Long Memory Mary Frances Berry, John W. Blassingame, 1997-08-14 This powerful provocative survey is organized around the key issues of Afro American history Africa and slavery family religion sex and racism politics economics education criminal justice discrimination and protest movements and black nationalism The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American

Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity spiritual richness and strength of African American life

Bounce Matt Miller, 2012 Over the course of the twentieth century African Americans in New Orleans helped define the genres of jazz rhythm and blues soul and funk In recent decades younger generations of New Orleanians have created a rich and dynamic local rap scene which has revolved around a dance oriented style called bounce Hip hop has been the latest conduit for a New Orleans sound that lies at the heart of many of the city's best known contributions to earlier popular music genres Bounce while globally connected and constantly evolving reflects an enduring cultural continuity that reaches back and builds on the city's rich musical and cultural traditions In this book the popular music scholar and filmmaker Matt Miller explores the ways in which participants in New Orleans's hip hop scene have collectively established contested and revised a distinctive style of rap that exists at the intersection of deeply rooted vernacular music traditions and the modern globalized economy of commercial popular music Like other forms of grassroots expressive culture in the city New Orleans rap is a site of intense aesthetic and economic competition that reflects the creativity and resilience of the city's poor and working class African Americans

I'm Feeling the Blues Right Now Stephen A. King, 2011-06-01 In I'm Feeling the Blues Right Now Blues Tourism and the Mississippi Delta Stephen A King reveals the strategies used by blues promoters and organizers in Mississippi both African American and white local and state to attract the attention of tourists In the process he reveals how promotional materials portray the Delta's blues culture and its musicians Those involved in selling the blues in Mississippi work to promote the music while often conveniently forgetting the state's historical record of racial and economic injustice King's research includes numerous interviews with blues musicians and promoters chambers of commerce local and regional tourism entities and members of the Mississippi Blues Commission This book is the first critical account of Mississippi's blues tourism industry From the late 1970s until 2000 Mississippi's blues tourism industry was fragmented decentralized and localized as each community competed for tourist dollars By 2003 2004 with the creation of the Mississippi Blues Commission the promotion of the blues became more centralized as state government played an increasing role in promoting Mississippi's blues heritage Blues tourism has the potential to generate new revenue in one of the poorest states in the country repair the state's public image and serve as a vehicle for racial reconciliation

G. Kelley, 1996-04-25 When something goes from bad to worse we say it fell out of the frying pan and into the fire This timeless phrases succinctly captures what has happened to the majority of African Americans since the 1970s The civil rights movement of the 1960s brought about remarkable gains for most black people and by 1970 African Americans were beginning to be key figures in national politics and in corporate board rooms The black middle class was decidedly growing and thus a handful of African Americans escaped the frying pan altogether But after 1970 heavy industry began to disappear as American companies looked to foreign lands for cheaper manufacturing Millions of jobs were lost The number of black poor began to grow dramatically city services declined federal spending on cities dried up affirmative action programs were dismantled blatant acts of racism began to rise again and the United States entered a deep economic recession But this decline is only part of the story Since 1970 the black community has resisted oppression struggled for power dealt with internal tensions and conflicts and profoundly shaped American culture This book explores a range of issues that the African American community faces in the late 20th century the rebirth of black nationalism the emergence of a new black conservative movement the challenge of black feminism the impact of Caribbean immigration the rise of rap music and hip hop culture It looks at the impact on African American life of such diverse personalities as Roy Innis Toni Morrison Anita Hill Jimi Hendrix Louis Farrakhan Angela Davis Spike Lee Barbara Jordan Shirley Chisholm and Jesse Jackson among others Into the Fire will challenge and be challenged by readers of all ages and calls on our young people to exercise their power to determine the outcome of chapters yet to be written in the history of African Americans
