PaintingDigitalPhotography Carl Robinson,2019-01-29 We live in a digital age where the mediums of art are inextricably bound to the binary code and painting and photography are redefined in their interconnected relationship through digital reconfiguration As digitisation unmoors these mediums from their traditional supports their modes of production display and dissemination shift These changes bring about new ways of creating and engaging with artworks Through this the innate qualities of the mediums previously anchored in their analogue nature are re evaluated through their connection with the digital Born out of the PaintingDigitalPhotography conference held at QUAD Derby UK in May 2017 this anthology of essays investigates aspects of interconnectivity between painting digital and photography in contemporary art practices It contributes to critical discourses around networks of associations by examining where syntheses occur and differences remain between these mediums at the beginning of the twenty first century Appropriation David Evans,2009 Many influential artists today draw on a legacy of stealing images and forms from other makers The term appropriation is particularly associated with the Pictures generation centred sic on New York in the 1980s this anthology provides a far wider context Historically it reappraises a diverse lineage of precedents from the Dadaist readymade to Situationist d tournament while contemporary art after appropriation is considered from multiple perspectives within a global context back cover

Dika,2012-03-14 Beginning in the late 1970s a number of visual artists in downtown New York City returned to an exploration of the cinematic across mediums Vera Dika considers their work within a greater cultural context and probes for a deeper understanding of the practice Activists Speak Out NA NA,2016-04-30 In Activists Speak Out a group of fifteen American activists speak candidly about how and why they struggle for change Their causes and strategies vary in the areas of civil rights gay and lesbian rights the environment women s issues health youth education labor freedom of expression and the arts But the lessons learned resonate across geographic and ideological boundaries Whether working as grass roots organizers or corporate insiders in cities or in rural areas the through line of their observations is constant Change is slow and may take shape in unexpected ways Small victories count And whatever the initial motivation to become engaged in the struggle for change anger compassion frustration the very process of engagement is itself transformative You cross that line and nothing is ever the same We Make Each Other Beautiful Yxta Maya Murray,2024-06-15 We Make Each Other Beautiful focuses on woman of color and queer of color artists and artist collectives who engage in direct political action as a part of their art practice Defined by public protest rule breaking rebellion and resistance to governmental and institutional abuse direct action activism draws on the aims radical spirit and tactics of the civil rights and feminist movements and on the struggles for disability rights queer rights and immigrant rights to seek legal and social change Yxta Maya Murray traces the development of activism as a practice from the Harlem Renaissance to Yoko Ono Judy Baca and Marsha P Johnson She also studies its role in transforming law and society We Make Each Other Beautiful profiles the work and lives of four contemporary activists Carrie Mae Weems Young Joon Kwak Tanya Agui iga and Imani Jacqueline Brown and the activist collective Drawn Together combining new oral histories with sharp analyses of how their diverse and expansive artistic practices bear important aesthetic and politicolegal meanings that address a wide range of injustices On Art, Artists, Latin America, and Other

Utopias Luis Camnitzer, 2010-01-01 Artist educator curator and critic Luis Camnitzer has been writing about contemporary art ever since he left his native Uruguay in 1964 for a fellowship in New York City As a transplant from the periphery to the center Camnitzer has had to confront fundamental questions about making art in the Americas asking himself and others What is Latin American art How does it relate if it does to art created in the centers of New York and Europe What is the role of the artist in exile Writing about issues of such personal cultural and indeed political import has long been an integral part of Camnitzer's artistic project a way of developing an idiosyncratic art history in which to work out his own place in the picture This volume gathers Camnitzer's most thought provoking essays texts written to make something happen in the words of volume editor Rachel Weiss They elaborate themes that appear persistently throughout Camnitzer's work art world systems versus an art of commitment artistic genealogies and how they are consecrated and most insistently the possibilities for artistic agency The theme of translation informs the texts in the first part of the book with Camnitzer asking such questions as What is Latin America and who asks the question Who is the artist there and here The texts in the second section are more historically than geographically oriented exploring little known moments works and events that compose the legacy that Camnitzer draws on and offers to his readers Women Artists in the 20th and 21st Century Ilka

Becker, 2001 Taschen's inventive layout is effective in presenting the provocative works words and biographies of the nearly 100 women artists gathered here Grosenick a freelance art historian in Germany has selected women artists working in Germany the US South Africa Japan Poland France Scandinavia and Spain among other countries The entry for each artist is six pages with much of the space devoted to good quality color photos of her work c Book News Inc Artists' Magazines

Gwen Allen, 2015-08-21 How artists magazines in all their ephemerality materiality and temporary intensity challenged mainstream art criticism and the gallery system During the 1960s and 1970s magazines became an important new site of artistic practice functioning as an alternative exhibition space for the dematerialized practices of conceptual art Artists created works expressly for these mass produced hand editioned pages using the ephemerality and the materiality of the magazine to challenge the conventions of both artistic medium and gallery In Artists Magazines Gwen Allen looks at the most important of these magazines in their heyday the 1960s to the 1980s and compiles a comprehensive illustrated directory of hundreds of others Among the magazines Allen examines are Aspen 1965 1971 a multimedia magazine in a box issues included Super 8 films flexi disc records critical writings artists postage stamps and collectible chapbooks Avalanche 1970 1976 which expressed the countercultural character of the emerging SoHo art community through its interviews and artist designed contributions and Real Life 1979 1994 published by Thomas Lawson and Susan Morgan as a forum for the Pictures generation These and the other magazines Allen examines expressed their differences from mainstream media in both form and content they cast their homemade do it yourself quality against the slickness of an Artforum and they created work that defied the formalist orthodoxy of the day Artists Magazines featuring abundant color illustrations of magazine covers and McTighe, 2012 While earlier theorists held up experience as the defining character of installation art few people have had the opportunity to walk through celebrated installation pieces from the past Instead installation art of the past is known through archival photographs that limit define and frame the experience of the viewer Monica E McTighe argues that the rise of photographic based theories of perception and experience coupled with the inherent closeness of installation art to the field of photography had a profound impact on the very nature of installation art leading to a flood of photography and film based installations With its close readings of specific works Framed Spaces will appeal to art historians and theorists across a broad spectrum of the visual arts      California.
