Long Work Short Life:

Dubin's Lives Bernard Malamud, 2003-09-18 In his later middle age prize winning biographer William Dubin's obsession for biography is supplanted by the obsession of love for a woman half his age who has sought an understanding of her life through his books

Longevity Policy John Andrew Turner, 2011 This book focuses on public policy issues concerning Social Security pensions and older workers that arise because people are living longer The question it addresses is What should be the retirement policy responses to increased longevity Not only has increased longevity occurred for all major demographic groups but people are healthier at older ages This book draws on international experience to recommend solutions for U S policy

Reading the Gravestones of

Old New England John G.S. Hanson, 2021-11-15 The graveyards of old New England hold an incredible range of poetic messages in the epitaphs etched into the gravestones each a profound expression of emotion culture religion and literature These epitaphs are old but their themes are timeless mourning and faith grief and hope loss and memory This book tells the story of a years long walk among gravestones and shares insights gained along the way It identifies the source texts and authors chosen for these stones interprets something of the tastes and beliefs of the people who did the choosing offers some hypotheses on the various ways these texts were accessible to readers in remote towns and villages gives a brief summary of the religious context of the times and reflects on how the language and literature chosen for these epitaphs express these peoples conflicted and evolving attitudes towards life death and eternity The Works of ... E. H. ... collected into one volume, etc Ezekiel HOPKINS (successively Bishop of Raphoe and of Derry.), 1710
