Lorraine Hansberry A Research And Production Sourcebook:

Lorraine Hansberry Richard Leeson, 1997-06-18 Born in the Southside of Chicago in 1930 Lorraine Hansberry and her family moved to a large house in a white neighborhood in 1938 In order to live there her father had to fight a civil rights case in the Supreme Court against segregationists Her experiences with racial discrimination fueled her strong commitment to social justice and inspired her works In 1959 her first produced play A Raisin in the Sun met the enthusiastic praise of Broadway critics and audiences alike It was the first and longest running play by an African American woman to be produced on Broadway When it won the New York Drama Circle Award for the best new drama that year Hansberry became the first black woman and the youngest recipient to earn that honor She died just a few years later in 1965 without ever fully realizing her potential This reference book is a guide to her career The volume begins with a chronology that recounts the major events in Hansberry's brief but influential life Entries are then listed for her plays including A Raisin in the Sun 1959 The Sign in Sidney Brustein's Window 1964 To Be Young Gifted and Black 1969 Les Blancs 1970 The Drinking Gourd 1972 What Use Are Flowers 1972 and the unfinished Toussaint 1986 Each entry includes a plot summary critical commentary and production information when available An annotated bibliography of works by and about Hansberry along with a list of unpublished material and archival sources complete the volume

David Mamet Janice A. Sauer, David K.

Sauer, 2003-09-30 The most complete record of a contemporary American dramatist available David Mamet A Resource and Production Sourcebook is the result of ten years research by a widely published drama and theatre scholar and a university bibliographic specialist Presenting a complete overview of all reviews and scholarship on Mamet the authors challenge assumptions about the playwright such as the charge that he is an antifeminist writer This comprehensive sourcebook is an essential purchase for Mamet scholars and students of American drama alike David Mamet A Resource and Production Sourcebook reflects the revolution underway in the study of drama in which not only previous scholarship but performance reviews are a necessary part of research It gives a complete listing and overview of over 250 scholarly articles and chapters of books on Mamet's plays It also presents the complete production history of each play including review excerpts The authors have produced an invaluable guide to research into this key contemporary dramatist

Edward Albee Barbara L.

Horn, 2003-12-30 This volume documents the life and works of the acclaimed playwright Edward Albee His first four plays were all produced Off Broadway from 1960-1961 creating buzz that he was an up and coming avant garde playwright But his most notable accomplishment came a year later with his first full length play Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? His plays were linked with the philosophies of the European absurdists Beckett and Ionesco and the American traditional social criticism of Arthur Miller Tennessee Williams and Eugene O'Neill Intended to serve as a quick reference guide and an exhaustive resource this collection includes play synopses and critical overviews production histories and credits and locator suggestions on unpublished archival material and lists of texts anthologies that have published Albee's material The two secondary bibliographies contained within are fully annotated chronologically and alphabetically with the year of publication presenting a fuller sense of Albee's playwriting career

John Guare Jane K. Curry, 2002-07-30 Best known for his plays Six Degrees of Separation and The House of Blue Leaves John Guare is a major figure in the contemporary American theater Other notable works by Guare include Bosoms and Neglect Landscape of the Body and the Lydie Breeze series His career began with off Broadway experimentation in the sixties and continues through the present In that time Guare has created many imaginative eccentric plays that reflect the chaos violence and loneliness of life in our time He frequently combines outrageous farce with painfully serious subject matter This sourcebook is both a convenient reference and a resource for further investigation of Guare's works The volume chronicles his achievements with a chronology and biographical essay It also includes summaries of his published and unpublished plays overviews of the critical reception of each work production credits a primary bibliography of dramatic and nondramatic writings and extensive annotated bibliographies of reviews and other secondary material

Conversations with Lorraine Hansberry Mollie Godfrey, 2020-12-28 Honorable Mention Recipient of the Modern Language Association Prize for Collaborative Bibliographical or Archival Scholarship Spanning from the debut of A Raisin in the Sun on Broadway in 1959 to her early death from cancer in January 1965 Lorraine Hansberry's short stint in the public eye changed the landscape of American theater With A Raisin in the Sun Hansberry 1930-1965 became both the first African American woman to have a play produced on Broadway and the first to win the prestigious New York Drama Critics Circle Award Resonating deeply with the aims of the civil rights movement Raisin also ushered in a new era of Black representation on the stage and screen displacing the cartoonish stereotypes that were the remnants of blackface minstrelsy in favor of complex three dimensional portrayals of Black characters and Black life Hansberry's public discourse in the aftermath of Raisin's success also disrupted mainstream critical tendencies to diminish the work of Black artists helping pave the way for future work by Black playwrights Conversations with Lorraine Hansberry is the first volume to collect all of her substantive interviews in one place including many radio and television interviews that have never before appeared in print The twenty one pieces collected here ranging from just before the Broadway premiere of A Raisin in the Sun to less than six months before Hansberry's death offer an incredible window into Hansberry's aesthetic and political thought In these conversations Hansberry explores many of the questions most often put to Black writers of the mid twentieth century including everything from her thinking about the relationship between art and protest universality and particularity and realism and naturalism to her sense of the relationship between Black intellectuals and the Black masses integration and Black Nationalism and African American and Pan African liberation Taken together these interviews reveal the insight intensity and eloquence that made Hansberry such a transformative figure in American letters

The Undergraduate's Companion to American Writers and Their Web Sites Larry G. Hinman, 2000-12-15 An outstanding research guide for undergraduate students of American literature this best selling book is essential when it comes to researching American authors Bracken and Hinman identify and describe the best and most current sources both in print and online for nearly 300 American writers whose works are included in the most frequently used literary anthologies Students will know exactly what information is available and where to find it Encyclopedia of African American History, 1896 to the Present Paul Finkelman, 2009 Alphabetically arranged entries from A to C that explores significant events major persons organizations and political and social movements in African American history from 1896 to the twenty first century The 20th Century Go-N Frank N. Magill, 2014-03-05 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography The Theatre of Nuclear Science Jeanne Tiehen, 2021-11-28 The Theatre of Nuclear Science theoretically explores theatrical representations of nuclear science to reconsider a science that can have consequences beyond imagination Focusing on a series of nuclear science plays that span the twentieth and twenty first centuries and including performances of nuclear science in museums film and media Jeanne Tiehen argues why theatre and its unique qualities can offer important perspectives on this imperative topic This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of theatre politics and literature Icons of African American Literature Yolanda Williams Page, 2011-10-17 The 24 entries in this book provide extensive coverage of some of the most notable figures in African American literature such as Alice Walker Richard Wright and Zora Neale Hurston Icons of African American Literature The Black Literary World examines 24 of the most popular and culturally significant topics within African American literature's long and immensely fascinating history Each piece provides substantial in depth information much more than a typical encyclopedia entry while remaining accessible and appealing to general and younger readers Arranged alphabetically the entries cover such writers as Maya Angelou James Baldwin and August Wilson major works such as Invisible Man Native Son and Their Eyes Were Watching God and a range of cultural topics including the black arts movement the Harlem Renaissance and the jazz aesthetic Written by expert contributors the essays discuss the enduring significance of these topics in American history and popular culture Each entry also provides sidebars that highlight interesting information and suggestions for further reading

The Top Books of the Year Lorraine Hansberry A Research And Production Sourcebook The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Lorraine Hansberry A Research And Production Sourcebook : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
