Sciences Sociales Et Santa:

Enseignement Du Droit Ecclésiastique de L'état Dans Les Universités Européennes European Consortium for Church-State Research. Conference, 2005 There is great concern nowadays regarding the character and position of University studies all over Europe as the result of a possible coordination of University studies Within this context the subject of this book is the teaching and research activities of Universities and other European institutions in the field of Church State relations Four University scholars Basdevant Gaudemet Puza Kotiranta and Garcia Pardo report along similar lines on the situation of University studies in this field in the different countries of the European Union The first report also contains a historical description of the origins and development of the University studies of Church State relations Revue européenne des Sciences sociales et Cahiers Vilfredo Pareto, 1987 Principalities and Powers Jamie Pitts, 2014-08-28 Principalities and Powers is an ambitious analysis of John Howard Yoder's complex sociological theory Jamie Pitts work transcends ideological boundaries which have perplexed the many writers who have approached the legacy of John Howard Yoder after his death in 1997 Although there is much disagreement a broad consensus is forming that his theology was on the one hand focused on the social and political meaning of the New Testament accounts of Jesus Christ and on the other hand sociologically reductive hermeneutically tendentious and ecclesiologically ambiguous Principalities and Powers proposes a revision of Yoder's theology that maintains its broadly sociological emphasis but corrects for its apparent methodological political and metaphysical problems Specifically adjustments are made to his social theory to open it to spiritual reality to hone its analytical approach and to clarify its political import To do so his preferred framework for social criticism the theology of the principalities and powers is examined in the context of his wider work and its critics and then synthesized with concepts from Pierre Bourdieu's influential reflexive sociology Ayahuasca Shamanism in the Amazon and Beyond Beatriz Caiuby Labate, Clancy Cavnar, 2014 Beatriz Caiuby Labate and Clancy Cavnar offer an in depth exploration of the spread of indigenous shamanic rituals of the Amazon to Western societies looking at how indigenous mestizo and cosmopolitan cultures have engaged with and transformed these forest traditions The authors focus on the use of ayahuasca a psychoactive drink essential in many indigenous shamanic rituals Bourdieu on Religion Terry Rey, 2014-12-05 Pierre Bourdieu was one of the most influential social theorists of our time He developed a series of concepts to uncover the way society works and to challenge assumptions about what society is His ideas illuminate how individuals and groups find value and meaning and so have rapidly come to be seen as hugely productive in analysing how religion works in society Bourdieu on Religion introduces students to Bourdieu's key concepts cultural social and symbolic capital habitus and field and his challenge to the structures of social inequality This study will be invaluable to any student interested in the relationships between religion class and social power Concentrationary Cinema Griselda Pollock, Max Silverman, 2012-01-01 Since its completion in 1955 Alain Resnais's Night and Fog Nuit et Brouillard has been considered one of the most important films to confront the catastrophe and atrocities of the Nazi era But was it a film about the Holocaust that failed to recognize the racist genocide Or was the film not about the Holocaust as we know it today but a political and aesthetic response to what David Rousset the French political prisoner from Buchenwald identified on his return in 1945 as the concentrationary universe which now actualized might release its totalitarian plague any time and anywhere What kind of memory does the film create to warn us of the continued presence of this concentrationary universe This international collection re examines Resnais s benchmark film in terms of both its political and historical context of representation of the camps and of other instances of the concentrationary in contemporary cinema Through a range of critical readings Concentrationary Cinema explores the cinematic aesthetics of political resistance not to the Holocaust as such but to the political novelty of absolute power represented by the concentrationary system and its assault on the human condition

Bourdieu once commented that what was needed was a new gaze on the social world a metanoia This book describes this view and how to do it Based on biographical detail and the socio political contexts which surrounded him it sets out his vision of society and culture Grounded on the distinction between traditional and modern worlds it shows how ethnographic experience led Bourdieu to an intellectual epiphany It demonstrates the growth of his conceptual tools and the emergence of field theory in various contexts law religion fashion sport culture fine art philosophy literature and politics The book offers an up to date extensive account of Bourdieu his work and its significance It centres on philosophical questions of social experience and intellectual practice Based around his entire oeuvre it features recent posthumous publications in French providing important insights for the first time into his way of viewing the world Including issues of the state neoliberalism and resistance this book explores the ways in which the social philosophical and political came together for Bourdieu to shape how we see ourselves and our place in the contemporary world a metanoia Being both an introductory and advanced text it is a valuable resource for the newcomer to Bourdieu as well as the experienced researcher It will be of interest to undergraduates postgraduates researchers of Bourdieu s work in the areas of sociology media philosophy religion economics architecture cultural studies education music journalism gender studies politics the law fine arts and linguistics

