Così Kerrie Piper, 2003 Postcolonial Plays Helen Gilbert, 2013-09-13 This collection of contemporary postcolonial plays demonstrates the extraordinary vitality of a body of work that is currently influencing the shape of contemporary world theatre This anthology encompasses both internationally admired classics and previously unpublished texts all dealing with imperialism and its aftermath It includes work from Canada the Caribbean South and West Africa Southeast Asia India New Zealand and Australia A general introduction outlines major themes in postcolonial plays Introductions to individual plays include information on authors as well as overviews of cultural contexts major ideas and performance history Dramaturgical techniques in the plays draw on Western theatre as well as local performance traditions and include agit prop dialogue musical routines storytelling ritual incantation epic narration dance multimedia presentation and puppetry The plays dramatize diverse issues such as globalization political corruption race and class relations slavery gender and sexuality media representation nationalism Così Louis Nowra, 1996 Lewis a young first time director is hired to direct a variety show as part of a therapeutic program at a state run psychiatric institution Whilst he is not exactly equipped for the job he is willing to give it a go Lewis is drifting and needs some direction in his own life What Lewis isn't prepared for is the enthusiasm one of the institution's less stable inmates Roy has for opera especially Mozart Lewis finds himself rehearsing an unlikely assortment of actors in a surely doomed production of Così Fan Tutti The cast includes a pyromaniacal sociopath a junkie a knife wielding romantic a lithium addicted pianist who hates Mozart and a stuttering ex lawyer who is extremely reluctant to take part As the production lurches forward to its uncertain conclusion Lewis and the cast find companionship and the power of ideals as the world around and outside them proves both inconstant and rife with confusion

Transgressive Itineraries Marc Maufort, 2003 The fast growing body of postcolonial drama is progressively gaining its just recognition in the twentieth century canon of English language plays From the vantage point of various samplings along the Trans Pacific axis linking English Canada Australia and New Zealand this monograph seeks to document the significance of this emerging postcolonial theater More specifically it examines the myriad ways in which over the last two decades representative mainstream ethnic and First Nations playwrights have dramatized Europe's Other in its multiple guises In their efforts to match new content with innovative form these artists have followed transgressive itineraries redrawing the boundaries of conventional Western stage realism Their new aesthetics often relies on techniques akin to Homi Bhabha's notions of hybridity and mimicry The present study offers detailed analyses of the modes of hybridization through which Judith Thompson Louis Nowra Tomson Highway Jack Davis Hone Kouka and other prominent writers have articulated subtle forms of psychic grotesque and mythic magic realism Their legacy will undoubtedly affect the postcolonial dramaturgies of the twenty first century Australian Metatheatre on Page and Stage Rebecca Clode, 2022-06-09 This book offers the first major discussion of metatheatre in Australian drama of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries It highlights

metatheatres capacity to illuminate the wider social cultural and artistic contexts in which plays have been produced Drawing from existing scholarly arguments about the value of considering metatheatre holistically this book deploys a range of critical approaches combining textual and production analysis archival research interviews and reflections gained from observing rehearsals Focusing on four plays and their Australian productions the book uses these examples to showcase how metatheatre has been utilised to generate powerful elements of critique particularly of Indigenous non Indigenous relations It highlights metatheatres vital place in Australian dramatic and theatrical history and connects this Australian tradition to wider concepts in the development of contemporary theatre This illuminating text will be of interest to students and scholars of Australian theatre historic and contemporary as well as those researching and studying drama and theatre studies more broadly

Imperialism and Theatre J. Ellen Gainor, 2003-09-02 Imperialism is a transnational and transhistorical phenomenon it occurs neither in limited areas nor at one specific moment In cultures from across the world theatrical performance has long been a site for both the representation and support of imperialism and resistance and rebellion against it Imperialism and Theatre is a groundbreaking collection which explores the questions of why and how the theatre was selected within imperial cultures for the representation of the concerns of both the colonizers and the colonized Gathering together fifteen noted scholars and theatre practitioners this collection spans global and historical boundaries and presents a uniquely comprehensive study of post colonial drama The essays engage in current theoretical issues while shifting the focus from the printed text to theatre as a cultural formation and locus of political force A compelling and extremely timely work Imperialism and Theatre reveals fascinating new dimensions to the post colonial debate Contributors Nora Alter Sudipto Chatterjee Mary Karen Dahl Alan Filewood Donald H Frischmann Rhonda Garelick Helen Gilbert Michael Hays Loren Kruger Josephine Lee Robert Eric Livingston Julie S Peters Michael Quinn Edward Said Elaine Savory HSC Standard English Barry Spurr, Lloyd Cameron, 2009 This guide contains comprehensive summary and discussion of all 44 prescribed texts in the HSC Standard English course plus a list of key issues to consider in each chapter related to the relevant syllabus area helpful advice on how to read different types of texts plot outlines character discussion and interpretations

The Body in the Library, 2022-06-08 The body is increasingly understood as being at the centre of colonial and post colonial relationships and textual productions Creating and circulating images of the undisciplined body of the other was and is a critical aspect of colonialism Likewise resistance to colonial practices was also frequently corporeal with indigenous peoples appropriating parodying and subverting those European practices which were used to signify the civilized status of the colonizing body The Body in the Library reads representations of the corporeal in texts of empire case studies include gendered representations of corporeality medical regimes ethnography and photography in the Pacific cultural transvestism in theatre disease and colonial knowledge generation freak shows and colonial exhibits cinematic representations of bodies geography and the metaphorization of land as a penetrable body marketing the body organ transplants and the limits of the post colonial paradigm In viewing colonialism and resistance as a bodily phenomenon The Body in the Library enables new perspectives on the process of colonization and resistance It is an important resource for teachers and students of colonial and post colonial literatures Peripheral Fear Gerry Turcotte,2009 This is a pioneering work published here for the first time in its complete form At a time when Gothic studies still concentrated on traditional European and American Gothic the author laid the foundations for the exploration of how Gothic conventions were transported and transformed in places remote from Europe Through a detailed reading of 19th and 20th century examples of Canadian and Australian Gothic fiction this work demonstrates the transformative potential of a once much maligned mode in what were arguably neglected national literatures Cambridge Checkpoints VCE English Units 3 and 4 2013 Andrea Hayes,2012-12-14 Cambridge Checkpoints VCE are updated regularly to provide you with the most up to date exam preparation available
