taken as the only flowering of Latin American fiction for such novels dubbed new novels were being written in the 1940s and 1950s as well as in the 1970s and 1980s In this edited collection first published in 1990 Philip Swanson charts the development of Latin American fiction throughout the twentieth century He assesses the impact of the new novel on Latin American literature and follows its growth Nine key texts are analysed by contributors including works by the big four of the Boom Fuentes Cort zar Garcia M rquez and Vargas Llosa This book will be of interest to critics and teachers of Latin American literature and will be useful too as supplementary reading for students of Spanish and Hispanic Studies It will also serve as a helpful introduction to those new to Latin American fiction Woman and the Infinite Vialla

Hartfield-Méndez,1996 Woman and the Infinite demonstrates how Pedro Salinas s poetry and frequently overlooked narrative and theater reveal a preoccupation with the nature of time especially extraordinary moments that transcend space and time Many of these moments are intimately connected with the man woman yo tu relationship Salinas s exploration of this theme is best understood in the context of other modern literary evocations of epiphanic moments Such literary phenomena as William Wordsworth s spots of time and James Joyce s epiphanies are among the precursors of Salinas s moments of eternity as are moments of timelessness in works by Marcel Proust and the French Symbolist poets Salinas s reception of the Symbolists was direct but also refracted through his reading of the Latin American modernistas especially Ruben Dario In his well known commentary on Dario Salinas connects the perception of woman with a visionary moment of extraordinary lucidity a connection found in his own works Woman is elusive for Salinas She has a multiplicity of forms and varying identities that are expressed with mirrors and shadows or Classical and Biblical mythological archetypes All of these are found in Aurora de verdad from Vispera del gozo a narrative piece which can be read as representative of Salinas s work as a whole Specific images in the story including mirrored figures and references to mythological goddesses are also key elements in a trajectory in Salinas s works in general toward an all encompassing absolute and infinite moment

The Double Strand Frank Dauster, 2014-07-15 Two strands, one indigenous, the other imposed, produce the poetic and cultural tensions that give form to the work of five contemporary Mexican poets. All Chumacero, Efraín Huerta, Jaime Sabines, Rubén Bonifaz Núñez and Rosario Castellanos. Although all five are significant figures, only Castellanos has yet been widely studied in the United States, primarily for her novels and her relations with the feminist movement. In spite of a number of rather basic differences in their work, these poets share and write within a complicated culture rooted in both the pre-Hispanic and the European traditions. Their poetry reflects this in its emphasis on death as a constant presence and in the echoes of both Aztec ritual poetry and European poetry. Although apparently very different formally and thematically, the five share a number of concerns. Each of them writes out of a contradictory inner tension; each is preoccupied with the effort to shape language as part of a personal voyage of discovery; each is haunted by death and seeks realization or plenitude through love of some kind. And each of them ultimately finds there is no escape. As Frank Dauster concludes, "The poetry of Mexico, like its people and its society, reflects the fusion of two worlds, and these complex poets of the double strand operate freely and imaginatively within it." Although addressed primarily to specialists in Latin American literature, The Double Strand also speaks to those interested in the complex interaction between two widely differing cultural heritages and in the rich fusion this blending produces in Mexican letters.
