Screenplays Of The African American Experience:

Screenplays of the African American Experience Phyllis Rauch Klotman, 1991-06-22 Book on African American filmmaking includes six screenplays by Afro American screenwriters The A to Z of African American Theater Anthony D. Hill, Douglas Q. Barnett, 2009-09-02 African American Theater is a vibrant and unique entity enriched by ancient Egyptian rituals West African folklore and European theatrical practices A continuum of African folk traditions it combines storytelling mythology rituals music song and dance with ancestor worship from ancient times to the present It afforded black artists a cultural gold mine to celebrate what it was like to be an African American in The New World The A to Z of African American Theater celebrates nearly 200 years of black theater in the United States identifying representative African American theater producing organizations and chronicling their contributions to the field from its birth in 1816 to the present This is done through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and over 500 cross referenced dictionary entries on actors directors playwrights plays theater producing organizations themes locations and theater movements and awards The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Richard Wright's Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas Coffin Ed Johnson Kunta Kinte Sula Peace as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima Brer Rabbit John Henry Stackolee and the trickster Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali John Coltrane Marcus Garvey Jackie Robinson John Brown and Harriet Tubman Here too are general articles on poetry fiction and drama on autobiography slave narratives Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics Compact yet thorough this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women's clubs making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing exciting world of African American literature African American Dramatists Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2004-10-30 Despite their significant contributions to the American theater African American dramatists have received less critical attention than novelists and poets This reference offers thorough critical assessments of the lives and works of African American playwrights from the 19th century to the present The book alphabetically arranges entries on more than 60 dramatists including James Baldwin Arna Bontemps Ossie Davis Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a summary of the playwright's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The volume closes with a selected general bibliography African American dramatists have made enormous contributions to the theater and their works are included in numerous editions and anthologies Some of the most popular plays of the 20th century have been written by African Americans and high school students and undergraduates study their works But for all their popularity and influence African American playwrights have received less critical attention than poets and novelists This reference offers thorough critical assessments of more than 60 African American dramatists from the 19th century to the present Historical Dictionary of African American Theater Anthony D. Hill, Douglas Q. Barnett, 2008-12-04 African American Theater is a vibrant and unique entity enriched by ancient Egyptian rituals West African folklore and European theatrical practices A continuum of African folk traditions it combines storytelling mythology rituals music song and dance with ancestor worship from ancient times to the present It afforded black artists a cultural gold mine to celebrate what it was like to be an African American in The New World The Historical Dictionary of African American Theater celebrates nearly 200 years of black theater in the United States identifying representative African American theater producing organizations and chronicling their contributions to the field from its birth in 1816 to the present This is done through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and over 500 cross referenced dictionary entries on actors directors playwrights plays theater producing organizations themes locations and theater movements and awards Reel Black Talk Linda Allen, Spencer Moon, 1997-09-23 As evidenced in interviews included in this volume many African American filmmakers consider themselves artists first their ethnicity being only part of what influences their work This is the first book by an African American on contemporary African American filmmakers Here directors and producers speak for themselves posing challenges to current thinking in the field Special emphasis is given to the filmmakers productions and their experiences Essays on historic figures reveal the rich history of the African American contribution to cinema From Oscar Micheaux and Spencer Williams to Neema Barnett and the team of George Jackson and Doug McHenry this revealing reference work will enlighten scholars students and film buffs As early as 1899 African Americans were involved in the filmmaking industry Oscar Micheaux took directing writing and producing to a higher level with the release of his first film in 1918 by 1948 he had made more than forty films Currently by international world cinema standards the African American tradition rivals cinema from anywhere in the world but these filmmakers face a quandary whether to make films through the Hollywood system or follow an independent vision This book presents a cross section of filmmakers from each camp and also focuses on those who work in both arenas American Fatherhood Jürgen Martschukat, 2019-12-31 Explores the surprising diversity of fathers and fatherhood throughout American history and society The nuclear family has been endlessly praised as the bedrock of American society even though there has rarely been a time in history when a majority of Americans lived in such families This book deconstructs the myth of the nuclear family by presenting the rich diversity of family lives in American history from the American Revolution to the twenty first century To tell this story Jürgen Martschukat focuses on fathers and their relations to families and American society Using biographical close ups of twelve different characters each embedded in historical context American Fatherhood provides a much more realistic picture of how fatherhood has been performed within different kinds of families Each protagonist covers a crucial period or event in American history presents a different family constellation and makes a different argument with regard to how American society is governed through the family

