Losing My Religion Moving On From Evangelical Faith:

Leaving Christian Fundamentalism and the Reconstruction of Identity Josie McSkimming, 2016-10-04 There is an increasing interest in the influence of religious fundamentalism upon people's motivation identity and decision making Leaving Christian Fundamentalism and the Reconstruction of Identity details the stories of those who have left Christian fundamentalist churches and how they change after they have left It considers how the previous fundamentalist identity is shaped by aspects of church teaching and discipline that are less authoritarian and coercive and more subtle and widely spread throughout the church body That is individuals are understood as not only subject to a form of judgment but also exercise it with everyone seemingly complicit in maintaining the stability of the church organisation This book provocatively illustrates that the reasons for leaving an evangelical Christian church may be less about what happens outside the church in terms of the lures and attractions of the secular world and more about the experience within the community itself

Shalom, the Spirit and Pentecostal Conversion Grace Milton, 2015-08-17 In Shalom the Spirit and Pentecostal Conversion Grace Milton presents a uniquely practical theological model of Pentecostal conversion centered on empirical data from a congregational case study Pentecostal Charismatic conversion is commonly equated with a dramatic Damascus road type event which directly opposes prevailing theories within the social sciences that conversion is a more gradual process over time This raises the question how far do these Pentecostal stereotypes reflect lived experience In this book for the first time the experiences and beliefs of ordinary Pentecostal believers are drawn into conversation with conversion theories from the human sciences sociology psychology and anthropology and theology The result is a distinctly Pentecostal model of conversion which interprets religious transformation through the theological lens of Shalom

British Evangelical Identities Past and Present, Volume 1 Mark Smith, 2009-04-01 The nature of evangelical identity in Britain is both a perennial issue and an urgent one This is especially the case because evangelical Christianity has

Reading the Bible outside the Church David G. Ford, 2018-07-12 In many places in the Western world churchgoing is in decline and it cannot be assumed that people have a good grasp of the Bible s content In this evolving situation how would the person on the street read the Bible Reading the Bible Outside the Church begins to answer this question David Ford spent ten months at a chemical industrial plant providing non churchgoing men with the opportunity to read and respond to five different biblical texts Using an in depth qualitative methodology he charts how their prior experiences of religion sense of non religious identity attitudes towards the Bible and beliefs about the Bible all shaped the readings that occurred The Wisdom of the Spirit Martyn Percy, Pete Ward, 2016-02-17 In this groundbreaking book exploring Christianity and contemporary culture internationally renowned scholars including David Martin Alister McGrath Billy Abraham Billy Kay and Pete Ward interface with the legacy of Andrew Walker s work and look forward in their own predictions of trends Following Walker s special interests in house churches charismatic renewal culture and faith this book picks up on these themes and also looks more broadly at topics such as Pentecostalism Alpha and post Evangelicalism Finding Grace in the Concert Hall Linda K. Randall, 2010-10-21 Bruce Springsteens music and performances have provided an emotional outlet for thousands of fans all over the world Drawing from participant observation the statements of Springsteen fans and the life and music of Springsteen Randalls ethnographic treatment documents the ways in which fans are inspired to create a global cultural community This community functions as a social network offering emotional support spirituality and the motivation for doing good works Randall discovers that the sensitivities and values Springsteen instills in his fans are as alive and valid as those experienced by adherents of widely recognized spiritual traditions Her in depth examination of the thoughts and actions of these fans reveals that embracing nontraditional spiritual values can engender multifaceted feelings including trust hope and respect for humankind By acknowledging that a personal spiritual connection can develop outside a sectarian landscape an appreciation of and tolerance for different belief systems can be cultivated and nourished The New Spirituality Gordon Lynch, 2007-04-25 Much attention has been given in recent writings about religion to fundamentalism and the religious right But less attention has been given to their opposite the emergence of a new generation of progressive religious thinkers and organisations on the religious left The New Spirituality is one of the first books to give a comprehensive and authoritative account of this burgeoning progressive religious movement It offers a clear and engaging analysis of the cultural roots key ideas and organisational structures of this new faith assessing its significance in the changing moral and religious landscape of contemporary western society Gordon Lynch argues that we are witnessing the rise of a new religious ideology which reveres the natural world connects religious faith with novel scientific theories and has a forward looking agenda for society's transformation The New Spirituality will be essential reading for students attempting to understand the shape of religious belief in the twenty first century The Wisdom of the Spirit Canon Martyn Percy, Professor Pete Ward, 2014-09-28 In this groundbreaking book exploring Christianity and contemporary culture internationally renowned scholars interface with the legacy of Andrew Walker's work and look forward in their own predictions of trends Following Walker's special interests in house churches charismatic renewal culture and faith this book picks up on these themes and also looks more broadly at topics such as Pentecostalism Alpha and post Evangelicalism

