Lost Architectures:

Lost Buildings Jonathan Glancey, 2009 Surveys buildings that have been lost to antiquity war demolition natural catastrophes and other circumstances as well as designs which were never built Lost Architectures Neil Spiller, 2001-03-23 This book stands in opposition to the popular notion that the best architecture is built on compromise Rather Neil Spiller argues the most original and brave products of the architectural mind are often to be found in those projects which for whatever reason never came to fruition Lost Architectures presents an array of such projects from the last decades of the twentieth century constituting the unrealised dreams of some of the most inspirational architects working in the period Most of the projects featured here have seldom if ever been published before and some represent the last hand drawn work of their creators before the age of the computer finally came into full force Whilst they do not follow any specific style these projects embody a spirit defined by Spiller as New Romanticism a spirit which combines elements of aesthetic decadence and a certain camp mannerism with a love of angularity and mechanised ritual Some of the architects in question are still in practice with a great deal of high profile built work behind them others have never been recognised as they perhaps should have been In both cases this book is an invaluable resource of information and inspiration for students of architecture as well as for theorists historians and lay readers It provides essential exposure for a range of work of great vitality which might otherwise risk being lost in the course of time Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress. Humanitarian Architecture Esther Charlesworth, 2014-06-27 Never has the demand been so urgent for architects to respond to the design and planning challenges of rebuilding post disaster sites and cities In 2011 more people were displaced by natural disasters 42 million than by wars and armed conflicts And yet the number of architects equipped to deal with rebuilding the aftermath of these floods fires earthquake typhoons and tsunamis is chronically short This book documents and analyses the expanding role for architects in designing projects for communities after the event of a natural disaster The fifteen case studies featured in the body of the book illustrate how architects can use spatial sensibility and integrated problem solving skills to help alleviate both human and natural disasters The cases include Lizzie Babister Department of International Development UK Shigeru Ban Winner of The Pritzker Architecture Prize 2014 Shigeru Ban Architects and Voluntary Architects Network Japan Eric Cesal Disaster Reconstruction and Resiliency Studio and Architecture for Humanity Japan Hsieh Ying Chun Atelier 3 Taiwan Nathaniel Corum Education Outreach and Architecture for Humanity USA Sandra D Urzo Shelter and Settlements and International Federation of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies Switzerland Brett Internet Protocol-based Emergency Services Henning Schulzrinne, Hannes Tschofenig, 2013-08-19 Written by international experts in the field, this book covers the standards, architecture, and deployment issues related to IP-based emergency services. This book brings together contributions from experts on technical and operational aspects within the international standardisation and regulatory processes relating to routing and handling of IP-based emergency calls. Readers will learn how these standards work, how various standardization organizations contributed to them, and about pilot projects, early deployment, and current regulatory situation.

Key Features
 Provides an overview of how the standards related to IP-based emergency services work and how various organizations contributed to them.
 Focuses on SIP and IMS-based communication systems for the Internet.
 Covers standards, architecture, and deployment issues.
 International focus with coverage of the major national efforts in this area.
 Written by the experts who were involved in the development of the standards: NENA, EENA, 3GPP, IETF, ETSI, etc.
 Accompanying website provides updates on standards and deployment: <http://ip-emergency.net>.
 This book is an excellent resource for vendors building software and equipment for emergency services, engineers, researchers engaged in development of networks and network elements, and standardization emergency services providers.
 Standardization experts, product persons, those within the regulatory environment, students, and lecturers, infrastructure and application service providers will also find this book of interest.

Lost Buildings Jonathan Glancey, 2008 Have you ever wished that you could have seen King Solomon's mighty Temple in Jerusalem or climbed to the top of the legendary Tower of Babel? What must it have been like to have paraded up and down the great glass galleries of the Crystal Palace in London in 1851? Why is the Euston Arch, demolished in 1961, still missed? What would buildings described in much-loved books have been like if these had existed outside their author's imaginations? Imagine walking through the labyrinthine corridors of Mervyn Peake's mythical Gothic fortress Gormenghast or visiting Toad Hall. And what of the current trend for reconstructing buildings which were destroyed in wartime or for political reasons? Lost Buildings is an invitation to visit buildings long vanished or those demolished within living history, some by dim politicians.