Black Women Film and Video Artists Jacqueline Bobo,2013-09-13 Black women film and video makers have been producing shorts documentaries and films since the early part of this century Unfortunately not only has their work been overlooked by distributors but critical reviews have been few and far between Conceived to redress that omission Black Women Film and Video Artists is the first comprehensive history and analysis of this genre Gathered here are noted scholars and critics as well as the film video makers themselves who offer insight into the work of underexplored artists The discussions range from pioneering to contemporary film makers and include artists such as Madeline Anderson Monica Freeman Jacqueline Shearer Kathleen Collins Julie Dash Camille Billops Zeinabu irene Davis and Michelle Parkerson among others Contributors include Jacqueline Bobo Carmen Coustaut Gloria J Gibson C A Griffith Monique Guillory Carol Munday Lawrence O Funmilayo Makarah Ntongela Maselila Jacqueline Shearer P Jane Splawn

Feminist Auteurs Geetha Ramanathan,2006 Feminist Auteurs examines a rich and diverse body of work that has received insufficient attention both in film studies and in feminist theory on film Looking at individual films within the context of feminist film as a genre Ramanathan examines film from diverse cultural traditions while paying close attention to what might be regarded as feminist in different cultural contexts The films chosen expand our ideas of feminism covering as they do film from Africa Latin America Europe Asia and the US Full length interpretations of twenty four films both older and contemporary including Vagabond India Song Bhaji on the Beach Chocolat and Daughters of the Dust lay out a complete and powerful framework for reading women s film

Cuba's Racial Crucible Karen Y. Morrison,2015-05-26 This prize winning study examines the historical interplay of racial identity nationality and family formation in Cuba from the 18th century to today Since the 19th century there have been two opposing perspectives on Cuban racial identity one that frames Cubans as white and one that sees them as racially mixed based on acceptance of African descent For the past two centuries these competing views of have remained in continuous tension while Cuban women and men make their own racially oriented decisions about choosing partners and family formation Cuba s Racial Crucible explores the historical dynamics of Cuban race relations by highlighting the role race has played in reproductive practices and genealogical memories associated with family formation Karen Y Morrison reads archival oral history and literary sources to demonstrate the ideological centrality and inseparability of race nation and family in definitions of Cuban identity Morrison also analyzes the conditions that supported the social advance and decline of notions of white racial superiority nationalist projections of racial hybridity and pride in African descent Winner NECLAS Marissa Navarro Best Book Prize

Freedom from Liberation Gerard Aching,2015-08-07 Delves into the life and work of Juan Francisco Manzano the enslaved Cuban poet and author of Spanish