Entertainment Theology (Cultural Exegesis) Barry Taylor, 2008-03-01 It's the end of the church as we know it In a digitally connected world people are seeking spiritual answers through pop culture Instead of retreating Christians must rethink the sacred and enter global conversations about God in film literature TV and music or face extinction argues Barry Taylor in Entertainment Theology Taking snapshots from theology cultural studies sociology and pop culture Taylor explores a myriad of factors affecting religious life since the 1970s including technology fashion celebrity and global communications He exhorts a move away from traditional Christian religion proposing instead a manifestation of Christianity as a religion not of the past but of the present and the future For scholars seminary students culture watchers and emerging church readers Entertainment Theology offers thought provoking hope for Christianity's future C. S. Lewis Bruce L.

Christian Peter Feldmeier, 2007 In The Developing Christian Peter Feldmeier wrestles with the interconnections between normal human development and spiritual growth Beginning with the basic principles of Christian spirituality he goes on to investigate human maturing through the stages of life with each stage's typical challenges and opportunities Particular attention is given to moral and ego development In this context of human maturation he investigates spiritual progress particularly as it relates to prayer work and primary relationships Touchstone voices from the theological tradition including St John of the Cross Teilhard de Chardin and James Fowler These are augmented with an array of wisdom figures from contemplative prophetic and pastoral expressions of holiness BOOK JACKET Spirituality and Social Work Beth R. Crisp, 2016-04-01 For much of the twentieth century professional social work sought to distance itself from its religious origins with the consequence being that the role of spirituality in the lives of service users tended to be sidelined Yet it is clear that many people begin to explore their spirituality precisely at times when they are trying to make sense of difficult life circumstances or experiences and may come into contact with social workers In recent years there has been an increasing understanding that in order to be relevant to the lives of people they work with social workers need to go beyond their material needs but there is little understanding of how spirituality can be sensitively incorporated into practice especially when either practitioners or service users have no religious affiliation or there is no shared religious background In this pathbreaking volume Beth Crisp offers social workers ideas of beginning conversations in which spiritual values and beliefs may surface allowing service users to respond from their own framework and to begin to discuss the specific religious or spiritual practices and beliefs which are important to them She considers spirituality in the context of lived experience a perspective that she argues breaks down any mystique and suspicion of explicitly religious language by focusing on language and experiences with which most people can identify Such a framework allows exploration of issues that emerge at different stages in the lifespan both by persons who are religious and those who do not identify with any formal religion Most literature on spirituality within social work refers to the elderly to those who are sick or have been bereaved yet as Crisp points out spirituality is important for people of all ages and not just at seemingly exceptional moments ThirdWay, 2003-12 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Overhearing a Christian Apology to the Nones Thomas E. Rodgeron, 2021-11-03 While the steady increase of the religiously unaffiliated Nones in America has generated anxious responses about rising secularism and loss of national identity this book suggests a wider meaning making approach wherein the Nones are seen as valuable dialogue partners necessary in this pivotal moment for the revealing of still hidden truths about culture spirituality and religion Christians who overhear this dialogue may find upon self reflection an emerging truth about their relationships embedded stories level of faith development and susceptibility to a culturally conditioned transactional religion Nones who choose to engage in dialogue may find that the nothingness they bring to the dialogue is more significant than they realize revealing truths of an apophatic spiritual path necessary for generating a transformational faith of freedom and capable of rebalancing a divisive consumer driven society The religious and the not religious who are often seen as being on opposite sides of an imagined religious threshold may instead be seen as standing together in a liminal space that opens in wordless silence to yet unseen possibilities and from which emerge new stories aligned with the heart of Creation
