Rethinking The Romance Of The Rose Text Image Reception:

Rethinking the "Romance of the Rose" Kevin Brownlee, Sylvia Huot, 1992-09-01 The Romance of the Rose has been a controversial text since it was written in the thirteenth century There is evidence for radically different readings as as early as the first half of the fourteenth century The text provided inspiration for both courtly and didactic poets Some read it as a celebration of human love others as an erudite philosophical work still others as a satirical representation of social and sexual follies On one hand it was praised as an edifying treatise on the other condemned as lascivious and misogynistic Kevin Brownlee and Sylvia Huot and the contributors to this volume Pierre Yves Badel Emmanuele Baumgartner John V Fleming Robert Pogue Harrison David F Hult Stephen G Nichols Lee Patterson Daniel Poirion Karl D Uitti Dieuwke E van der Poel and Lori Walters represent all the major areas of current work on the Romance of the Rose both in American and in Europe The volume will be of value to students and scholars of medieval literature intellectual history and art history Rethinking The Romance of the Rose Kevin Brownlee, Sylvia Huot, 1992 Second the methodological heterogeneity of the past three decades of Rose research has been extremely fruitful The Living Image in the Middle Ages and Beyond Kamil Kopania, Henning Laugerud, Zuzanna Sarnecka, 2025-02-25 This edited volume discusses images that bleed speak cry move and behave in ways we usually attribute to living creatures Living images have been the object of devotion as well as targets of destruction and they have been marginalised in both culture and cultural studies for their ambivalence as well as their transgressive nature But what is it that makes images the loci of such powerful properties The present volume is an attempt to recuperate the living image draw it from the margins and re illuminate its importance for cultural history The title of this book reflects the ambition of the contributions to navigate between the Middle Ages of the past and the Middle Ages of the present Our aim is to provide new theoretical reflections and methodologies concerning the study of material agency and living images both historically and today The chapters include close examination of surviving objects and archival research as well as theoretical reflections and span chronologically and geographically across Europe from North to South medieval to modern The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history medieval studies material culture theatre studies and religious history

Writings on Love in the English Middle Ages H. Cooney, 2006-09-02 This is a set of essays from many of the leading scholars in the world of medieval studies which addresses a wide diversity of texts and genres and their diverse perspectives on love Attention is given to interaction between English writings and putative continental and international influences with particular emphasis on the works of Chaucer Translatio studii, 2021-10-25 Water in Medieval Literature Albrecht Classen, 2017-08-15 Ecocritical thinking has sensitized us more than ever before to the tremendous importance of water for human life as it is richly reflected in the world of literature The great relevance of water also in the Middle Ages might come as a surprise for many readers but the evidence assembled here confirms that also medieval poets were keenly aware of the importance of water to sustain all life to provide understanding of life's secrets to mirror love and to connect the individual with God In eleven chapters major medieval European authors and their works are discussed here taking us from the world of Old Norse to Irish and Latin literature to German French English and Italian romances and other narratives Inscribing the Hundred Years' War in French and English Cultures Mich.) Medieval Crossover Barbara Newman, 2013-05-15 The sacred and the secular in medieval literature have too often been perceived as opposites or else relegated to separate but unequal spheres In Medieval Crossover Reading the Secular against the Sacred Barbara Newman offers a new approach to the many ways that sacred and secular interact in medieval literature arguing that in contrast to our own cultural situation the sacred was the normative unmarked default category against which the secular always had to define itself and establish its niche Newman refers to this dialectical relationship as crossover which is not a genre in itself but a mode of interaction an openness to the meeting or even merger of sacred and secular in a wide variety of forms Newman sketches a few of the principles that shape their interaction the hermeneutics of both and the principle of double judgment the confluence of pagan material and Christian meaning in Arthurian romance the rule of convergent idealism in hagiographic romance and the double edged sword in parody Medieval Crossover explores a wealth of case studies in French English and Latin texts that concentrate on instances of paradox collision and convergence Newman convincingly and with great clarity demonstrates the widespread applicability of the crossover concept as an analytical tool examining some very disparate works These include French and English romances about Lancelot and the Grail the mystical writing of Marguerite Porete placed in the context of lay spirituality lyric traditions and the Romance of the Rose multiple examples of parody sexually obscene shockingly anti Semitic or cleverly litigious and Ren of Anjou's two allegorical dream visions Some of these texts are scarcely known to medievalists others are rarely studied together Newman s originality in her choice of these primary works will inspire new questions and set in motion new fields of exploration for medievalists working in a large variety of disciplines including literature religious studies history and cultural studies

