Robert Alexander Fyfe His Contemporaries And His Influence:

Robert Alexander Fyfe Theo T. Gibson,1988 Aspects of the Canadian Evangelical Experience George A. Rawlyk,1997-02-17 An impressive list of specialists in the field examine the evangelical impulse in various denominations from the mainstream Methodists Presbyterians Anglicans and United through Baptists Mennonites and Lutherans to the more sectish groups including Holiness Christian Mission Alliance and the Pentecostals Also included are comparisons between Canadian and American British and Australian evangelicalism and essays on evangelical networks leaders and revivals women and evangelicalism in the 1990s Growing out of a conference sponsored by the Pew Charitable Trusts in 1995 at Queen s University the essays elaborate a variety of important themes in the study of historical and contemporary evangelicalism and weave them together to provide an informative and challenging exploration of aspects of the evangelical experience in Canada Contributors include Phyllis D Airhart Alvyn J Austin David W Bebbington Edith L Blumhofer Robert K Burkinshaw Sharon Anne Cook Nancy Christie P Lorraine Coops Duff Crerar Michael Gauvreau Daniel C Goodwin Andrew S Grenville Bruce L Guenther Bryan V Hillis D Bruce Hindmarsh Mark Hutchinson William H Katerberg Kevin Kee Ronald A N Kydd Barry Mack Mark A Noll David Plaxton Darrel R Reid John G Stackhouse Jr Marguerite Van Die Richard W Vaudry and Marilyn F rding Whiteley Baptists and Public Life in Canada Gordon L. Heath,Paul R. Wilson,2012-02-02 Public discussion about the relationship between religion and public life in Canada can be heated at times and scholars have recently focused on the historical study of the many expressions of this relationship The experience of Canada s smaller Protestant Christian groups however has remained largely unexplored This is particularly true of Canada s Baptists This volume the first produced by the Canadian Baptist Historical Society explores the connections between Baptist faith and Baptist activity in the public domain and expands the focus of the existing scholarship to include a wide range of Canadian Baptist beliefs attitudes perspectives and actions related to the relationship between Baptist faith and practice and public life Canadian Baptist Fundamentalism, 1878-1978 Taylor Murray,Paul R. Wilson,2022-04-01 As the first single volume work to present a national picture of Baptist engagement with the fundamentalist movement in Canada in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Canadian Baptist Fundamentalism fills an important gap in the historiography It explores the contributions of well known fundamentalists such as T T Shields William Bible Bill Aberhart and J J Sidey while also introducing the reader to several lesser known figures including Joshua Denovan E J Stobo and T A Meister Together these studies demonstrate the diversity of the fundamentalist movement as it emerged and developed across Canada By drawing on material from across the country Canadian Baptist Fundamentalism addresses old themes in new ways and in the process raises a variety of questions and possibilities for new avenues of study The Secularization of Baptism Mark G. McKim,2025-01-31 Does God actually do anything in baptism Is it more than just a symbol Most early Baptists would have answered yes Most Baptists today would answer no How and why did this change happen and does it matter Providing thorough documentation of the changing understandings of baptism among American Canadian and English Baptists from the 1600s to the present day The Secularization of Baptism demonstrates that four factors led to the symbolic only position becoming dominant These were suspicion in reaction to Roman Catholicism of the idea of God revealing himself through the physical the influence of the Enlightenment and embarrassment with claims that God could be acting in the world today reaction against the Oxford Movement and reaction against the understanding of baptism advocated by the Disciples of Christ Campbellites The now dominant symbolic only position so focuses attention on what the believer is doing in baptism that God is seen as largely absent from and doing nothing through the rite in effect believers baptism has been secularized A carefully reasoned biblical and theological argument is made for a return to the Regular Particular Baptist view that God is both profoundly spiritually present and active in baptism while at the same time rejecting the sacramentalist position advocated by a small number of mid twentieth and twenty first century Baptists such as H Wheeler Robinson George Beasley Murray Stanley K Fowler and Anthony R Cross

The Black Baptist Experience in Canada Gordon L. Heath, Dudley A. Brown, 2025-04-08 This groundbreaking book is a history of the Black Baptist experience in Canada It includes diverse and informative chapters on events themes and organizations such as the underground railway gender architecture literature civil rights empire and associations It also focuses on several key early churches from the West Coast to the East Coast along with important personages such as Washington Christian Jennie Johnson David George William White William Troy and William M Mitchell

The Life of Isabel Crawford Marilyn Fardig Whiteley, 2015-06-16 This biography of Isabel Crawford is a lively account of a feisty and fascinating Baptist missionary Born in Canada in 1865 she had an independent spirit leading her to remarkable accomplishments in a life marked by obstacles Her conversion at age ten created a lifelong commitment to Christian service In her teens a near fatal illness left her deaf but nevertheless in 1893 she completed studies to become a missionary Rejected for overseas service she was assigned to a troubled Indian mission in Oklahoma She began her work there with great reluctance but developed a lifelong bond with her beloved Kiowa converts Her success as a woman missionary created friction with the American Baptist Home Mission Society and she left the mission in 1906 Remaining committed to the Women s Home Mission Society Crawford became a sought after inspirational speaker for them and later served again as missionary this time in western New York She retired in 1930 and moved back to Canada in 1942 Crawford is buried as she had arranged at her Saddle Mountain Oklahoma mission The biography is enriched by extensive use of Crawford s witty and perceptive descriptions of the extraordinary challenges and variety of experiences that marked her life