others by war or acts of God that we would pay good money and travel a long way to see if only they existed today It looks too at buildings from literature myth and children s stories and some lost opportunities fantastic ambitious designs that were never built There are countless buildings that remain vivid in the collective memory whether they were once real or were only ever imagined Lost Buildings brings these together for the reader s curiosity and delight Lost Buildings of Britain Simon Thurley,2004 Accompanying a six part series on Channel Four this volume features six buildings including Glastonbury monastery and the Theatre Royal Architecture and Design: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources,2018-11-02 Technological evolutions have changed the field of architecture exponentially leading to more stable and energy efficient building structures Architects and engineers must be prepared to further enhance their knowledge in the field in order to effectively meet new and advancing standards Architecture and Design Breakthroughs in Research and Practice is an authoritative resource for the latest research on the application of new technologies and digital tools that revolutionize the work of architects globally aiding in architectural design planning implementation and restoration Highlighting a range of pertinent topics such as design anthropology digital preservation and 3D modeling this publication is an ideal reference source for researchers scholars IT professionals engineers architects contractors and academicians seeking current research on the development and creation of architectural design

Handbook of Research on Visual Computing and Emerging Geometrical Design Tools Amoruso, Giuseppe,2016-04-11 Visual computing and descriptive geometry are multidisciplinary fields addressing the handling of images 3D models and other computer graphics These ideas are experiencing a revival due to emergent technologies and applications available to developers Based in traditional forms of design and architecture these fields are currently experiencing a bounty of new research based on old principles The Handbook of Research on Visual Computing and Emerging Geometrical Design Tools seeks to add to this knowledge base by considering these technologies from a designer s perspective rather than reiterating the principles of computer science It combines aspects of geometry and representation with emerging tools for CAD generation and visualization while addressing the digital heritage of such fields This book is an invaluable resource for developers students of both graphic and computer generated design researchers and designers Critical Built Heritage Practice and Conservation Johnathan Djabarouti,2024-01-23 Critical Built Heritage Practice and Conservation Evolving Perspectives supports an alternative point of departure for engaging with the historic built environment by critically questioning the legitimacy of dominant conservation concepts and methods that are often taken for granted within building conservation architecture and adaptive reuse The meaning of heritage is changing From pastness to presentness from preservation to participation and from tangible to intangible heritage is increasingly understood as a dynamic social and intangible process across many disciplines Consequently the role and remit of the built heritage practitioner and in particular the architectural conservationist is becoming progressively complex and in need of a critical gaze Is restoration really a falsehood from beginning to end Should the condition of existing materials determine the conservation method Is authenticity really an inherent quality within old buildings By engaging with a critical interpretation of heritage this book makes space for practitioners to consider the evolution of their own role within a rapidly changing context of built heritage practice Reinforced by a shift in emphasis from materials to meanings a socio material outlook is proposed which champions an enhanced focus on intangible heritage within the built heritage sector whilst still acknowledging the physical condition of old buildings is a priority for many stakeholders This book has been written with practitioners students and educators of architectural conservation in mind although will also be of relevance to the broader built heritage industry as well as academics researchers and heritage students with a passion for contemporary dialogues in heritage studies

Architecture in Cinema Nevnihal Erdoğan, Hikmet Temel Akarsu, 2024-04-26 In Architecture in Cinema more than 40 architects writers thinkers and academicians examine the magnificent works of cinema that contribute to the art of architecture and bring them to the attention of the architectural community The contributors have compiled essays on fifty masterpieces of classic and contemporary cinema including films such as The Cabinet of Dr Caligari Ben Hur The Lord of The Rings trilogy Nomadland and more The book aims to stimulate the imagination of readers and offer approaches to understanding fantasy sociological concepts ecological problems and political ideas The contributors also focus on the elements of creativity such as utopian or dystopian themes aesthetics and artistry Architecture in Cinema is an informative reference for anyone interested in how architecture is featured in the cinematic medium Scholars of architecture urban planning fine arts humanities social sciences and various design disciplines will also find the book refreshing

The Good Life and the Greater Good in a Global Context Laura Savu Walker, 2015-11-19 The Good Life and the Greater Good in a Global Context offers a timely contribution to the debates about the good life that surround us every day in the media politics the humanities and social sciences The authors examine the relationship between the good life and the greater good as represented across different genres media cultures and disciplines This enables them to develop a framework of values that transcends the overly rational and individualistic model of the good life advanced by neoliberalism and the happiness industry Thus over and against normative conceptualizations of the good life that reduce meaning to money creativity to consumption and compassion to self help the contributors propose an ethically charged philosophy of living that views the care for the self for the other and for the planet as the catalysts of true human flourishing In addition to recovering the original usage of the good life from classical thought especially the Aristotelian understanding of eudaimonia as living well and doing well the essays gathered here highlight its entanglement with distinctly modern ideas of happiness wellbeing flourishing progress revolution democracy the American Dream utopia and sustainability As such the essays capture the breadth and depth of the conversation about the good life that is of central importance to how we relate to the past engage the present and envision the future
