Penguin Book of New Zealanders at War Gavin McLean,2009-08-31 The New Zealand Wars of the 1840s and 1860s other nineteenth century military encounters the South African War the First and Second World Wars Korea Malaya Vietnam the Gulf War modern day peacekeeping The Penguin Book of New Zealanders at War contains the best widest range of published and non published written material on our people in warfare This is a soldier s book thus letters diaries journalists reports memoirs The focus is on actual experience and on human responses to war A vast array of personal experiences is covered including POWs the home front medical nursing efforts as well as coverage of conscientious objectors Becoming Aotearoa Michael Belgrave,2024-10-10 In the first major national history of Aotearoa New Zealand to be published for 20 years Professor Michael Belgrave advances the notion that New Zealand s two peoples tangata whenua and subsequent migrants have together built an open liberal society based on a series of social contracts Frayed though they may sometimes be these contracts have created a country that is distinct This engaging new look at our history examines how Bowker's Complete Video Directory ,1998 American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Beyond the Battlefield Catherine Speck,2014-08-15 World Wars I and II changed the globe on a scale never seen before or since and from these terrible conflicts came an abundance of photographs drawings and other artworks attempting to make sense of the turbulent era In this generously illustrated book Catherine Speck provides a fascinating account of women artists during wartime in America Britain Canada Australia and New Zealand and their visual responses to war both at the front lines and on the home front In addition to following high profile artists such as American photographer Lee Miller Speck recounts the experiences of nurses voluntary aides and ambulance drivers who found the time to create astonishing artworks in the midst of war zones She also describes the feelings of disempowerment revealed in the work done by women distant from the conflict As Speck shows women artists created highly charged emotional responses to the threats sufferings and horrors of war the constant fear of attack the sorrow of innocent lives destroyed the mass murders of people in concentration camps and the unimaginable aftermath of the atomic bombs The first book to explore female creativity during these periods Beyond the Battlefield delivers an insightful and meditative examination of this art that will appeal to readers of art history war history and cultural studies Eleanor Roosevelt Crystal Roberts,2011-06-23 This book is about Eleanor s humanitarianism and her fight for social justice She started out early in life as an orphan by the age of eleven Sent to her grandmother s home she then was sent to England to a finishing school for girls Here she met an extraordinary teacher Mlle Souvestre who opened the world for her to see and experience Her teacher promoted self awareness and think for yourself attitude to help women become more sustained in their own lives Once she finished school after three years Eleanor came back to New York to have her coming out party for high society Here she met FDR once more since childhood They started to get to know one another and soon found they were in love and dating They married in March of 1903 even though FDR s mother Sara did not approve

However Eleanor did many things to help the many men women and children of Rivington Street in New York She took FDR down there before they were married and this I believe helped to fuel the injustice in the world seen by Eleanor and FDR allowing them to make the wrongs right as best as they could This in turn follows segregation of all levels and including the military helping the disabled children of all ages refugees including those running from Nazi Germany during the Holocaust and many other reasons to state The book highlights on some of her work that she did alone with FDR and with some women friends whom she became very close with over the years I hope that people would be intrigued enough to read about this extraordinary woman whose work and ideals are still sought after and followed to this day Thank you Crystal Roberts
