to argue that in these poems as in his more frequently studied dramatic monologues Browning deploys varied dramatic methods of self representation often critically and ironically exposing the biases and limitations of the seemingly authoritative speaker Browning The poems thus become devices for Browning's detached evaluation of his own and of others poetics an evaluation never fully explicit but presented with elusive economy for the astute reader to interpret The confrontation between the personal authorial voice and the dramatic voice in these poems provides revealing insights into the poet's highly self conscious conflicted and sustained engagement with the Romantic tradition and the diversely challenging reader expectations that he faces in a post Romantic age As the Victorian most rigorous in his rejection of Romantic self expression Browning is a key transitional figure between the sharply antagonistic periods of Romanticism and Modernism He is also as Martens persuasively demonstrates a poet of complex contradictions and an illuminating case study for addressing the perennial issues of voice authorial authority and self reference

The Plays of Robert Browning Thomas J. Collins, Richard J. Shroyer, 2019-06-04 Published in 1988 and including all seven of Robert Browning's dramas Collins and Shroyer introduce this convenient and reliable reading text by discussing the plays with a history of criticism and giving insightful notes on each individual play in the book A Reader's Guide to the Narrative and Lyric Poetry of Thomas Lovell Beddoes Rodney Edgecombe, 2015-10-05 Beddoes poses a peculiar problem for critics and scholars who wish to redress the marginal position that he occupies in the Romantic canon a problem seemingly unique to him and created in part by his misconception of his own strengths as a writer An extremely good poet who had things turned out differently might have functioned as a missing link between Keats and Tennyson he fatally divided his attention between verse and medicine a discipline that by his own admission made in the poem composed for Zo King served to wither his creative gift This fission of energy was bad enough but more damaging still was his misconception of metier for whatever mental resources remained to Beddoes after gruelling days in the classroom he invested in writing an unstageable drama instead of in his primary gift for lyric verse Whereas the Beddoes revival that has been gathering momentum in recent years has centred on Death's Jest Book the play onto which the poet directed some might say misdirected so much of his creative energy this study focuses wholly on his lyric and narrative verse much of which has received short critical shrift It follows the sequence of poems set out in the Donner edition and focuses on their verbal richness and inventiveness as they unspool upon the page Yeats Annual Richard J. Finneran, 1982-06-18 The Smiling Muse Jerold Savory, Patricia Marks, 1985 Becoming Browning Clyde de L. Ryals, 1983