Dutch and Flemish Literature as World Literature Theo D'haen, 2019-07-25 The recent return of world literature to the centre of literary studies has entailed an increased attention to non European literatures but in turn has also further marginalized Europe s smaller literatures Dutch and Flemish Literature as World Literature shows how Dutch language literature from its very beginnings in the Middle Ages to the present has not only always taken its cue from the major literary traditions of Europe and beyond but has also actively contributed to and influenced these traditions The contributors to this book focus on key works and authors providing a concise yet highly readable history of Dutch language literature and demonstrating how this literature is anchored in world literature

Dante John Took, 2021-12-14 For all that has been written about the author of the Divine Comedy Dante Alighieri 1265 1321 remains the best guide to his own life and work Dante s writings are therefore never far away in this authoritative and comprehensive intellectual biography which offers a fresh account of the medieval Florentine poet s life and thought before and after his exile in 1302 Beginning with the often violent circumstances of Dante s life the book examines his successive works as testimony to the course of his passionate humanity his lyric poetry through to the Vita nova as the great work of his first period the Convivio De vulgari eloquentia and the poems of his early years in exile and the Monarchia and the Commedia as the product of his maturity Describing as it does a journey of the mind the book confirms the nature of Dante s undertaking as an exploration of what he himself speaks of as maturity in the flame of love The result is an original synthesis of Dante s life and work Amazon com

Spiritual and Material Boundaries in Old French Verse Jacob Abell, 2023-09-05 The Earthly Paradise was a vibrant symbol at the heart of medieval Christian geographies of the cosmos As humanity s primal home now lost through the sins of Adam of Eve the Earthly Paradise figured prominently in Old French tales of lands beyond the mundane world This study proposes a fresh look at the complex roles played by the Earthly Paradise in three medieval French poems Marie de France s The Purgatory of St Patrick Benedeit s Voyage of Saint Brendan the Abbot and Guillaume de Lorris's The Romance of the Rose By examining the literary cultural and artistic components that informed each poem this book advances the thesis that the exterior walls of the Earthly Paradise served evolving purposes as contemplative objects that implicitly engaged complex notions of economic solidarity and idealized community These visions of the Earthly Paradise stand to provide a striking contribution to a historically informed response to the contemporary legacies of colonialism and the international refugee crisis

Castration and Culture in the Middle Ages Larissa Tracy, 2013 Essays exploring medieval castration as reflected in archaeology law historical record and literary motifs Castration and castrati have always been facets of western culture from myth and legend to law and theology from eunuchs guarding harems to the seventeenth and eighteenth century castrati singers Metaphoric castration pervades a number of medieval literary genres particularly the Old French fabliaux exchanges of power predicated upon the exchange or absence of sexual desire signified by genitalia but the plain literal act of castration and its implications are often overlooked This collection explores this often taboo subject and its implications for cultural mores and custom in Western Europe seeking to demystify and demythologize castration Its subjects include archaeological studies of eunuchs historical accounts of castration in trials of combat the mutilation of political rivals in medieval Wales Anglo Saxon and Frisian legal and literary examples of castration as punishment castration as comedy in the Old French fabliaux the prohibition against genital mutilation in hagiography and early modern anxieties about punitive castration enacted on the Elizabethan stage The introduction reflects on these topics in the context of arguably the most well known victim of castration in the middle ages Abelard
