 At least since the dawn of the Romantic era it has been assumed that the poet lives a lonely life isolated in his garret Nevertheless writers are not always hermits and misanthropes As human beings they crave the company of other human beings as artists they need the stimulation of other artists This book brings to light Warren's most important literary associations during his long and active life Salmon River Kid Joseph Dorris, 2017-05-03 It is 1872 in Idaho Territory and fifteen year old Samuel Chambers and his father struggle to survive a brutal winter along the Salmon River While awaiting spring to cross the snowfields into Warren's camp and return to their gold strike Samuel ranches at Slate Creek and falls in love There is one problem Samuel cannot marry unless he and his father return to Warren's and prove up their claim When father and son finally reach Warren's they discover their claim has been jumped With all hopes of earning a fortune seemingly dashed Samuel wrestles with his desire for revenge and his drive to find gold He reunites with his Chinese friend Chen and peddles merchandise in order to survive He is also conflicted by a dancehall lady's renewed interest and his love for the ranch hand girl With their last hope father and son turn to hardrock mining to get the gold they need But it is when Samuel attempts to pack gold out of the camp under the watchful eyes of road agents that Samuel unwittingly puts everyone's lives in jeopardy Now only time will tell if everything is lost In this continuing saga based on the history of an Idaho gold camp a young man embarks on a dangerous coming of age journey that reveals an unforgettable glimpse into life in 1870s Salmon River country A Text-book on Roofs and Bridges Mansfield Merriman, 1914 A Text-book on Roofs and Bridges: Higher structures. 2d ed Mansfield Merriman, Henry Sylvester Jacoby, 1907 In Our Nature Donna Seaman, 2002 Fourteen unforgettable short stories provoke, illuminate and startle as they explore our perception of nature and the conflict between wildness and civilization within each of us As we are recognizing the consequences of the destruction of forests and wetlands the pillaging of the seas and the toxicity of industry we are experiencing profound uncertainty about our relationship with the earth These stellar short stories by writers such as Barry Lopez Rick Bass Margaret Atwood E L Doctorow Chris Offutt and others plumb the mystery as only fiction can of nature within us and the world of nature that surrounds us We are nature in spite of our machines our plastics and our artificial ingredients Yet what do we make of our own nature Our own wildness
 And how do we explain the paradox of our urge to both exploit and protect wilderness From E L Doctorow's shattering tale Willi in which a young boy witnesses adults transformed into animals by the frenzy of sexual lust to Rick Bass's Swamp Boy whose young hero is hounded by a pack of boys incensed by his solitary communion with the wild to Margaret Atwood's wickedly funny story My Life as a Bat or Kent Meyers s soulful ballad of love regained The Heart of the Sky these memorable stories articulate our deep need for wilderness and the indelible role nature plays in our psychological and spiritual well being

West of 98 Lynn Stegner,Russell Rowland,2012-07-25 What does it mean to be a westerner With all the mythology that has grown up about the American West is it even possible to describe how it was how it is here in the West just that in the words of Lynn Stegner Starting with that challenge Stegner and Russell Rowland invited several dozen members of the western literary tribe to write about living in the West and being a western writer in particular West of 98 gathers sixty six literary testimonies in essays and poetry from a stellar collection of writers who represent every state west of the 98th parallel a kind of Greek chorus of the most prominent voices in western literature today who seek to characterize the West as each of us grew to know it and equally important the West that is still becoming In West of 98 western writers speak to the ways in which the West imprints itself on the people who live there as well as how the people of the West create the personality of the region The writers explore the western landscape how it has been revered and abused across centuries and the inescapable limitations its aridity puts on all dreams of conquest and development They dismantle the boosterism of manifest destiny and the cowboy and mountain man ethos of every man for himself and show instead how we must create new narratives of cooperation if we are to survive in this spare and beautiful country The writers seek to define the essence of both actual and metaphoric wilderness as they journey toward a West that might honestly be called home A collective declaration not of our independence but of our interdependence with the land and with each other West of 98 opens up a whole new panorama of the western experience
