Ringma, 2013-03-08 There is a hunger in the modern world for spirituality One vast resource of spiritual wisdom comes from the pre Reformation church from the martyrs of the first centuries of Christianity through the long tradition of monasticism to the medieval Christian mystics These are the deep wells of Christian reflection from persons such as John Chrysostom Augustine Benedict Francis of Assisi Bonaventure Bernard of Clairvaux Meister Eckhart Hildegard of Bingen and Julian of Norwich to mention just a few The spiritual insights of over seventy men and women of pre Reformation Christianity are found in these pages From these figures we can learn more about the practices of prayer and contemplation a life of following Christ the relevance of community the challenge of asceticism the movement of withdrawal and engagement the love of God for God s own sake living the gospel sacrificing for the kingdom of God the longing for union with God the practices of justice and a life of prophetic witness For us so embedded and shaped by the modern world this ancient wisdom will come as refreshing water and as a breath of fresh air with the wings of the Spirit and whispers of angels

Deep Classics Shane Butler,2016-05-05 Fragmented buried and largely lost the classical past presents formidable obstacles to anyone who would seek to know it Deep Classics is the study of these obstacles and in particular of the way in which the contemplation of the classical past resembles and has even provided a model for other kinds of human endeavor This volume offers a new way to understand the modalities and aims of Classics itself through the ages Its individual chapters draw fruitful connections between the reception of the classical and current concerns in philosophy of mind cognitive theory epistemology media studies sense studies aesthetics queer theory and eco criticism What does the study of the ancient past teach us about our encounters with our own more recent but still elusive memories What do our always partial reconstructions of ancient sites tell us about the limits of our ability to know our own world or to imagine our future What does the reader of the lacunose and corrupted literatures of antiquity learn thereby about literature and language themselves What does a shattered statue reveal about art matter sensation experience life Does the way in which these vestiges of the past are encountered sitting in a library standing in a gallery moving through a ruin condition our responses to them and alter their significance And finally how has the contemplation of antiquity helped to shape seemingly unrelated disciplines including not only other humanistic and scientific epistemologies but also non scholarly modes and practices In asking these and similar questions Deep Classics makes a pointed intervention in the study of the classical tradition now more widely known as reception studies The Book News Monthly ,1918 LIFE ,1945-12-03 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use The Rough Guide to Classic Novels Rough Guides,2008-05-01 Get the lowdown on the best fiction ever written Over 230 of the world s greatest novels are covered from Quixote 1614 to Orhan Pamuk s Snow 2002 with fascinating information about their plots and their authors and suggestions for what to read next The guide comes complete with recommendations of the best editions and translations for every genre from the most enticing crime and punishment to love sex heroes and anti heroes not to mention all the classics of comedy and satire horror and mystery and many other literary genres With feature boxes on experimental novels female novelists short reviews of interesting film and TV adaptations and information on how the novel began this guide will point you to all the classic literature you ll ever need Classic Cullings and Fugitive Gatherings ,1831 Quarterly Bulletin of the Free Public Library, New Bedford, Mass Free Public Library (New Bedford, Mass.),1914 The Rotarian ,1955-02 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1922 New York Herald Tribune Books ,1929 The Way of Philosophy Chad Engelland,2016-05-12 Philosophy is the quest for a life that is fully alive Drawing on the insights of philosophers through the ages The Way of Philosophy clarifies what it means to live life intensely It exposes the shallowness of conventional wisdom by asking such questions as Can science know everything Should we do it if it feels good Is beauty in the eye of the beholder Is life about creating ourselves Is love supposed to be selfless Can we ignore death If God exists why is he hiding Philosophers invite us to go down deep and live a life in light of truth goodness and beauty If we tread this path we can discover for ourselves the hidden source of the philosophical life in the unending wellspring of wonder Classic Cullings and Fugitive Gatherings Cullings,Experienced editor,1831 Revisiting Marie Vieux Chauvet Kaiama L.
