Lost At Sea Audio Cassette:

Maps of the Ancient Sea Kings Charles H. Hapgood, 1966 Hapgood utilizes ancient maps as concrete evidence of an advanced worldwide civilization existing many thousands of years before ancient Egypt Hapgood concluded that these ancient mapmakers were in some ways much more advanced in mapmaking than any people prior to the 18th century Hapgood believes that they mapped all the continents This would mean that the Americas were mapped thousands of years before Columbus Antarctica would have been mapped when its coasts were free of ice Hapgood supposes that there is evidence that these people must have lived when the Ice Age had not yet ended in the Northern Hemisphere and when Alaska was still connected with Siberia by the Pleistocene Ice Age land bridge Index to Educational Audio Tapes, 1974

On Cassette, 1990 Yondering (Louis L'Amour's Lost Treasures) Louis L'Amour, 2018-11-27 As part of the Louis L'Amour's Lost Treasures series this edition contains exclusive bonus materials. Over the years I have been proud to write about the men and women of the American frontier. But I have written many stories with entirely different settings which I have long wanted to share with my readers. I have collected some of these in Yondering. They are glimpses of what my own life was like during the early years. Those were the rough years often I was hungry, out of work and facing situations such as I have since written about. Although these stories take place in a variety of locales they are stories of people living under conditions similar to the way they might have lived on the frontier. I hope you'll enjoy Yondering. Louis L'Amour's Lost Treasures is a project created to release some of the author's more unconventional manuscripts from the family archives. In Louis L'Amour's Lost Treasures Volumes 1 Beau L'Amour takes the reader on a guided tour through many of the finished and unfinished short stories, novels and treatments that his father was never able to publish during his lifetime. L'Amour's never before seen first novel No Traveller Returns faithfully completed for this program is a voyage into danger and violence on the high seas. These exciting publications will be followed by Louis L'Amour's Lost Treasures Volume 2. Additionally many beloved classics will be rereleased with an exclusive Lost Treasures postscript featuring previously unpublished material including outlines, plot notes and alternate drafts. These postscripts tell the story behind the stories that millions of readers have come to know and cherish. In Light of All Darkness Kim Cross, 2023-10-03 Paced like a thriller and full of insider information this book embeds readers in one of the most famous true crime stories of our generation the kidnapping of Polly Klaas. On October 1, 1993 a 12 year old girl was kidnapped at knifepoint from her bedroom in Petaluma, California during a sleepover with two friends while her mother slept soundly in the room next door. This rarest of all kidnappings a stranger abduction from the home triggered one of the largest manhunts in FBI history. New York Times bestselling author Kim Cross has written the first comprehensive account of what happened on that fateful night in October as well as how the case forever transformed the Bureau's approach to solving crimes. With unprecedented access to case files, crime scene photos, a videotaped murder confession and inside sources In Light of All Darkness follows the investigators who pieced together the evidence that led to the arrest and conviction of the kidnapper and made the victim a household name and a girl who will never be forgotten. Invitations to Literacy: Survival! James David Cooper, 2001 SPIN, 1988-05 From the concert stage to the dressing room from the recording state of siege in Burma and it long has But Burma's connection to George Orwell is not merely metaphorical it is much deeper and more real Orwell's mother was born in Burma at the height of the British raj and Orwell was fundamentally shaped by his experiences in Burma as a young man working for the British Imperial Police When Orwell died the novel in progress on his desk was set in Burma It is the place George Orwell's work holds in Burma today however that most struck Emma Larkin She was frequently told by Burmese acquaintances that Orwell did not write one book about their country his first novel Burmese Days but in fact he wrote three the trilogy that included Animal Farm and Nineteen Eighty Four When Larkin quietly asked one Burmese intellectual if he knew the work of George Orwell he stared blankly for a moment and then said Ah you mean the prophet In one of the most intrepid political travelogues in recent memory Emma Larkin tells of the year she spent traveling through Burma using the life and work of George Orwell as her compass Going from Mandalay and Rangoon to poor delta backwaters and up to the old hill station towns in the mountains of Burma's far north Larkin visits the places where Orwell worked and lived and the places his books live still She brings to vivid life a country and a people cut off from the rest of the world and from one another by the ruling military junta and its vast network of spies and informers Using Orwell enables her to show effortlessly the weight of the colonial experience on Burma today the ghosts of which are invisible and everywhere More important she finds that the path she charts leads her to the people who have found ways to somehow resist the soul crushing effects of life in this most cruel police state And George Orwell's moral clarity hatred of injustice and keen powers of observation serve as the author's compass in another sense too they are qualities she shares and they suffuse her book the keenest and finest reckoning with life in this police state that has yet been written
