Moon In A Mason Jar And What My Father Believed:

Moon in a Mason Jar Robert Wrigley, 1998 Guggenheim Fellow Robert Wrigley is winner of the San Francisco Poetry Center Book Award Here two of Wrigley's finest collections of poems are now together in one volume An acute eye for authentic detail and a subtle ear for the rhythms and cadences of real speech and what he has to say is worth hearing
BOOKLIST What My Father Believed Robert Wrigley, 1991 Sleeping with the Moon Colleen J. McElroy, 2024-03-18 PEN Oakland National Literary Award 2008 Colleen J McElroy's poetry shoots for the moon and takes it in too in one way after another The collection's award winning poems animate women's experiences of sex shopping and dancing while offering telling insight into the struggles and silver lining of lust love illness and aging Rich with vivid imagery and candid storytelling Sleeping with the Moon takes readers on moonlit adventures under the night sky through the barroom's smoky haze and under the covers Beware such delicate sights have driven more than one woman to despair instead she watched him breathe relishing for a moment that secret space where night grows soft and the moon's detumescence forgives and where if this jeweled light holds they might strip themselves of years if only for one night from In Praise of Older Women

Making Poems Todd F. Davis, Erin Murphy, 2010-02-02 This diverse collection of poems and companion essays by forty nationally and internationally known poets allows readers to experience the creative process through the eyes and voice of each poet No matter how often we are told that revision is an essential component of poetic composition it can be difficult to resist the temptation to think of the poem as having sprung spontaneously Athena like from the writer's head By exposing readers to the finished product as well as the poet's own account of the poem's creation Making Poems offers a behind the scenes perspective on the poetic process that will fascinate both beginning and established writers The book also affords poetry instructors an opportunity to demonstrate to their students the ways in which poems can originate from seemingly mundane and unlikely sources Box Robert Wrigley, 2017-03-28 A powerful new collection from an acclaimed award winning poet With nine previously published collections of poetry Robert Wrigley has become one of his generation's most accomplished poets renowned for his irony power and lucid style and for his ability to fuse narrative and lyrical impulses Wrigley's tenth collection Box is a book of poems obsessed with human containment with the way people are contained or confined by time mortality technology identity culture and history in almost everything they are and everything they do Even the body even the poem itself is in this regard a kind of self containing crate in which the human being perhaps the human spirit is shipped into the world at large But Box is also a book obsessed with escape from containment and escape comes from dreams from deep awareness from contemplation from love and above all as Wallace Stevens insisted from the imagination pressing back against the pressure of reality The poems in Box aim to do nothing less than help people live their lives as Stevens put it International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Anatomy of Melancholy and Other Poems Robert Wrigley, 2013-03-26 A powerful new collection from an award winning poet Robert Wrigley has become one of his generation s most accomplished poets renowned for his irony power and lucid style and for his ability to fuse narrative and lyrical impulses Like its namesake Robert Burton s seventeenth century examination of human thoughts and emotions Wrigley s new collection means to examine our world through the lens of melancholia From imagined war memorials to insomniac chickens from Descartes lost daughter to a dreaming tree from King Kong to Rush Limbaugh and from Anna Karenina to a man named Lucy Doolin short for Lucifer these are poems that elegize and celebrate that most beautiful exasperating joyous miserable and perfectly imperfect of all creatures the human being

Earthly Meditations Robert Wrigley,2006-09-26 One of his generation s most accomplished poets Robert Wrigley is renowned for his ironic powerful and lucid style as well as his ability to fuse narrative and lyrical impulses Earthly Meditations features nineteen original poems alongside a collection of sixty one poems chosen from his first six books

The House of Song David Wagoner,2002 As a recipient of Poetry s Levinson Prize and the Ruth Lilly Prize and a nominee for the American Book Award and National Book Award David Wagoner is one of this country s most celebrated poets In The House of Song he offers a hundred new poems in six parts At turns elegiac comic and nostalgic these poems venture to the seemingly infinitesimal points where people legends and culture collide with nature memory and action With characteristic wit and brevity Wagoner chronicles the material invasions of the natural world reconsidering Thoreau amid ruminations on voyeurs and destroyers slug watchers and moth collectors The House of Song asserts Wagoner s place among the finest of American poets past and present

The Disappearing Trick Len Roberts,2010-10-01 In The Disappearing Trick Len Roberts wrestles with the loss of loved ones whether that loss be through death a son moving away to college or simply how people fade from our lives and memories Hybrids of the narrative and lyric form these poems are models of indirect statement that have as Sharon Olds has said emotional courage powerful music and a deep balance Like the light shining on a face or a girl s thigh back in a sixth grade class the poems often come as Proustian flashes lasting just a second but seeming eternal amid an increasing darkness

