Publisher Description My Gaze Is Turned Inward Gertrud Kolmar, 2004-08-26 So a picture of Gertrud Kolmar a gifted Jewish writer struggling to sustain her art and family emerges from these eloquent and allusive letters Written in the stolen moments before her day as a forced laborer in a munitions factory began the letters tell of Kolmar's move from the family home in Finkenkrug to a three room flat in Berlin which she and her father must soon share with other displaced Jews They describe her factory work as a learning experience and assert in the face of ever worsening conditions that true art never dependent on comfort or peace is capable of triumphing over time and place Witnessing the Holocaust Judith M. Hughes, 2018-07-12 Witnessing the Holocaust presents the autobiographical writings including diaries and autobiographical fiction of six Holocaust survivors who lived through and chronicled the Nazi genocide Drawing extensively on the works of Victor Klemperer Ruth Kluger Michal Glowinski Primo Levi Imre Kert sz and B la Zsolt this books conveys with vivid detail the persecution of the Jews from the beginning of the Third Reich until its very end It gives us a sense both of what the Holocaust meant to the wider community swept up in the horrors and what it was like for the individual to weather one of the most shocking events in history Survivors and witnesses disappear and history not memory becomes the instrument for recalling the past Judith M Hughes secures a place for narratives by those who experienced the Holocaust in person This compelling text is a vital read for all students of the Holocaust and Holocaust memory A Journey Back Arnon Tamir, 1997 At the age of twenty one Arnon Tamir was deported to Poland from his home in Germany A Journey Back describes Tamir's life in Germany his deportation and two return trips to Germany in 1959 to clarify his claim for reparations from the German government and thirty years later at the invitation of the city of Stuttgart As Tamir interweaves memories from different times and places he draws startling comparisons between his own experiences of oppression and exile and his life as one of the new settlers in Palestine themselves responsible for forcing the Arabs from their native land Tamir's fluid narrative shows that there is no easy way to tell such a story that the journey back is neither well defined nor easy
