Love So Fresh A:

Harlot's Moon Meryl Taylor, 2019-03-01 This is the most recent in Meryl Taylor's long series of literary offerings since 1987 when she first published Earthbound as a tribute to Elizabeth Steinberg a murdered child from New York City. Proceeds went to the World Hunger Coalition. Since then SCRAPS 1988 with New Horizons in Chula Vista donated funds to Humane Society Brown Mare with Avant Garde in Missouri gifted WWF Big Trouble on Hog's Back helped Wounded Warriors and her other works with Xibris aided animal charities across the world. She was widely published in magazines under pen names in the late 70s and won contests with her teachers' help. Writing has been her passion and solace. Now with her love Charles at her side she reaches out to those who hurt, need to heal, survive, move on, and grow past life that no longer works. Living in Dayton, Ohio, she writes for adults and children who need to laugh at lives that may not always seem funny. With a freshly minted PhD she soars into the stratosphere to entertain and enlighten. A mother and grandmother she sees life as a challenge, a tunnel where that light is no roaring train but an opportunity. To aspiring authors write on, publish or perish. Songs from the Heart Catrina De Jong Parkinson, 2011-03-03 Songs From The Heart is a book on poetry written in the author's own words. They come from her thoughts, feelings, emotions, and experiences. It is her way of making sense of her life, lessons, and resolving any unresolved issues she may have carried in her heart. They also shed light on her own awakening into the conscious world. You get a sense of her mood and emotions as she writes. It gives you a small window into her world and her thoughts as well as letting you reflect on your own feelings. You see that she finds great pleasure in writing about her love for her children and her desire to express these feelings for them. But on the other hand you also get to feel her frustrations as she travels through her life journey. As you read on you see her growth both in mind and soul as she learns when to let go and let be and when to act. This is a book that will touch the lives of those who let it and change the way you see your world. It allows you to see that life is full of different emotions and it is not necessarily about how it makes us feel but what we can do about those feelings inside. Each feeling is a gift of growth and it's up to us to see those gifts. So Fresh, So Clean! Pasquale De Marco, In a world where impeccable laundry is a badge of honor So Fresh So Clean emerges as your ultimate guide to conquering laundry day with finesse. Altarpieces Michael D. O'Kelly, 2011-05-18 Fire lies at dawn Winged essences charred bodies still on re This evocative poetry essay collection issues a call for a renewed embracement of the readers own expressive self Weve each a persona to hear a voice to resonate through silences of night and the noises of everyday Life is a mystery hard to crack We bang it like a door and strum it like a lyre until it opens some new portal through which the voice can authentically sound out the truths of being human Thats the happening of this book Altarpieces have always been artistic creations to conceive lifes sacred space This book follows that tradition if rather untraditionally These pieces speak to hear life on ones own terms from ones own altar and cathedral This gathering created a poet self identity called Apokstrophes The essays join with the poems to conceive poetry and the spiritual quest with a renewed existential eco romantic perspective sounding that quest with both feet grounded on worldly other Planet Earth The challenge to grasp life at the core is a wrenching wrestling match with the Other that ever present dimension of poetry on lifes path Joining philosophical play with the authenticity of word pieces as true orients OKellys book with many poets helping along the way has taken up that challenge with unflinching creativity Want a spiritual adventure Fly Take the ride Oh the ride Fins spurred in shivers of hide Lifes dearness reined in the roll of the tide

Dreams of Waking Vincent Barletta, Mark L. Bajus, Cici Malik, 2022-12-22 In this anthology Vincent Barletta Mark L Bajus and Cici Malik treat the Iberian lyric in the late Middle Ages and early modernity as a deeply multilingual transnational genre that needs to break away from the old essentialist ideas about language geography and identity in order to be understood properly More and more scholars and students are recognizing the limitations of single language nationalist and period bound canons and are looking for different ways to approach the study of literature The Iberian Peninsula is an excellent site for this approach where the history and politics of the region along with its creative literature need to be read and studied together with the way the works were composed by poets and eventually consumed by readers With a generous selection of more than one hundred poems from thirty three poets Dreams of Waking is unique in its coverage of the three main languages Catalan Portuguese and Spanish and lyrical styles employed by peninsular poets It contains new translations of canonical poems but also translations of many poems that have never before been edited or translated Brief headnotes provide essential details of the poets lives and a general introduction by the volume editors shows how the poems and languages fruitfully intersect With helpful annotations to the poetry as well as a selected bibliography containing the most important editions and translations from all three of the main Iberian languages this volume will be an indispensable tool for both specialists and students in comparative literature

You and Me by the Irish Sea Glenway,2009-03-24 The poems in You and Me by The Irish Sea are poems of romance and friendship inspired by people I met and by the sea after starting a new life abroad after a divorce They were written to express the love I felt for special people in my life and also to express my love for the seaside These poems of love and friendship were written as my spirit moved me after joining a poetry workshop web site and then later moving to a seaside town
