Jean-Philippe Marcoux,2012-06-27 This book studies how four representative African American poets of the 1960s Langston Hughes Umbra's David Henderson and the Black Arts Movement's Sonia Sanchez and Amiri Baraka engage in the tradition of griots in poetic dialogues with aesthetics music politics and Black History In so doing they narrate using jazz as meta language genealogies etymologies cultural legacies and Black histories In intersecting and complementary ways Hughes Henderson Sanchez and Baraka fashioned their griotism from theorizations of artistry as political engagement and in turn formulated a Black aesthetic based on jazz performativity on a series of jazz infused iterations that form a complex pattern of literary musical historical and political moments in constant cross fertilizing dialogues with one another This form of poetic call and response becomes a definitional literary template for these poets as it allows both the possibility of intergenerational dialogues between poets and musicians and dialogic potential between song and politics between Africa and Black America between vernacular continuums in their poems Curzon in Love Daniel Curzon,1988 Curzon searches for love in