Baptists and Business Paul R. Wilson, 2025-05-08 This study of Baptist businessmen from Jarvis Street Baptist Church in Toronto breaks new ground The challenges to faith exerted by the arrival of a new materialistic social ethic and a business dominated culture in the last half of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries has received little attention from Canadian historians Instead historians have primarily focused on religious leaders and intellectual challenges to faith This study examines the sociocultural challenges that confronted one group of central Canadian Baptist businessmen from 1848 to 1921. Essentially the findings offered here are used to sustain the argument that the rise of business and consumerism helped to secularize the beliefs, values and practices of Baptist businessmen. Furthermore the effects of secularization were profound on both the personal and church community levels. Baptists in Canada Gordon L. Heath, Dallas Friesen, Taylor Murray, 2020. Baptists arrived in what would become Canada in the mid eighteenth century and from those early arrivals Baptists from a wide variety of backgrounds planted churches in every region of the vast nation. This book traces that history of Baptists in Canada and provides historical antecedents and theological rationales for their church polity. Written in a generous spirit it recognizes what Baptists share with other Christian communities and how they differ among themselves on some matters. It places Baptists in Canada in the larger historical and global context and concludes with commentary on opportunities and challenges ahead. Publisher: French-Speaking Protestants in Canada Jason Zuidema, 2011-09-23. Although French speaking Canadians have largely been Roman Catholic there has been a small but significant Protestant minority among them. This collection of essays brings together the work of leading scholars in the field to bring historical perspective on this often misunderstood or forgotten religious minority. Canadian Baptist Women Sharon M. Bowler, 2016-09-14. The stories of the women have often stayed in the shadows of Canadian Baptist history. The writers of this book have sought out neglected primary source materials to reveal the lives and work of an array of Baptist women in Canada's history. Read here about the Acadian Mary Lore hungrily reading her French Bible and welcoming the message of Baptist missionaries in Lower Canada. Jane Gilmour leaving her home in Britain to minister with her husband in Montreal and the wilds of Upper Canada. A group of remarkable black Baptist women in southern Ontario in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Isabel Crawford from Niagara becoming an advocate for the Kiowa people of Oklahoma. Miriam Ross from Nova Scotia ministering in the Congo. Lois Tupper pioneer female Baptist theological educator and more generally the work of Baptist women in the Maritimes in the nineteenth century and western Canada in the first half of the twentieth century. Empowered by their Baptist faith these Canadian women did remarkable things and their stories deserve to be told and read. Christian Voluntarism William H. Brackney, 1997. Christian Voluntarism: Theology and Praxis seeks to better understand the place and nature of voluntarism throughout the history of the church. A Concise History of Christianity in Canada Terrence Murphy, Terrence M. Murphy, Roberto Perin, 1996. Organized along linguistic rather than denominational lines it emphasizes the common experiences of the churches and the profound impact that Christianity has had on both French and English Canadian society and culture. Alongside the institutional development for the churches and the work of the clergy it examines the religious outlook and practices of the laity and how these have varied with gender, ethnic affiliation and class relations between denominations, missionary efforts especially among the First Nations and the responses to them and the complex interactions between church and state. The Gospel in the World David Bebbington, 2002. Some of the leading Baptist historians from around the globe offer perspectives on four centuries of Baptist history and thought This volume of essays from the First International Conference on Baptist Studies deals with a range of subjects spanning Britain North America Europe Asia and the Antipodes Held at Regent s Park College Oxford in August 1997 topics include studies on religious tolerance the communion controversy and the development of the international Baptist community and concludes with two important essays on the future of Baptist life that pay special attention to the United States Contributors include N T Ammerman W H Brackney J Coffey T Cupit M Dowling T George M A G Haykin T Larsen B J Leonard D E Meek R V Pierard I M Randall P Spanu B Stanley and A Walls

Christian Voluntarism in Britain and North America William H. Brackney,1995-04-25 A unique blending of historical analysis and bibliographic data this volume examines the course of the voluntary association for religious purposes and analyzes the prominent primary and secondary literature in the field of voluntarism In addition hundreds of voluntary associations prior to 1900 in Britain the United States Canada and elsewhere are listed A reference tool for students and scholars in Western Christian thought and history over 900 resources are classified by general denominational racial and gender categories and are annotated The first part of the volume examines the roots of voluntary thought in the Christian tradition and provides an overview of the evolution of voluntary Christian endeavor in Britain and North America Of particular significance is the connection between churchly voluntary associations and the evangelical experience of the 19th century Individual voluntary relationships and groups are an integral part of human socialization This is the first bibliography and overview of individuals joining together under the banner of Christianity in order to satisfy this deep human need
