Personal Recollections Of Rudolph Steiner:

Personal Recollections of Rudolf Steiner Norbert Glas, 1987-12-01 Time of Decision with Rudolf Steiner Friedrich Hiebel, 1989-12 This fascinating recollection of the early days of the Anthroposophical Society offers a unique perspective on Rudolf Steiner's work and his relationship to his students. Of particular interest to our readers will be the chapters on the Christmas Conference of 1923 for the foundation of the Anthroposophical Society. Hiebel attended the meeting and his lively descriptions and warm style let those solemn events rise up again in our souls. He recreates the solemn sacred mood of the laying of the Foundation Stone and provides insights into the structure and meaning of the Foundation Stone verses

Freemasonry and Rudolf Steiner N.V.P Franklin, 2020-10-16 Today some six million Freemasons around the world continue to perform their rituals regularly, an enormous legacy of spiritual endeavour kept largely in secret. In Britain alone there are over 7 000 lodges with a quarter of a million members. What is this wealth, this appeal, and how did the philosopher and spiritual scientist Rudolf Steiner reinterpret or reconstruct Freemasonry's time-worn legacy? Unless one is a Freemason the masonic world with its arcane conventions and language remains largely unknown, an obscurity that is almost impossible to fathom. Yet understanding its traditions and style are invaluable when approaching Goethe, Mozart, Herder, Lessing, and Novalis, as well as Rudolf Steiner. Steiner himself renewed the Royal Art of Freemasonry from 1906 to 1914 through his ritual work known as Mystica terna. When Steiner invigorated education, medicine, the social order, and religion, he fully intended that committed and professional individuals should assume responsibility for the new initiatives. But this was not the case with the Masonic Order he founded, whose leadership he took upon himself. Even the celebration of his passing in 1925, led by Marie Steiner, was entirely Masonic in character. In the context of continuing resistance and misrepresentation, N V P Franklin uncovers the living heart of Freemasonry and reveals why it was and still is immensely relevant to anthroposophy. With profound research into its older rituals and teachings, this detailed and conscientious study is a unique contribution to comprehending freemasonry and anthroposophy both historically and in the present day. Rudolf Steiner's Endowment

Virginia Sease, 2012 The author's reflections emphasize especially three considerations. First, that the Endowment impulse would allow us to experience the art of interpreting in the Rosicrucian way. Second, that the best initiative, even one undertaken by a great individuality, is doomed to failure if the participants are unable to overcome their personal ambitions. And third, that we may live with the fact that despite the passage of time, the latent seeds in Rudolf Steiner's attempt still have the possibility to reach fruition in the future. A Man Before Others Rudolf Steiner Press, 1993 This illuminating collection of essays and reminiscences by Rudolf Steiner's pupils and early collaborators contains a wealth of personal details on Steiner and his work. What emerges is his great unity of purpose and breadth of thought and his ability to attend to the smallest practical details while laying the seeds for spiritual impulses that would flourish far into the future. These essays reveal him as a man of vision, practical ability, humor, and selflessness.

A Life with Colour Caroline Chanter,2021-10-28 A Life with Colour is the first complete survey of Gerard Wagner s biography and his artistic intentions featuring dozens of illustrations and more than 120 colour plates The life and work of Gerard Wagner 1906 1999 were closely aligned to the artistic spiritual stream connected with the Goetheanum in Dornach Switzerland He first heard of the Goetheanum and of its destruction by fire at New Year 1922 23 whilst still a youth In 1926 he made his first visit to Dornach but his intended stay of a week turned into a lifelong sojourn of over 73 years He found there an active striving community with which he felt intimately connected From the start Gerard Wagner immersed himself in the various artistic impulses that Rudolf Steiner had instigated This together with an intensive study of anthroposophy formed the basis upon which he forged his own approach to painting The many years he spent in colour experimentation led him to discover objective principles within the language of colour and form that are an inspiration to many today His paintings first shown at the Goetheanum in the early 1940s were exhibited internationally most notably at the Menshikov Palace Hermitage Museum St Petersburg Russia in 1997 Wagner s whole being bowed before the mystery of colour in a loving joyful yet serious way full of devotion and dignity His life and work itself became a living metaphor of the creative power of colour Christian Hitsch Caroline Chanter has not only accomplished a great and seminal study that illuminates the life and work of Gerard Wagner but has done a great service also to the Goetheanum and its School of Spiritual Science Peter Selg Gerard Wagner was a soul which on earth was devoted so selflessly and in such purity to the beings that are revealed in forms and colours He helped them to utterance and manifestation in this world of ours Sergei O Prokofieff
