Choreomusicology Dialogues in Music and Dance is a distinguished collection of chapters by leading scholars presenting research that redefines and rethinks the question of what dance and music are together and apart and which promotes new ideas and voices in the discipline. Focusing on matters historical, critical and conceptual and defining dance music interactions from the era of aristocratic court dance to the present, the book covers a wide range of topics including dance and music performance practice, queer studies, colonialism and exoticism, disability studies, the reparative humanities and film. The volume is organized into two sections. Part 1 examines theoretical and conceptual issues including theories of embodiment, musicality and dance aesthetics with examples including contemporary ballet, the role of the conductor and even fountains in Las Vegas. In Part 2, contributors consider choreomusicology as a historical discipline and tackle the problem of musical and choreographic reconstruction from medieval dance to reimagining lost music in early experiment in dance film as well as choreomusical analyses of twentieth century works. Capturing the breadth of studies and approaches that are encompassed in choreomusicology, this book will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of dance and media studies, musicology and ethnomusicology as well as appealing to dancers, choreographers, musicians and composers looking for new approaches to thinking about music and dance. Carlos Chavez Robert L. Parker, 2021-10-28

First Published in 1998. The purpose of this volume is to list as completely as possible Chavez's compositions which number close to two hundred works and to present a digest of selected literature germane to his multi-faceted professional activity. This literature which began in the 1920s and continues to grow is almost entirely in Spanish and English, reflecting the main arenas in which he worked: Mexico, other Hispanic language countries, the United States and England. Each research guide offers a selective annotated list of writings in all European languages about one or more composers. There are also lists of works by the composer unless these are available elsewhere. Biographical sketches and guides to library resources, organizations and specialists are presented. As appropriate to the individual composer, there are maps, photographs or other illustrative matter, glossaries and indexes. Choreography Invisible Anna Pakes, 2020-04-28

Dance is often considered an ephemeral art, one that disappears nearly as soon as it materializes, leaving no physical object behind. Yet some dance practice involves people trying to embody something that exists before and survives beyond their particular acts of dancing. What exactly is that thing? And how do dances continue to exist when not performed? Anna Pakes seeks to answer these and related questions in this book, drawing on analytic philosophy of art to explore the metaphysics of dance-making, performance and disappearance. Focusing on Western theater dance, Pakes also traces the different ways dances have been conceptualized across time and what those historical shifts imply for the ontology of dance works. Contemporary Choreography Jo
