Signifying Loss Nouri Gana, 2011-01-20 By remapping the configurations of mourning across modernist postmodernist and postcolonial literatures psychoanalysis and deconstruction James Joyce Jamaica Kincaid Tahar Ben Jelloun Elias Khoury Sigmund Freud and Jacques Derrida Signifying Loss studies not only how loss is signified but also the ethico political significance of such signifying First by examining the dynamics between narrative tropes and mourning it elaborates a poetics of narrative mourning in which prosopopoeia becomes the master trope of mourning while catachresis the master trope of melancholia and chiasmus of trauma Second it develops a situated and flexible theory of mourning capable of adjusting to diverse contexts in which the ethical and political stakes of mourning are different in short Signifying Loss calls for the formulation of geopolitical and differential tactics of mourning and mournability rather than for a clear cut strategy of inconsolability

Troubled Paradise Eric Reitan, 2024-12-12 Grief over the loss of those we love is one of the most painful parts of life But Christianity has long offered consolation to those who grieve in the form of the Easter promise Death is not the end Beyond it lies a realm of perfect joy where mourning is no more and every tear is wiped away But won't this promise have limits if as Christians have traditionally believed some of God's creatures are eternally lost Can I really be perfectly happy in heaven if say my children are damned or annihilated And what about the Christian teaching that those in heaven are morally sanctified Doesn't this mean they will be perfected in a love so wide it includes even our enemies and hence the lost While delving deeply into the nature of grief and its relation to Christian ethics this book explores the reasoning that generates this problem of heavenly grief examines purported solutions and invites deeper reflection on a frequently dismissed idea that avoids the problem altogether the universalist notion that there are no limits to Easter's promise because all are ultimately saved
