Married Middlebrow And Militant Sarah Grand And The New Woman Novel:

Married, Middlebrow, and Militant Teresa Mangum, 1998 Examines the life and work of this daring nineteenth century author and women's rights advocate

New Woman Fiction A. Heilmann, 2000-08-09 The New Woman was the symbol of the shifting categories of gender and sexuality and epitomised the spirit of the fin de siècle This informative monograph offers an interdisciplinary approach to the growing field of New Woman studies by exploring the relationship between first wave feminist literature the nineteenth century women's movement and female consumer culture The book expertly places the debate about femininity feminism and fiction in its cultural and socio historical context examining New Woman fiction as a genre whose emerging theoretical discourse prefigured concepts central to second wave feminist theory

Sex, Social Purity, and Sarah Grand: Journalistic writings and contemporary reception Sarah Grand, Sarah Grand was one of the most prominent New Women of the 1890s and a notable social purity feminist and suffragist This collection offers important insights into the full range of her journalistic output and lesser known fictional writings It also makes available biographical and autobiographical material and previously unpublished manuscript sources The first volume reproduces Grand's articles and the contemporary critical reception of her work The letters in volume two written mostly in the 1920s and 1930s shed light on Grand's genesis as a writer and her interaction with 1890s artistic and feminist circles The third and fourth volumes contain a selection of short stories from three collections published at and after the turn of the century These comment on some of the explosive issues of that time feminism decadence eugenics class race and war They also reflect Grand's exploration of the interplay between gender and genre

The New Man, Masculinity and Marriage in the Victorian Novel Tara MacDonald, 2015-10-06 By tracing the rise of the New Man alongside novelistic changes in the representations of marriage MacDonald shows how this figure encouraged Victorian writers to reassess masculine behaviour and to re imagine the marriage plot in light of wider social changes She finds examples in novels by Dickens Anne Bront George Eliot and George Gissing

The Female and the Species Maureen O'Connor, 2010 Describing the Irish as female and bestial is a practice dating back to the twelfth century while for women inside and outside of Ireland their association with children animals and other savages has had a long history A link among systems of oppression has been asserted in recent decades by some feminists but linking women's rights with animal advocacy can be controversial This strategy responds to the fact that women's inferiority has been alleged and justified by appropriating them to nature an appropriation that colonialism has also practiced on its racial and cultural others Nineteenth century feminists braved such associations for instance often asserting vegetarianism as a form of rebellion against the dominant culture Vegetarianism and animal advocacy have uniquely Irish implications This study examines a tradition of Irish women writers deploying the natural as a gesture of resistance to paternalist regulation of female energies and as a self consciously elaborated stage for the performance of Irish identity They call into question the violent dislocations and disavowals required by figurative practices particularly when utilizing Irish topography an already unnatural cultural construct shaped by conflict and suffering

The History of British Women's Writing, 1880-1920 Holly A. Laird, 2016-10-06 The ranks of English women writers rose steeply in the late 19th and early 20th centuries contributing to the era's revolutionary social movements as well as to transforming literary genres in prose and poetry The phenomena of the new New Women New Unionism New Imperialism New Ethics New Critics New Journalism New Man are this moment's touchstones This book tracks the period's new social phenomena and unfolds its distinctively modern modes of writing It provides expert introductions amid new insights into women's writing throughout the United Kingdom and around the globe

The New Woman in Fiction and Fact A. Richardson, C. Willis, 2019-06-12 A cultural icon of the fin de siècle the New Woman was not one figure but several In the guise of a bicycling cigarette smoking Amazon the New Woman romped through the pages of Punch and popular fiction as a neurasthenic victim of social oppression she suffered in the pages of New Woman novels such as Sarah Grand's hugely successful The Heavenly Twins The New Woman in Fiction and Fact marks a radically new departure in nineteenth century scholarship to explore the polyvocal nature of the late Victorian debates around gender motherhood class race and imperialism which converged in the name of the New Woman

New Woman Hybridities MARGARET BEETHAM, Ann Heilmann, 2004-07-31 Since the 1970s the literary and cultural politics of the turn of the century New Woman have received increasing academic attention Whether she is seen as the emblem of sexual anarchy an agent of mediation between mass market and modernist cultures or as a symptom of the consolidation of nineteenth and early twentieth century political liberation movements the New Woman represents a site of cultural and socio political contestation and acts as a marker of modernity This book explores the diversity of meanings ascribed to the New Woman in the context of cultural debates conducted within and across a wide range of national frameworks including the UK Canada North America Europe and Japan The key concept of hybridities is used to elucidate the national and ethnic multiplicity of the modern woman as well as to locate this figure both within international consumer culture and within feminist writing The book is structured around four key themes Hybridities examines the instabilities of New Woman identities and discourses in relation to both national ethnic contexts and the textual parameters of New Woman writings Through the Periodical Looking Glass is concerned with the periodical press and its production and circulation of New Woman images Feminist Counter Cultures interrogates feminist efforts to influence and shape this process by mimicking or subverting dominant models of representation and by establishing alternative spaces for the articulation of New Woman subjectivities Race and the New Woman inspects white New Women's investment in hegemonic racial discourses looking at the way in which black and non Western women inserted liberationist discourses into the New Woman debate This book will be essential reading for advanced students and researchers of American Studies Women's Studies and Women's History

Modernism and Naturalism in British and Irish Fiction, 1880-1930 Simon Joyce, 2015 Through studies of individual writers this book reveals the inextricable connection between naturalism and literary modernism

