at the plight of Jews in mid 20th century Eastern Europe From a small Angora farm in Satu Mare Romania to the horrifying grounds of Auschwitz and finally to a new life in America the five distinct voices of Edith Hilda and Mendi Festinger Nate Litvin and Kurt Meyers provide a powerful and intimate journey through one of mankind s darkest hours Litvin does well not to mute her sources with an authoritative filter The book s undeniable authenticity comes from the life events retold by each narrator while most historical texts offer one individual s take We Never Lost Hope presents five survivors working through their memories Litvin augmented the book with photographs news articles and other ephemera telegrams maps etc that support the sense of intimacy and reality Since some accounts can occasionally run long it may have been helpful for Litvin to provide more editorial insight and direction Still the book is a soaring testament to the strength and adaptability of five remarkable people A wonderfully executed powerful family chronicle Kirkus Discoveries 2 13 09
