Demystifying Serials Cataloging Fang Huang Gao, Heather Tennison, Janet A. Weber, 2012-10-17 This essential reference teaches library staff how to handle the most common and confusing problems in serials cataloging by providing clear examples practice exercises and helpful advice based on experience Serials cataloging can be an overwhelming task that frustrates even the most seasoned professional This book provides simple guidance and real world examples to illustrate best practices in serials cataloging Demystifying Serials Cataloging A Book of Examples is a reliable reference for learning how to catalog serials or improve cataloging skills The book covers important elements of descriptive cataloging of serial publications such as explanations sample records applicable cataloging rules and images of the serials Examples demonstrate best practices and guidelines from the industry s leading cataloging standards including Anglo American Cataloguing Rules Second Revised Edition CONSER Cataloging Manual Library of Congress Rule Interpretation and OCLC Bibliographic Formats and Standards Each chapter contains helpful practice exercises to ensure understanding and reinforce learning Lotus International ,1997 The Architecture Reference & Specification Book Updated & Revised Julia McMorrough, 2018-01-09 Most architectural standards references contain thousands of pages of details overwhelmingly more than architects need to know to know on any given day The updated and revised edition of Architecture Reference Specification contains vital information that s essential to planning and executing architectural projects of all shapes and sizes all in a format that is small enough to carry anywhere It distills the data provided in standard architectural volumes and is an easy to use reference for the most indispensable and most requested types of architectural information Forming National Identity in Iran Ali Mozaffari, 2014-06-20 Modern Iran is a country with two significant but competing discourses of national identity one stemming from ancient pre Islamic customs and mythology the other from Islamic Shi i practices and beliefs At one time co existing and often mutually reinforcing in more modern times they have been appropriated by intellectuals and the state who have drawn upon their narratives and traditions to support and authenticate their ideologies The result has been an often confused notion of identity in Iran In this essential work Ali Mozaffari explores the complex processes involved in the formation of Iranian national identity He lays particular stress upon the importance of place for it is through the concept of place that collective national identity and ideas of homeland are expressed and disseminated The author reveals the ways in which homeland is conceived both through designated permanent sites and ritual performance illustrating his arguments through an analysis of the ancient Achaemenid capital of Persepolis and the Shi i rituals of Moharram In a final part of the book he extends his analysis to the Ancient Iran Museum and the Islamic Period Museum housed in the National Museum of Iran showing how the major transformations of twentieth century Iran which have so far been perceived in terms of political discourses and historical events are in fact concerned with conceiving place Forming National Identity in Iran offers powerful insights into the forces shaping national identity in Iran which makes it a valuable contribution to the cultural and political importance of place      Architecture and the Raj Samita Gupta,1985

Analysing Architecture Simon Unwin,2013-03 Analysing Architecture offers a unique notebook of architectural strategies to present an engaging introduction to elements and concepts in architectural design Beautifully illustrated throughout with the author's original drawings      The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1990      Aldo Rossi Aldo Rossi,1993 Admired as much for his artistic ability as for his architectural skill Rossi has exhibited at galleries around the world      Architecture Series: Bibliography ,1988      The Urbanism of Frank Lloyd Wright Neil Levine,2016 This is the first book devoted to Frank Lloyd Wright's designs for remaking the modern city Stunningly comprehensive The Urbanism of Frank Lloyd Wright presents a radically new interpretation of the architect's work and offers new and important perspectives on the history of modernism Neil Levine places Wright's projects produced over more than fifty years within their historical cultural and physical contexts while relating them to the theory and practice of urbanism as it evolved over the twentieth century Levine overturns the conventional view of Wright as an architect who deplored the city and whose urban vision was limited to a utopian plan for a network of agrarian communities he called Broadacre City Rather Levine reveals Wright's larger more varied interesting and complex urbanism demonstrated across the span of his lengthy career Beginning with Wright's plans from the late 1890s through the early 1910s for reforming residential urban neighborhoods mainly in Chicago and continuing through projects from the 1920s through the 1950s for commercial mixed use civic and cultural centers for Chicago Madison Washington Pittsburgh and Baghdad Levine demonstrates Wright's place among the leading contributors to the creation of the modern city Wright's often spectacular designs are shown to be those of an innovative precursor and creative participant in the world of ideas that shaped the modern metropolis Lavishly illustrated with drawings plans maps and photographs this book features the first extensive new photography of materials from the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation Archives The Urbanism of Frank Lloyd Wright will serve as one of the most important books on the architect for years to come

Proceedings of the ACSA Annual Meeting Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture,2001      Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia),1997      London Docklands Brian C. Edwards,2013-10-22 London Docklands Urban Design in an Age of Deregulation discusses the process and products of the first 10 years of the London Docklands The book is comprised of 10 chapters that are organized into three parts The first part talks about the potentials of the London Docklands The second part presents the area of studies which are the Isle of Dogs Surrey Docks Wapping and the Royal Docks The last part deals with the observations and speculations The text will be a great source to urban planners particularly those who are involved in projects that deal with cities that are in close proximity to large bodies of water      Art Index Alice Maria Dougan,Margaret Furlong,1999      International Theatre Information ,1978

Publishers Weekly ,1987      Modern Architecture Neil Levine,2009 In this work esteemed architectural historian Neil Levine investigates the complex history of representation from the 18th to the 20th century Using the lens of a continuous theoretical argument Levine provides a detailed survey and critical analysis of major works by a host of modern architects
