Scott On Zélide Portrait Of Zélide:

Scott on Zélide Geoffrey Scott, 2004 Lives that Never Grow Old is a wonderful series edited by Richard Holmes that recovers the great classical tradition of English biography Every book is a biographical masterpiece still thrilling to read and vividly alive Zélide lived in her father's moated castle in Holland like a fairytale princess in a tower She was the clever sexy mercurial young Dutch blue stocking with whom Boswell fell disastrously in love in 1764 The rest of Zélide's story was unknown until the brilliant young Boswell scholar Geoffrey Scott pieced it together from her intimate letters and essays Subsequent affairs with a cynical cavalry officer a celebrated but vacillating writer aptly named Benjamin Constant and a thoroughly reliable music master took her eventually to another fairytale mansion in Switzerland This tender funny faintly salacious portrait of a belle esprit is one of the most exquisite biographical miniatures ever written Scott on Zélide:
