Suki Sohn, 2018-06-05 Happily Ever After helps single women let go of their past heartbreak and open themselves to love again Those who change their energy change their lives Coach Suki Sohn's journey into personal transformation started over a decade ago when her divorce and a string of failed relationships left her physically and emotionally depleted As work stress mounted she found herself with chronic back pain insomnia migraines and depression that made her determined to regain her emotional and physical health When MRIs CT scans and Western medical approaches did not provide satisfactory long term answers or solutions she looked to holistic mind body spirit approaches The exploration of these various paths led to her deep appreciation and fascination of the subtle energies that influence our daily lives In order to attract and revel in the romantic relationship of their dreams single women need to let go of the past and clear out negative belief patterns so they can reclaim their magnetic and radiant true self The MAGNETIC Process Suki presents is eight simple steps to realizing Happily Ever After

Surveillance in Asian Cinema Karen Fang, 2017-02-24 Critical theory and popular wisdom are rife with images of surveillance as an intrusive repressive practice often suggestively attributed to eastern powers and opposed to western liberalism Hollywood dominated global media has long promulgated a geopoliticized east west axis of freedom vs control This book focuses on Asian and Asia based films and cinematic traditions obscured by lopsided western hegemonic discourse and more specifically probes these films treatments of a phenomenon that western film often portrays with neo orientalist hysteria Exploring recent and historical movies made in post social and anti Communist societies such as China Hong Kong Taiwan Vietnam and South Korea the book picks up on the political and economic concerns implicitly underlying Sinophobic and anti Communist Asian images in Hollywood films while also considering how these societies and states depict the issues of centralization militarization and technological innovation so often figured as distinctive of the difference between eastern despotism and western liberalism