The New Woman and the Empire Iveta Jusová,2005

Time Is of the Essence Patricia Murphy,2001-09-27

Examines the intricate relationships between time and gender in the novels of five fin de siècle British writers Thomas Hardy Olive Schreiner H Rider Haggard Sarah Grand and Mona Caird

A Very Queer Family Indeed Simon

Goldhill,2016-10-03 We can begin with a kiss though this will not turn out to be a love story at least not a love story of anything like the usual kind So begins A Very Queer Family Indeed which introduces us to the extraordinary Benson family Edward White Benson became Archbishop of Canterbury at the height of Queen Victoria's reign while his wife Mary was renowned for her wit and charm the prime minister once wondered whether she was the cleverest woman in England or in Europe The couple's six precocious children included E F Benson celebrated creator of the Mapp and Lucia novels and Margaret Benson the first published female Egyptologist What interests Simon Goldhill most however is what went on behind the scenes which was even more unusual than anyone could imagine Inveterate writers the Benson family spun out novels essays and thousands of letters that open stunning new perspectives including what it might mean for an adult to kiss and propose marriage to a twelve year old girl how religion in a family could support or destroy relationships or how the death of a child could be celebrated No other family has left such detailed records about their most intimate moments and in these remarkable accounts we see how family life and a family's understanding of itself took shape during a time when psychoanalysis scientific and historical challenges to religion and new ways of thinking about society were developing This is the story of the Bensons but it is also more than that it is the story of how society transitioned from the high Victorian period into modernity

The Masculine Middlebrow, 1880-1950 K. Macdonald,2011-10-04 Who was the early twentieth century masculine middlebrow reader How did his reading choices respond to his environment This book looks at British middlebrow writing and reading from the late Victorian period to the 1950s and examines the masculine reader and author and how they challenged feminine middlebrow and literary modernism

New Woman Fiction, 1881-1899, Part I Vol 1 Carolyn W de la L Oulton,Brenda Ayres,Karen Yuen,Alexandra Warwick,2017-09-29 Contains three early examples of the genre of New Woman writing each portraying women in ways wholly different to those which had gone before This title includes Kith and Kin 1881 Miss Brown and The Wing of Azrael

A New Woman Reader Carolyn Christensen Nelson,2001 Elizabeth von Arnim Isobel Maddison,2016-04-29 In the first book length treatment of Elizabeth von Arnim's fiction Isobel Maddison examines her work in its historical and intellectual contexts demonstrating that von Arnim's fine comic writing and complex and compelling narrative style reward close analysis Organised chronologically and thematically Maddison's book is informed by unpublished material from the British and Huntington Libraries including correspondence between von Arnim her publishers and prominent contemporaries such as H G Wells Bertrand Russell and her cousin Katherine Mansfield whose early modernist prose is seen as indebted to von Arnim's earlier literary influence Maddison's exploration of the novelist's critical reception is situated within recent discussions of the middlebrow and establishes von Arnim as a serious author

among her intellectual milieu countering the misinformed belief that the author of such novels as Elizabeth and Her German Garden The Caravaners The Pastor's Wife and Vera wrote light hearted fiction removed from gritty reality On the contrary various strands of socialist thought and von Arnim's wider political beliefs establish her as a significant author of British anti invasion literature while weighty social issues underpin much of her later writing

Encyclopedia of Women Social Reformers Helen Rappaport,2001-12-06 The first comprehensive guide to women activists from every part of the world illuminating the broad range of women's struggles to reform society from the 18th century to the present Despite being marginalized disenfranchised impoverished and oppressed women have always stepped forward in disproportionate numbers to lead movements for social change This two volume encyclopedia documents the visions struggles and lives of women who have changed the world This encyclopedia celebrates the lives and achievements of nearly 300 women from around the globe women who have bravely insisted that the way things are is not the way they have to be Nadeshda Krupskaya the wife of Lenin spearheaded the drive against illiteracy in post revolutionary Russia American Dorothy Day founded the Catholic worker movement Begum Rokeya Hossain organized a girls school in Calcutta in 1911 Rachel Carson launched the modern environmental movement with her book Silent Spring The stories of these women and the hundreds of others collected here will restore missing pages to our history and inspire a new generation of women to change the world

Self-Harm in New Woman Writing Alexandra Gray,2017-10-04 Self Harm in New Woman Writing offers a trans disciplinary study of Victorian literature culture and medicine through engagement with the recurrent trope of self harm in writing by and about the British New Woman

Primitive Marriage Kathy Alexis Psomiades,2023 What happens when another genre of writing lays claim to the novel's traditional subject of marriage This book shows how anthropology gave late Victorian novelists and social scientists ways of rethinking heterosexual romance by referring to a new kind of history of marriage systems sexual behavior and reproductive practices

The American New Woman Revisited Martha H. Patterson,2008 In North America between 1894 and 1930 the rise of the New Woman sparked controversy on both sides of the Atlantic and around the world As she demanded a public voice as well as private fulfillment through work education and politics American journalists debated and defined her Who was she and where did she come from Was she to be celebrated as the agent of progress or reviled as a traitor to the traditional family Over time the dominant version of the American New Woman became typified as white educated and middle class the suffragist progressive reformer and bloomer wearing bicyclist By the 1920s the jazz dancing flapper epitomized her Yet she also had many other faces Bringing together a diverse range of essays from the periodical press of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Martha H Patterson shows how the New Woman differed according to region class politics race ethnicity and historical circumstance In addition to the New Woman's prevailing incarnations she appears here as a gun wielding heroine imperialist symbol assimilationist icon entrepreneur socialist anarchist thief vamp and eugenicist Together these readings redefine our understanding of the New Woman and her cultural impact