America's only known slave narrative Valuable Choice By exploring the complexities of enslavement in the autobiography of Cuban slave poet Juan Francisco Manzano 1797-1854 Gerard Aching complicates the universally recognized assumption that a slave's foremost desire is to be freed from bondage As the only slave narrative in Spanish that has surfaced to date Manzano's autobiography details the daily grind of the vast majority of slaves who sought relief from the burden of living under slavery Aching combines historical narrative and literary criticism to take the reader beyond Manzano's text to examine the motivations behind anticolonial and antislavery activism in pre-revolution Cuba when Cuba's Creole bourgeoisie sought their own form of freedom from the colonial arm of Spain Screen Writings Scott MacDonald, 2023-11-15 Ask audience to cut the part of the image on the screen that they don't like Supply scissors Yoko Ono Tokyo June 1964 A dazzling range of unconventional film scripts and texts many published for the first time make up Scott MacDonald's newest collection Illustrated with nearly 100 film stills this fascinating book is at once a reference work of film history and an unparalleled sampling of experimental language art It contributes to the very dissipation of boundaries between cinematic literary and artistic expression thematized in the films themselves Each text and script is introduced and contextualized by MacDonald a filmography and a bibliography round out the volume This is a readable often quite funny literature that investigates differences between seeing and reading Represented are avant-garde classics such as Hollis Frampton's Poetic Justice and Zorns Lemma and Morgan Fisher's Standard Gauge and William Greaves's recently rediscovered Symbiopsychotaxiplasm Take One Michael Snow turns film loose on language in So Is This Peter Rose turns language loose on theory in Pressures of the Text Some of the most influential feminist filmscripts of recent decades Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen's Riddles of the Sphinx Su Friedrich's Gently Down the Stream Trinh T. Minh-ha's Reassemblage Yvonne Rainer's Privilege confirm this book's importance for readers in gender and cultural studies as well as for filmmakers and admirers of experimental writing independent cinema and the visual arts in general Ask audience to cut the part of the image on the screen that they don't like Supply scissors Yoko Ono Tokyo June 1964 A dazzling range of unconventional film scripts and texts many published for the first time make up Scott MacDonald's Charles Burnett James Naremore, 2017-10-10 In the first book devoted to Charles Burnett a crucial figure in the history of American cinema often regarded as the most influential member of the L.A. Rebellion group of African American filmmakers James Naremore provides a close critical study of all Burnett's major pictures for movies and television including Killer of Sheep To Sleep with Anger The Glass Shield Nightjohn The Wedding Nat Turner A Troublesome Property and Warming by the Devil's Fire Having accessed new information and rarely seen material Naremore shows that Burnett's career has developed against the odds and that his artistry social criticism humor and commitment to what he calls symbolic knowledge have given his work enduring value for American culture Black Lenses, Black Voices Mark A. Reid, 2005-03-25 Black Lenses Black Voices is a provocative look at films directed and written and sometimes produced by African Americans as well as black-oriented films whose directors or screenwriters are not black Mark Reid shows how certain films dramatize the contemporary African American community as a politically and economically diverse group vastly different from film representations of the 1960s Taking us through the development of African American independent filmmaking before and after World War II he then illustrates the unique nature of African American family action horror female centered and independent films such as Eve's Bayou Jungle Fever Shaft Souls of Sin Bones Waiting to Exhale Monster's Ball Sankofa and many more Encyclopedia of the Black Arts Movement Verner D. Mitchell, Cynthia Davis, 2019-05-15 The Black Arts Movement BAM encompassed a group of artists musicians novelists and playwrights whose work combined innovative approaches to literature film music visual arts and theatre With a heightened consciousness of black agency and autonomy along with the radical politics of the civil rights movement the Black Muslims and the Black Panthers these figures represented a collective effort to defy the status quo of American life and culture Between the late 1950s and the end of the 1970s the movement produced some of America's most original and controversial artists and intellectuals In Encyclopedia of the Black Arts Movement Verner D. Mitchell and Cynthia Davis have collected essays on the key figures of the movement including Maya Angelou James Baldwin Amiri Baraka Nikki Giovanni Larry Neal Sun Ra Sonia Sanchez Ntozake Shange and Archie Shepp Additional entries focus on Black Theatre magazine the Negro Ensemble Company lesser known individuals including Kathleen Collins Tom Dent Bill Gunn June Jordan and Barbara Ann Teer and groups such as AfriCOBRA and the New York Umbra Poetry Workshop The Black Arts Movement represented the most prolific expression of African American literature since the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s Featuring essays by contemporary scholars and rare photographs of BAM artists Encyclopedia of the Black Arts Movement is an essential reference for students and scholars of twentieth century American literature and African American cultural studies Fifty Contemporary Filmmakers Yvonne Tasker, 2002 From Luc Besson to Quentin Tarantino Fifty Contemporary Film makers offers an up to date guide to the individuals who are shaping modern cinema Frame by Frame II Phyllis Rauch Klotman, Gloria J. Gibson, 1997 A filmography of Blacks in the film industry The Black Studies Reader Jacqueline Bobo, Cynthia Hudley, Claudine Michel, 2004-05-15 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company L.A. Rebellion Allyson Field, Jan-Christopher Horak, Jacqueline Najuma Stewart, 2015-11-13 L.A. Rebellion Creating a New Black Cinema is the first book dedicated to the films and filmmakers of the L.A. Rebellion a group of African and African American independent film and video artists that formed at the University of California Los Angeles in the 1970s and 1980s The group including Charles Burnett Julie Dash Haile Gerima Billy Woodberry Jamaa Fanaka and Zeinabu irene Davis shared a desire to create alternatives to the dominant modes of narrative style and practice in American cinema works that reflected the full complexity of Black experiences This landmark collection of essays and oral histories examines the creative output of the L.A. Rebellion contextualizing the group's film practices and offering sustained analyses of the wide range of works with particular attention to newly discovered films and lesser known filmmakers Based on extensive archival work and preservation this collection includes a complete filmography of the movement over 100 illustrations most of which are previously unpublished and a bibliography of primary and secondary materials This is an indispensable sourcebook for scholars and enthusiasts establishing the key role played by the L A Rebellion within the histories of cinema Black visual culture and postwar art in Los Angeles Provided by publisher Shared Differences Diane Carson, Lester D. Friedman, 1995 This timely volume addresses those who teach and study multicultural topics Rather than offering a Band Aid approach to curricular offerings the contributors demonstrate inclusive innovative ways to integrate multicultural issues and media into existing courses In Struggling for America's Soul A Search for Some Common Ground in the Multicultural Debate Lester Friedman leads off the volume with an analysis of the value and necessity of multicultural approaches for today's students and for society at large The essays that follow provide a wealth of material for organizing courses including week by week syllabi detailing specific writing assignments bibliographical information on readings and sources for films and videos The contributors who teach at institutions ranging from community colleges through major research universities describe their experiences teaching students of various ages backgrounds and interests Shared Differences will be of value to all who use media as a tool in their teaching whether in history literature or the social sciences as well as to those who teach film and video production
