

EXCERPTS FROM AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY

Introducing the Author

Agatha Christie (1890-1976) was an English writer known for her 66 detective novels and 14 short story collections , particularly those revolving around fictional detectives Hercule Poirot and Miss Marple . She also wrote the world's longest - running play , The Mousetrap , as well as six novels under the pseudonym Mary Westmacott . In 1971 , she was made a Dame of the British Empire (DBE) for her contributions to literature . Guinness World Records lists Christie as the best - selling fiction writer of all time , her novels having sold more than two billion copies . Many of her books have been made into films . Hercule Poirot is a fictional detective Christie created . He is a Belgian detective and he was part of many of her novels . Christie is called the Queen of Mystery . Another important character created by Christie is Miss Jane Marple .

Introducing the Text

In this excerpt Agatha Christie describes her life as a nurse in the First World War and her initial interest in writing detective fiction . " An Autobiography " is Christie's life story narrated by her . It traces her experiences from childhood to her journeys to Iraq and Turkey with her detective archaeologist husband . The book is interesting because it tells her views about art and life and the problems she faced at different periods of her life . It also shows her love for mystery and adventure . She took 15 years to write this autobiography , from 1950 to 1965 . It was published almost two years after her death . Christie details her experiences which led to her first novel " The character Mysterious Affair at Styles " . This excerpt is from Chapter III of her memoir .

she tells her readers how she planned her first novel and how she finalised the characters for it.

How does the job at the dispensary provide the author a favourable opportunity to think about her novel?

Nursing keeps one always busy , but dispensing has slack and busy periods . Sometimes the author would be on duty alone in the afternoon with hardly anything to do . Thus she had a favourable opportunity to think about her novel .

2. What are the author's thoughts on the method of her writing ?

She started thinking what kind of detective story she could write . Since she was surrounded by poison , it was natural that she should write about death by poisoning . There were different possibilities to kill with poison . She thought about it and finally she accepted it.

3.what is she thinking of ?
