Price of Exit Tom Marshall,2011-08-10 The risk of a fatal catastrophe was constant The NVA was the enemy but the ultimate opponent was quite simply death For assault helicopter crews flying in and around the NVA infested DMZ the U S pullout from Vietnam in 1970 71 was a desperate time of selfless courage Now former army warrant officer Tom Marshall of the Phoenix C Company 158th Aviation Battalion 101st Airborne captures the deadly mountain terrain the long hours flown under enormous stress the grim determination of hardened pilots combat assaulting through walls of antiaircraft fire the pickups amid exploding mortar shells and hails of AK fire the nerve racking string extractions of SOG teams from North Vietnam And through it all the rising tension as helicopter pilots and crews are lost at an accelerating pace

It is no coincidence that the Phoenix was one of the most highly decorated assault helicopter units in I Corps For as the American departure accelerated and the enemy added new more powerful antiaircraft weapons the helicopter pilots crew chiefs and gunners paid the heavy price of withdrawal in blood For more than 30 Percent of Tom Marshall s 130 helicopter school classmates the price of exit was their lives

Durang/Durang Christopher Durang,1996 eloquently dramatizes questions of responsibility guilt and pathology the complex moral issues are translated into challenging story theater like a cubist portrait of grief Homage must be paid this grieving mother cries to the stars and Medoff answe The mysteries of life death and survival in the city of friendships among women and relationships between the sexes are explored in Jacquelyn Reingold s GIRL GONE the playwright display s admirable talent and generate s plenty of interest tension an

The Ideological Scramble for Africa Frank Gerits,2023-03-15 In The Ideological Scramble for Africa Frank Gerits examines how African leaders in the 1950s and 1960s crafted an anticolonial modernization project Rather than choose Cold War sides between East and West anticolonial nationalists worked to reverse the psychological and cultural destruction of colonialism Kwame Nkrumah s African Union was envisioned as a federation of liberation to challenge the extant imperial forces the US empire of liberty the Soviet empire of equality and the European empires of exploitation In the 1950s the goal of proving the potency of a pan African ideology shaped the agenda of the Bandung Conference and Ghana s support for African liberation while also determining what was at stake in the Congo crisis and in the fight against white minority rule in southern and eastern Africa In the 1960s the attempt to remake African psychology was abandoned and socioeconomic development came into focus Anticolonial nationalists did not simply resist or utilize imperial and Cold War pressures but drew strength from the example of the Haitian Revolution of 1791 in which Toussaint Louverture demanded the universal application of Europe s Enlightenment values The liberationists of the postwar period wanted to redesign society in the image of the revolution that had created them The Ideological Scramble for Africa demonstrates that the Cold War struggle between capitalism and Communism was only one of two ideological struggles that picked up speed after 1945 the battle between liberation and imperialism proved to be more enduring

The Scramble for China Robert Bickers,2016-02-25 In the early nineteenth century China remained almost untouched by British and European powers but as new technology started to change this balance foreigners gathered like wolves around the weakening Qing Empire Would the Chinese suffer the fate of much of the rest of the world carved into pieces by Europeans Or could they adapt rapidly enough to maintain their independence This important and compelling book explains the roots of China s complex relationship with the West by illuminating a dramatic colourful and sometimes shocking period of the country s history