The Stolen Bones of St. John of Matha A. Katie Harris, 2023-11-03 On the night of March 18 1655 two Spanish friars broke into a church to steal the bones of the founder of their religious institution the Order of the Most Holy Trinity This book investigates this little known incident of relic theft and the lengthy legal case that followed together with the larger questions that surround the remains of saints in seventeenth century Catholic Europe Drawing on a wealth of manuscript and print sources from the era A Katie Harris uses the case of St John of Matha s stolen remains to explore the roles played by saints relics the anxieties invested in them their cultural meanings and the changing modes of thought with which early modern Catholics approached them While in theory a relic s authenticity and identity might be proved by supernatural evidence in practice early modern Church authorities often reached for proofs grounded in the material human world preferences that were representative of the standardizing and streamlining of sixteenth and seventeenth century saint making Harris examines how Matha s advocates deployed material and documentary proofs locating them within a framework of Scholastic concepts of individuation identity change and persistence and applying moral certainty to accommodate the inherent uncertainty of human evidence and relic knowledge Engaging and accessible The Stolen Bones of St John of Matha raises an array of important questions surrounding relic identity and authenticity in seventeenth century Europe It will be of interest to students scholars and casual readers interested in European history religious history material culture and Renaissance studies

Lapidus,Ervand Abrahamian,1988 Taken together the essays in this work not only provide new research essential to the study of Islamic societies and Muslim peoples but also set a new standard for the concrete study of local situations and illuminate the forces shaping the history of modern Muslim societies This collection is unique in its sophisticated interpretation of the social protest and political resistance movements in Muslim countries during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The contributors take two principal approaches to the study of their subject Utilizing new cultural history they explore how particular movements have deployed the cultural and religious resources of Islam to mobilize and legitimize insurgent political action Others rely on new social history to study the economic political and social contexts in which movements of anti colonial resistance and revolution have developed This work brings together contributions from specialists on Islamic North Africa Egypt the Arab fertile crescent Iran and India Handbook of South American Archaeology Helaine Silverman,William Isbell,2008-04-06 Perhaps the contributions of South American archaeology to the larger field of world archaeology have been inadequately recognized If so this is probably because there have been relatively few archaeologists working in South America outside of Peru and recent advances in knowledge in other parts of the continent are only beginning to enter larger archaeological discourse Many ideas of and about South American archaeology held by scholars from outside the area are going to change irrevocably with the appearance of the present volume Not only does the Handbook of South American Archaeology HSAA provide immense and broad information about ancient South America the volume also showcases the contributions made by South Americans to social theory Moreover one of the merits of this volume is that about half the authors 30 are South Americans and the bibliographies in their chapters will be especially useful guides to Spanish and Portuguese literature as well as to the latest research It is inevitable that the HSAA will be compared with the multi volume Handbook of South American Indians HSAI with its detailed descriptions of indigenous peoples of South America that was organized and edited by Julian Steward Although there are heroic archaeological essays in the HSAI by the likes of Junius Bird Gordon Willey John Rowe and John Murra Steward states frankly in his introduction to Volume Two that arch ology is included by way of background to the ethnographic chapters World Views and Worldly Wisdom · Visions et expériences du monde Jan De Maeyer ,Vincent Viaene,2016-05-02 The attraction and repulsion between the Roman Catholic Church and modernity in Europe between 1750 and 2000 Emiel Lamberts 1941 professor emeritus of contemporary history at KU Leuven is an international expert in the political and religious history of Europe in the 19th and 20th centuries His work and the central themes in his research are the starting point in World Views and Worldly Wisdom No less than eighteen leading international researchers put different aspects of his work in the spotlight A recurring theme however is the attraction and repulsion between the Roman Catholic Church and modernity in Europe between 1750 and 2000 The ambivalent relationship with modernity is therefore the leitmotiv of the first part of this volume whereas the second part focuses on the repositioning of the Church and the tensions between religion ideology and politics In this way the volume reflects Lamberts s fascination for the history of political institutions as well as his research on Christian democracy The contributions address in a comparative way and from a transatlantic viewpoint this broad period of time in history which gave rise to different social movements and different models of society in Belgium and elsewhere Contributors Winfried Becker Universit t Passau Bruno B thouart Universit du Littoral C te d Opale Hans Blom Universiteit van Amsterdam Alfredo Canavero Universit degli Studi di Milano Philippe Chenaux Pontificia Universit Lateranense Roma Andrea Ciampani LUMSA Roma Jo Deferme KU Leuven Jan De Maeyer KADOC KU Leuven Henk De Smaele Universiteit Antwerpen Carine Dujardin KADOC KU Leuven Jean Dominique Durand Universit Lyon 3 Michael Gehler Jean Monnet Chair Universit t Hildesheim Institut f r Neuzeit und Zeitgeschichtsforschung Wien Susana Monreal Universidad Cat lica del Uruguay Patrick Pasture KU Leuven Patrick M W Taveirne The Chinese University of Hong Kong Peter Van Kemseke Europese Commissie KU Leuven Vincent Viaene Attach bij het Huis van Koning Filip Els Witte Vrije Universiteit Brussel
