Scott Foresman Literature and Integrated Studies ,1997 Teaching with Literacy Programs Patricia A.

Edwards, Kristen L. White, Ann M. Castle, Laura J. Hopkins, 2023-09-21 Winner of the AACTE 2025 Gloria J Ladson Billings Outstanding Book Award A step by step guide to developing equitable literacy instruction by adapting curriculum to support diverse learners In Teaching with Literacy Programs Patricia A Edwards Kristen L White Laura J Hopkins and Ann M Castle present a model that allows educators to address educational inequity through the critical and adaptive use of existing literacy curriculum materials In this accessible work they advise educators on ways to combine common classroom materials such as basal readers and core reading programs with instructional practices that provide high quality responsive instruction to all students Edwards White Hopkins and Castle credit literacy instruction as a core part of overall educational equity and they recognize the crucial role that educators play in translating materials into instruction that benefits all learners Here they offer teacher education in support of this essential role deftly guiding educators through a four part development process CARE an acronym for cultivating critical consciousness analyzing materials reconstructing curricula and evaluating instruction reflectively to advance equity Built upon culturally relevant sustaining and antiracist pedagogy CARE enables teachers to provide literacy instruction that meets the range of needs and performance levels in classrooms supporting students in attaining academic achievement cultural competence and critical consciousness The approach outlined in this work which can be put into immediate practice helps educators to provide literacy instruction that builds on students multiple literacies and reduces educational inequity Translanguaging and English as a Lingua Franca in the Plurilingual Classroom Anna Mendoza, 2023-03-09 This book explores multilingual practices such as translanguaging code switching and stylization in secondary classrooms in Hawai i Using linguistic ethnography it investigates how students in a linguistically diverse class including those who speak less commonly taught languages deal with learning tasks and the social life of the class when using these languages alongside English as a lingua franca It discusses implications for teachers from balancing student needs in lesson planning and instruction to classroom management where the language use of one individual or group can create challenges of understanding participation or deficit identity positionings for another The book argues that students must not only be allowed to flex their whole language repertoires to learn and communicate but also be aware of how to build bridges across differences in individual repertoires It offers suggestions for teachers to consider within their own contexts highlighting the need for teacher autonomy to cultivate the classroom community s critical language awareness and create conducive environments for learning This book will appeal to postgraduate students researchers and academics working in the fields of sociolinguistics and linguistic ethnography as well as pre service and in service teachers in linguistically diverse secondary school contexts
