Urban Noir James J. Ward,Cynthia J. Miller,2017-09-06 Film noir has always been associated with urban landscapes and no two cities have been represented more prominently in these films than New York and Los Angeles In noir and neo noir films since the 1940s both cities are ominous locales where ruthless ambition destructive impulses and dashed hopes are played out against backdrops indifferent to human dramas In Urban Noir New York and Los Angeles in Shadow and Light James J Ward and Cynthia J Miller have brought together essays by an international group of scholars that examine the dark appeal of these two cities The essays in this volume explore aspects of the noir and neo noir cityscape that have been relatively unexamined including the role of sound and movement through space the distinctive character of certain neighborhoods and locales and the importance of individual moments in time Among the films discussed in this book are classic noirs Double Indemnity 1944 He Walked by Night 1948 and Criss Cross 1949 as well as neo noirs such as Cotton Comes to Harlem 1970 Klute 1971 Taxi Driver 1976 Eyes of Laura Mars 1978 Cruising 1980 Alphabet City 1984 Devil in a Blue Dress 1995 Drive 2011 Rampart 2011 and Nightcrawler 2014 Uniting these essays is a thematic orientation toward darkness whether interpreted in atmospheric and architectural terms in social and psychological terms or in terms of disruptive change economic dislocation and real or perceived existential threats Offering multiple new perspectives on a wide range of films Urban Noir will be of interest to scholars of film media politics sociology history and popular culture

Gehring,2005 This first full length biography of a legendary and award winning Hollywood writer producer and director Duck Soup My Favorite Wife An Affair to Remember Going My Way and The Bells of St Mary's explores the director's life as filtered through his art Gehring maintains that McCarey's films were often a reworking of his antiheroic self In addition the apparent diversity of his films actually represents an interrelated web of various comedy genres and a pattern of antiheroic characters and themes Cinematernity Lucy Fischer,2014-07-14 Noting that motherhood is a common metaphor for film production Lucy Fischer undertakes the first investigation of how the topic of motherhood presents itself throughout a wide range of film genres Until now discussions of maternity have focused mainly on melodramas which along with musicals and screwball comedies have traditionally been viewed as women's cinema Fischer defies gender based classifications to show how motherhood has played a fundamental role in the overall cinematic experience She argues that motherhood is often treated as a site of crisis for example the mother being blamed for the ills afflicting her offspring then shows the tendency of certain genres to specialize in representing a particular social or psychological dimension in the thematics of maternity Drawing on social history and various cultural theories Fischer first looks at Rosemary's Baby to show the prevalence of childbirth themes in horror films In crime films White Heat she sees the linkage of male deviance and mothering The Hand That Rocks the Cradle and The Guardian both occult thrillers uncover cultural anxieties about working mothers Her discussion covers burlesques of male mothering feminist documentaries on the mother daughter relationship trick films dealing with procreative metaphors and postmodern films like High Heels where fluid sexuality is the theme These films tend to treat motherhood as a locus of irredeemable conflict whereas History and Memory and High Tide propose a more sanguine dynamic and enabling view Originally published in 1996 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Ordinary Pleasures Kay Young,2001 This text seeks to offer a new theory of narrative in its uncovering of how conversations and comic interchanges

Picturing Argentina: Myths, Movies, and the Peronist Vision Currie K. Thompson, 2014-05-28 Although Juan Domingo Peron s central role in Argentine history and the need for an unbiased assessment of his impact on his nation s cinema are beyond dispute the existing scholarship on the subject is limited In recent decades Argentina has witnessed a revival of serious film study some of which has focused on the nation s classical movies and in one case on Peronism None of this work has been translated into English however This is the first English language book that offers an extensive assessment of Argentine cinema during first Peronism It is also the first study in any language that concentrates systematically on the evolution of social attitudes reflected in Argentine movies throughout those years and that assesses the period s impact on subsequent filmmaking activity By analyzing popular Argentine movies from this time through the prism of myth second order communication systems that present historically developed customs and attitudes as natural the book traces the filmic construction of gender criminality race the family sports and the military It identifies in movies the development and evolution of mindsets and attitudes that may be construed as Peronist By framing its consideration of films from the Peron years in the context of earlier and later ones it demonstrates that this period accelerates and sometimes registers backward looking responses to earlier progressive mythic shifts and it traces the development in the 1950s of a critical mindset that comes to fruition in the new cinema of the 1960s Picturing Argentina Myths Movies and the Peronist Vision is an important book for Latin American studies film studies and history collections
