Whitehead, 1968 Raising Standards in Literacy Greg Brooks, Ros Fisher, Maureen Lewis, 2003-09-02 Raising Standards in Literacy represents the best current thinking and research about literacy The book is the outcome of a high profile series of seminars on raising standards in literacy and includes contributions from an impressive group of international researchers and policymakers By offering a rich and unique mix of contemporary perspectives on literacy education this book provides an invaluable source of study and insight into the latest research and developments in the teaching of literacy It includes sections on how research into literacy teaching can inform new approaches found in England the USA and Australia the ways in which literacy education is developing in England the USA and Australia the issues involved in assessing progress in literacy and the validity of research claims made about standards of attainment The book celebrates the apparent success of current literacy initiatives at the same time as raising questions about the feasibility and relevance of such initiatives to the literacy co ordinators and consultants and for all those undertaking further study or research in literacy education El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005 ,2005 El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2003 ,2003 Reading Across International Boundaries Roger Openshaw, Janet Soler, 2007-06-01 Reading Across International Boundaries edited by Roger Openshaw and Janet Soler clearly demonstrates these broader characteristics of debates about the teaching of reading It sets the educational issues firmly in the context of the social cultural and political dynamics that inform and animate them and give them their meaning It does so by setting out to understand their historical and comparative dimensions Establishing the historical context highlights the origins and also the longevity of the problems and conflicts that are now widely familiar The comparative approach also gives purchase on the wide range of approaches taken to these issues in nations around the world More than this however this collection takes us into the realm of international influences It underlines how debates in this area are not simply national but are international and global in their scale Moreover this is the case not only in relation to the broad fabric of policy debate but also in the everyday struggles of pupils parents and teachers in schools classrooms and homes Such an agenda is unsettling and provocative It has the potential to challenge received opinion to hustle preconceptions It may also propose alternative visions for the improvement of teaching in this area that might be taken up and taken seriously in different localities or even more broadly Most of all it enables us to enrich and broaden our understanding of the learning and the teaching of reading at a time when awareness and vision are sorely needed This collection of articles by leading scholars based in several different countries will be a significant contribution to the research field but also a major resource when put to good use by policy makers and practitioners as it should surely be Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 The Integrated Curriculum Anthony D. Fredericks, 1992 Working with reluctant readers in grades 2-5 is especially important because it is in these early years that an appreciation of books and reading can be cultivated and nurtured Fredericks presents guidelines for motivating and encouraging responsibility and comprehension in these children The book contains more than 40 book units on titles selected to motivate the most reluctant reader such as The Beast in Miss Rooney's Room The Bathwater Gang Much Ado about Aldo and Eating Ice Cream with a Werewolf Teaching in the Standards-based Classroom, 2001 Virtually every national standards document every state framework and every local set of standards calls for fundamental changes in what and how teachers teach The challenge for teachers is to implement the vision for mathematics and science classrooms called for in the standards This issue describes that vision and suggests ways to use the standards mandated in your school to improve your practice to help you teach in your standards based classroom The Software Encyclopedia, 1988 2004 Children's Book Market Ellen Hopkins, Susan Heyboer O'Keefe, 2004 Books Related to Compensatory Education, 1969 Assessment Handbook, 2000 *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
