Screaming From Within:

The Scream Within Dwan Abrams, 2004 Eigen in Seoul Michael Eigen, 2018-03-21 This book contains an eighteen hour seminar given over a three day period presented by Michael Eigen in Seoul Korea in 2007 The seminar traces transformations of madness and faith in psychoanalysis particularly Freud Klein Bion and Winnicott emphasizing basic rhythms of experience steeped in clinical details social issues and personal concerns and takes up problems of madness and faith besetting the world today It is filled with clinical portrayals and discussions of personal and social issues Eigen describes ways we live through challenging experiences in therapy relevant for how life is lived Discussions go back and forth between clinical details and cultural dilemmas touching the taste of life how one feels to oneself This work is at once personal learned and down to earth One gets the feeling that a lifetime of dedicated work is being condensed and transmitted mind to mind person to person soul to soul The reader will feel he or she is a member of an ongoing seminar alive today this moment carrying the work further Beyond Innocence Adele Senior, 2024-09-22 On a global platform we are witnessing the increased visibility of the people we call children and teenagers as political activists Meanwhile across the contemporary performance landscape children are participating as performers and collaborators in ways that resonate with this figure of the child activist Beyond Innocence Children in Performance proposes that performance has the ability to offer alternatives to hegemonic perceptions of the child as innocent in need of protection and apolitical Through an in depth analysis of selected performances shown in the UK within the past decade alongside newly gathered documentation on children's participation in professional performance in their own words this book considers how performance might offer more capacious representations of and encounters with children beyond the nostalgic and protective adult gaze elicited within mainstream contexts Motivated by recent collaborations with children on stage that reimagine the figure of the child the book offers a new approach to both reading age in performance and also doing research with children rather than on or about them By redressing the current imbalance between the way that we read children and adults bodies in performance and taking seriously children's cultures and experiences Beyond Innocence asks what strategies contemporary performance has to offer both children and adults in order to foster shared spaces for social and political change As such the book develops an approach to analysing performance that not only recognises children as makers of meaning but also as historically politically and culturally situated subjects and bodies with lived experiences that far exceed the familiar narratives of innocence and inexperience that children often have to bear Mediumship Spirit portraits and the gift within you Mark Rothwell, 2014-10-20 This book shows you how i started out how i learned to read and my experiences In it i give you as many topics as i can on what you can expect if you are a new learner And to show you anyone nomatter what thier background or circumstances can learn to become a medium and receive messages from spirit Mango Elephants in the Sun Susana Herrera, 2000-08-08 When the Peace Corps sends Susana Herrera to teach English in northern Cameroon she yearns to embrace her adopted village and its people to drink deep from the spirit of Mother Africa and to forget a bitter childhood and painful past To the villagers however she is a rich American tourist a nasara white person who has never known pain or want They stare at her in silence The children giggle and run away At first her only confidant is a miraculously communicative lizard Susana fights back with every ounce of heart and humor she possesses and slowly begins to make a difference She ventures out to the village well and learns to carry water on her head In a classroom crowded to suffocation she finds a way to discipline her students without resorting to the beatings they are used to She makes ice cream in the scorching heat and learns how to plant millet and kill chickens She laughs with the villagers cries with them works and prays with them heals and is helped by them Village life is hard but magical Poverty is rampant yet people sing and share what little they have The termites that chew up her bed like morning cereal are fried and eaten in their turn bite sized and crunchy like Doritos Nobody knows what tomorrow may bring but even the morning greetings impart a purer sense of being in the moment Gradually Susana and the village become part of each other They will never be the same again A Dying Planet

Motherhood and Postnatal Depression Carolyn Westall, Pranee Liamputtong, 2011-07-21 Globally postnatal depression PND is a growing public health problem PND affects 10 to 15% of women in Western society It is caused by a combination of biological psychological and social factors Two models have attempted to define and explain PND the biomedical and the sociological models The traditional biomedical model views PND as a medical condition which implies there is individual pathology and abnormality Whilst the biomedical model has been the dominant model in treating PND it has been criticized by feminist sociologists and psychologists for its rigidity in defining and explaining PND In contrast the psychosocial model of health acknowledges the biological factors that impact on emotional well being but places more emphasis on the personal and social factors that impact on emotional well being but places more emphasis on the personal and social factors that contribute to depressive symptoms such as gender poverty social disadvantage and social class The central argument throughout this book is the importance of support before and after the birth for women s emotional well being This book will also include women s journeys through pregnancy childbirth motherhood postnatal depression and resolution To date literature has focused on women s lived experiences of PND rather than their personal journeys through pregnancy childbirth and early motherhood Additionally the adjustment to fatherhood has received less attention For example little is known about the impact of postnatal depression on the partner what support partners offer when women with the intention to fill the gap in knowledge of cultural and social issues relating to pregnancy childbirth and motherhood for woman who were diagnosed with and had resolved PND
