to click purchase now on whatever a momfluencer might be selling It feels good to hope Momfluencers are just like us except they aren't They are mothers yes They are also marketing strategists content creators lighting experts advertising executives and artists They are businesswomen The most successful momfluencers offer content that differs very little from what we used to find in glossy women's magazines like Glamour and Real Simple only they're churning it out daily and that content is their lives We flock to momfluencers to learn about fashion wellness parenting politics and to find Brooklyn designed crib sheets printed with radishes Chances are if you're a mother reading this and maybe even if you're not you are an arm's length away from something you've purchased because a momfluencer made it look good Drawing on her own fraught relationship to momfluencer culture Sara Petersen incorporates pop culture analysis and interviews with prominent momfluencers and experts psychologists academics technologists to explore the glorification of the ideal mama online with both humor and empathy At home on a bookshelf with Lyz Lenz's Belabored and Jia Tolentino's Trick Mirror Momfluenced argues that momfluencers don't simply sell mothers on the benefits of bamboo diapers they sell us the dream of motherhood itself a dream tangled up in whiteness capitalism and the heteronormative nuclear family Momfluenced considers what it means to define motherhood for ourselves when society is determined to define motherhood for us

Be the Mom Tracey Lanter Eyster, 2012-11-30 The role of mom is often described as the most important job in the world Rightly so for so much is at stake during children's early years and moms are central in shaping character and personhood However when the going gets tough the endless diapers the continual messes the endless conflict resolution the complete lack of personal time etc moms are often tempted to quit their mom job While few would endorse an outright abandonment of motherhood others may recommend that a woman treat her role as secondary to personal desires in order to combat feelings of discouragement and or unfulfillment The enemy has laid intentional traps cleverly designed to discourage and redirect a woman towards self rather than family Moms need to know how to recognize these traps and avoid them Be the Mom Overcome Attitude Traps and Enjoy Your Kids explores and validates the life of a mom who makes her family a priority and introduces the reader to seven Mom Traps that may be preventing them from a full joy filled life How to Work With and Lead People Not Like You Kelly McDonald, 2017-07-24 If you re in a diverse team you know employee differences can cause miscommunication lower trust and hurt productivity It doesn t have to be this way The people you work with may be from a different generation different culture different race different gender or just a different philosophy toward work and life in general but you need to work together toward a common goal How to Work With and Lead People Not Like You explains how to dial down the differences smooth out the friction and play upon each other s strengths to become more effective more productive and less stressed The keys are to find the common ground and identify hidden conflicts that are hurting productivity Many people shudder at the prospect of working with diverse groups of people but they can t voice their fear or anxiety At work it s not OK or politically correct to say I m uncomfortable with this person In fact if you do say something along those lines your job may be at risk Your company may terminate you for not being on the diversity bandwagon So you keep quiet and you keep your thoughts to yourself But deep down you are uncomfortable If you feel like this it doesn t mean you re racist sexist ageist homophobic or any other negative label It means you re struggling You re struggling to understand people cultures or values that are unfamiliar to you You re struggling to do your job with teammates and coworkers who may have very different viewpoints or different approaches to communication than you have You re struggling to overcome differences and pull together to achieve high performance at work Whether you re leading a diverse team working in a challenging cross cultural environment or simply working with people who are not like you you need to be able to get along with everyone as a team to get the work done This book explains the skills you need to communicate motivate and inspire people to collaborate even if they have very different values lifestyles or priorities Learn key steps that bring cohesion to diversity How to have a constructive conversation about working alongside people who are different The four magic words that make this easier and smooth over friction What not to say and why Learn to set aside differences and get things done Learn how to handle a racist sexist homophobic or offensive remark in a professional way Retain your sanity when colleagues drive you crazy The changing demographics of today s workforce bring conflicting viewpoints perspectives approaches skills habits and personalities together in one place whether that leads to synergy or catastrophe is up to you How to Work With and Lead People Not Like minutes a mother would then break down and admit that her child's first word was Shrek. As one mom put it, "Am I happy? The word that describes me best is challenged." Fresh from the front lines of modern motherhood comes a book that uncovers the guilty secrets of moms today in their own words. I Was a Really Good Mom Before I Had Kids diagnoses the craziness and offers real solutions so that mothers can step out of the madness and learn to love motherhood as much as they love their kids.
