Kerns, 2011-05-12 No detailed description available for The Nostratic Macrofamily Diachronic Interpretation of the Nostratic Macrofamily Yan Kapranov, Bożena Iwanowska, Bolesław Cieślík, 2024-06-17 This monograph presents a groundbreaking exploration into the Nostratic macrofamily a concept that proposes a common ancestral language for several of the world's foremost language families The study delves deep into the roots of Altaic Afro Asiatic Dravidian Eskimo Aleut Indo European Kartvelian and Uralic languages offering a unique perspective on their interconnections and evolutionary paths The authors examine five pivotal Nostratic etymons from the Swadesh index to illustrate the shared cognitive frameworks of these diverse linguistic groups This research challenges conventional perspectives on language evolution and introduces new methodologies in cognitive macro comparative studies Key to the work is the hypothesis of divergent convergent and convergent divergent evolutionary patterns stemming from a common Nostratic origin Beyond linguistics this study offers insights into human cognitive development language formation and change mechanisms Nostratic Joseph C. Salmons, Brian D. Joseph, 1998-09-15 The Nostratic hypothesis positing a common linguistic ancestor for a wide range of language families including Indo European Uralic and Afro Asiatic has produced one of the most enduring and often intense controversies in linguistics Overwhelmingly though both supporters of the hypothesis and those who reject it have not dealt directly with one another's arguments This volume brings together selected representatives of both sides as well as a number of agnostic historical linguists with the aim of examining the evidence for this particular hypothesis in the context of distant genetic relationships generally The volume contains discussion of variants of the Nostratic hypothesis A Bomhard J Greenberg A Manaster Ramer K Baertsch K Adams D Ringe and the evidence from particular branches posited in Nostratic L Campbell C Hodge A Vovin with responses and additional discussion by E Hamp B Vine W Baxter and B Comrie The Handbook of Language Contact Raymond Hickey, 2013-04-24 The Handbook of Language Contact offers systematic coverage of the major issues in this field ranging from the value of contact explanations in linguistics to the impact of immigration to dialectology combining new research from a team of globally renowned scholars with case studies of numerous languages An authoritative reference work exploring the major issues in the field of language contact the study of how language changes when speakers of distinct speech varieties interact Brings together 40 specially commissioned essays by an international team of scholars Examines language contact in societies which have significant immigration populations and includes a fascinating cross section of case studies drawing on languages across the world Accessibly structured into sections exploring the place of contact studies within linguistics as a whole the value of contact studies for research into language change and language contact in the context of work on language and society Explores a broad range of topics making it an excellent resource for both faculty and students across a variety of fields within linguistics Archaeology and Language I Roger Blench, Matthew Spriggs, 2003-09-02 Archaeology and Language I represents groundbreaking work in synthesizing two disciplines that are now seen as interlinked linguistics and archaeology This volume is the first of a three part survey of innovative results emerging from their combination Archaeology and historical linguistics have largely pursued separate tracks until recently although their goals can be very similar While there is a new awareness that these disciplines can be used to complement one another both rigorous methodological awareness and detailed case studies are still lacking in literature Archaeology and Language I aims to fill this lacuna Exploring a wide range of techniques developed by specialists in each discipline this first volume deals with broad theoretical and methodological issues and provides an indispensable background to the detail of the studies presented in volumes II and III This collection deals with the controversial question of the origin of language the validity of deep level reconstruction the sociolinguistic modelling of prehistory and the use and value of oral tradition
