Congress. House. Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. Subcommittee on Communications and Power, 1973 Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith, Francis Walton, 1916 Talking about Race in America: Conversations with conservatives, liberals, independents, immigrants and others Seth Elijah, 2022-07-15 THIS work is a meeting of the minds People of different political and ideological beliefs articulate their positions on the question of race in the United States that has bedeviled the nation since its founding Conservatives liberals and independents as well as those who don't have any political affiliation or ideological positions exchange views debate offer suggestions and provide solutions to race problems facing the United States There are those who contend that the United States does not have a race problem It is individuals who have problems and they are the ones who complain about racism blaming society for their own failures in life Their problems have nothing to do with race Then there are those who say the United States has a race problem but it is not a major one as it once was Others contend that racism is one of the biggest and most urgent problems facing the nation Immigrants from all parts of the world also express their views and beliefs from different political and ideological perspectives on a subject that has divided the nation and continues to be one of the most contentious in the history of the country There are immigrants who don't see racism as a major problem in the United States even if they admit it exists There are those who agree with many Americans that racism still exists and it is a major problem Although immigrants they also offer solutions to a problem that from their own experience is a major one and should be addressed to achieve racial equality White nationalists also take part in the discussions on race exchanging views with conservatives liberals independents and immigrants They explain their position and offer solutions to the race question some of which don't differ much from the solutions proposed by some people who would be considered to be an integral part of the mainstream and not on the fringes of the American society There is no consensus on the final solution to the race problem or an answer to the race question in the United States But there is some agreement on some race issues that cuts across racial and ideological lines for example with some black immigrants from Africa and the Caribbean articulating positions that are in conformity with the positions of those who are in the conservative movement contrary to what most black Americans believe Other immigrants including black ones are squarely within the liberal tradition of the Democratic party And there are those who don't embrace Republican or Democratic positions but take an independent position on race matters that is also different from the position taken by independents in the American political mainstream The race question may be far from being resolved But the views proposals and solutions presented in this book may help to point in the right direction toward a final solution to the problem that the United States has faced since slavery