The Texas Review ,1999

Rhythm & Booze Julie Kane,2003 Arranged in four parts each associated with a particular Louisiana city the poems in Rhythm & Booze trace the hardships and uncertainties as well as the moments of unexpected sublimity of a life lived in a continuous struggle between fresh starts and destructive old patterns Mirroring the music of New Orleans Kane s poems combine traditional form with improvisational flourishes Rhythm & Booze charts her progress as she undertakes a number of journeys from youth to experience from blues bars to college classrooms from city to country from chaos to something approaching peace

The True Account of Myself as a Bird Robert Wrigley,2022-06-14 From an award winning poet a new collection that endeavors to pass along what the things of the earth are telling us Over the course of his career Robert Wrigley has won acclaim for the emotional toughness sonic richness and lucid style of his poems and for his ability to fuse narrative and lyrical impulses In his new collection Wrigley means to use poetry to capture the primal conversation between human beings and the perilously threatened planet on which they love and live proceeding from a line from Auden All we are not stares back at what we are In language that is both elegiac and playful declarative and yet ringingly musical in traditional sonnets quatrains and free verse Wrigley transcribes the consciousness and significance of every singing thing in order to sing back Poetry from Sojourner Ruth Lepson,2004 Collection of poems from 25 years of Sojourner For much of its history Sojourner was the most widely circulated feminist literary journal in America and more than 1 200 poems have appeared in its pages since it began publication in 1975 Nearly 150 of those poems are collected in this volume where together they form a powerful testament to the vibrancy wit and diversity of feminist poetry In addition to works by such well known poets as Molly Peacock Nikki Giovanni Betsy Sholl and Adrienne Rich this collection includes poems by women from a host of different backgrounds including many whose work appeared in print for the first time in Sojourner Some of these poems explode with energy others speak with a haiku like softness some discuss love lust and sexuality while others deal with loss divorce and revenge The voices collected here are old and young rural and urban straight and gay from mothers and daughters to wives lovers and countless others all contributing to this anthology s wide ranging conversation about feminism and feminist poetics The Hollow Log Lounge R. T. Smith,2010-10-01 This is no fairy tale It s all fantastic and bizarre and true It s my life a raspy song that sounds better if you sing along The men and women who live and work near Opelika Alabama gather at the Hollow Log Lounge There under the watchful eye of the stuffed fox behind the bar they unload their gripes and worries tell their stories argue joke commune complain and confess In this collection of poems R T Smith paints a vividly imagined portrait of the community in this small town bar capturing the chorus of the patrons voices echoing off the knotted wood paneled walls Smith s stand in Sam Buckhannon scribbles stories heard and overheard as tongues loosened by liquor spin out monologues in which southern idiom and vernacular seem perfectly at home within the constraints of measured verse Sufficiency of the Actual Kevin Stein,2009 Poems reflecting the rich panoply of personal and public life in modern America from the Poet Laureate of Illinois Songlines in Michaeltree Michael S. Harper,2002 Songlines in Michaeltree is the long awaited collected poems with the sparkling addition of some new ones of one of America s most revered poets Hailed by critics as a distinctive and powerful presence in contemporary American poetry Michael S Harper is an artist and a truth teller who tempers his astonishing technical virtuosity with a compassionate and healing vision A keen observer and a potent commentator Harper calls a complacent society vigorously to account while cradling the wounded and remembering the lost Calling Harper one of the finest poets of our time and one of the most human and humane George Cuomo of the San Francisco Examiner and Chronicle observed Harper s poetry has drawn its vitality from the incredible energy of his language and the honesty of his perceptions Songlines in Michaeltree is a magnificent celebration of Harper s continuing unstinting gifts Some Jazz a While Miller Williams,1998 Here one of our best loved poets gathers his most representative work from twelve collections and adds some new pieces as well An American original Miller Williams involves the readers emotions and imagination with an effective illusion of plain talk continually rediscovering what is vital and musical in the language we speak and imagine by A Map of the Night David Wagoner, 2010-10-01 David Wagoner's wide ranging poetry buzzes and swells with life Woods streams and fields fascinate him he happily admits his devotion to Thoreau but so do people and their habits dear friends and family the odd poet and strangers who become even stranger when looked at closely In this new collection Wagoner catches the mixed feelings of a long drive the sensations of walking against a current the difficulty of writing poetry with noisily amorous neighbors and many more uniquely familiar experiences Use Trouble Michael S. Harper, 2010-10-01 For decades Michael S Harper has written poetry that speaks with many voices His work teems with poetry configured as awe poetry as courtship and poetry as elegy and homage Infused with tales and riddles sass and satire and surprise Harper's poetry takes the form of psalms jazz experiments soft serenades and radical provocations In Use Trouble his first major collection since Songlines in Michaeltree Harper renews poetry as the art of taking nothing for granted In three groups The Fret Cycle Use Trouble and I Do Believe in People he draws on his seemingly inexhaustible resources to paint sing sympathize and sorrow Here are his tributes to his father and family his irrepressible playfulness and his lifelong romance between poetry and music
