Mileaf, Francis M. Naumann, Michael R. Taylor, 2009-04-10 An old genre is given a new look as portraits and self portraits of Marcel Duchamp invent and cover up as much as they reveal and portray One of the most influential artists of the twentieth century Marcel Duchamp 1887 1968 was a master of self invention who carefully regulated the image he projected through self portraiture and through his collaboration with those who portrayed him During his long career Duchamp recast accepted modes for assembling and describing identity indelibly altering the terrain of portraiture This groundbreaking book which accompanies a major exhibition at the Smithsonian Institution s National Portrait Gallery demonstrates the ways in which Duchamp willfully manipulated the techniques of portraiture both to secure his reputation as an iconoclast and to establish himself as a major figure in the art world Although scholars have explored Duchamp s use of aliases little attention has been paid to how this work played into and against existing portrait conventions Nor has any study yet compared these explicitly self constructed projects with the large body of portraits of Duchamp by others Inventing Marcel Duchamp showcases approximately one hundred never before assembled portraits and self portraits of Duchamp The broadly defined self portraits and self representations include the famous autobiographical suitcase Bo te en Valise and Self Portrait in Profile a torn silhouette that became very influential for future generations of artists The portraits by other artists include works by Duchamp s contemporaries Man Ray Alfred Stieglitz Francis Picabia Beatrice Wood and Florine Stettheimer as well as portraits by more recent generations of artists including Andy Warhol Jasper Johns Sturtevant Yasumasa Morimura David Hammons and Douglas Gordon Since the mid twentieth century as abstraction assumed a position of dominance in fine art portraiture has been often derided as an art form the images and essays in Inventing Marcel Duchamp counter this and invite us to rethink the role of portraiture in modern and contemporary art Orange Coast Magazine , 2006-05 Orange Coast Magazine is the oldest continuously published lifestyle magazine in the region bringing together Orange County s most affluent coastal communities through smart fun and timely editorial content as well as compelling photographs and design Each issue features an award winning blend of celebrity and newsmaker profiles service journalism and authoritative articles on dining fashion home design and travel As Orange County s only paid subscription lifestyle magazine with circulation figures guaranteed by the Audit Bureau of Circulation Orange Coast is the definitive guidebook into the county s luxe lifestyle Faking, Forging, Counterfeiting Daniel Becker, Annalisa Fischer, Yola Schmitz, 2018-03-15 Forgeries are an omnipresent part of our culture and closely related are signature elements of Tomaselli's work. His large scale assemblage paintings often built onto wooden surfaces and later varnished are rich creations laced with historic and cultural references. They invite close viewing and this beautiful large format volume allows readers to study in brilliant detail the intricacies of each piece. In addition to full reproductions there are also illustrations of details magnified to reveal the paintings texture that is so critical to Tomaselli's technique. An interview with the artist provides enriching background while essays by prominent art historians, curators and critics offer insight into the context and themes of this fascinating American artist. An excerpt from an unpublished work by bestselling writer David Shields who is an ardent fan of Fred Tomaselli rounds off this volume. Dream Colony Walter Hopps, Deborah Treisman, Anne Doran, 2017-06-06. Art Forum's Best of the Year List. A panoramic look at art in America in the second half of the twentieth century through the eyes of the visionary curator who helped shape it. An innovative iconoclastic curator of contemporary art, Walter Hopps founded his first gallery in L.A. at the age of twenty-one. At twenty-four he opened the Ferus Gallery with then unknown artist Edward Kienholz where he turned the spotlight on a new generation of West Coast artists. Ferus was also the first gallery ever to show Andy Warhol's Campbell's Soup Cans and was shut down by the L.A. vice squad for a show of Wallace Berman's edgy art. At the Pasadena Art Museum in the sixties Hopps mounted the first museum retrospectives of Marcel Duchamp and Joseph Cornell and the first museum exhibition of Pop Art before it was even known as Pop Art. In 1967 when Hopps became the director of Washington's Corcoran Gallery of Art at age thirty-four the New York Times hailed him as the most gifted museum man on the West Coast and in the field of contemporary art possibly in the nation. He was also arguably the most unpredictable, an eccentric genius who was chronically late. His staff at the Corcoran had a button made that said WALTER HOPPS WILL BE HERE IN TWENTY MINUTES. Erratic in his work habits, he was never erratic in his commitment to art. Hopps died in 2005 after decades at the Menil Collection of art in Houston for which he was the founding director. A few years before that he began work on this book. With an introduction by legendary Pop artist Ed Ruscha, The Dream Colony is a vivid, personal, surprising, irreverent and enlightening account of his life and of some of the greatest artistic minds of the twentieth century. Art After Art Nassau County Museum of Art, 1994.
