Colonial South Africa: Origins Racial Order Tim Keegan, 1997-01-01 It is a story that is strong in notable events slave emancipation the arrival of the 1820 British settlers a series of frontier wars the Great Trek of Boer emigrants as well as in striking personalities among them Dr John Philip Andries Stockenström John Fairbairn Moshoeshe and Sir Harry Smith In Keegan s pages these familiar historical landmarks and characters emerge in entirely novel ways the subject of fresh interpretations and original insights

The Evolution of the South African System of Innovation since 1916 Mario Scerri, 2009-05-27 In this book Mario Scerri provides the reader with a novel and sweeping rendition of South Africa s economic history from the early part of the twentieth century to the present He applies a broad innovation systems approach to this history spanning the period from 1916 which saw the drafting of South Africa s first Science and Technology plan to the first fourteen years of the post apartheid period The introduction of the book lays out the scope of the work and its focus on the identification of continuities and ruptures in the economic history of South Africa The first part of the book deals with the theoretical foundations of the approach The first chapter in this section looks at the emergence of evolutionary economics and innovation systems theory as the basis for the main countervailing argument against the neoclassical neoliberal orthodoxy In the course of this chapter the foundation is laid for the development of an alternative general theory of economics The second chapter covers the main debates on the economic history of South Africa and looks at the several varieties of the liberal and Marxist renditions of this history The theoretical section lays the foundation for the history that is covered in the four chapters which follow These cover three broad periods since 1916 The first runs up to 1948 with the election victory of the National Party The second covers the apartheid period and the last follows with an account of the post apartheid political economy An endnote provides the basis for the analysis of what may possibly be the emergence of a fourth main period in the evolution of the South African system of innovation The Evolution of the South African System of Innovation since 1916 opens up a novel engagement with the complex phenomenon of apartheid its genealogy and its aftermath It will appeal to economists and economic historians who are interested in the economy of South Africa It will be of particular interest to evolutionary economists who use the systems of innovation approach as an alternative to mainstream neoclassical economics in the analysis of dynamic economic systems For this particular audience this book will provide a welcome addition to the growing body of literature in this area especially given the novelty of its historical approach

South Africa Nancy L. Clark, William H. Worger, 2022-04-06 This new edition of South Africa examines the history of South Africa from 1948 to the present covering the economic background to racial segregation the introduction of the oppressive policy of apartheid the eventual collapse of White supremacy and the legacy of apartheid to the present day Fully revised the fourth edition incorporates new original research particularly from the records of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and includes additional popular culture images such as posters linked to the international anti apartheid struggle These help to further emphasise the mounting popular opposition to state repression in the 1970s and 1980s By developing an analysis of recent economic and political issues that are rooted in the apartheid regime particularly the continuing divide between rich and poor along racial lines and the impact of public corruption known as state capture South Africa provides a current clear and succinct introduction to the ideology and practice of apartheid Illustrated with photographs maps and figures and including a Chronology Glossary Who's Who and updated Further Reading section the fourth edition of South Africa is an essential text for students studying all aspects of apartheid in South Africa

Routledge Library Editions: Education Mini-Set H History of Education 24 vol set Various, 2021-07-14 Mini set H History of Education re issues 24 volumes which span a century of publishing 1900 1995 The volumes cover Education in Ancient Rome Irish education in the 19th century schools in Victorian Britain changing patterns in higher education secondary education in post war Britain education and the British colonial experience and the history of educational theory and reform

The Imperial Curriculum J. Mangan, 2012-05-04 This volume presents the first comparative analysis of racial attitudes in the formal schooling of both Britain and its former dominions and colonies The various contributions examine the issue right across the British imperial experience with case studies ranging from Canada Ireland East and South Africa through the Indian subcontinent to Australia and New Zealand Racial indoctrination is considered from the perspective of both colonizer and colonized The central theme throughout is that a racial hierarchy was taught through both curriculum and text in schools throughout the former British Empire

Poverty Knowledge in South Africa Grace Davie, 2015-02-05 Poverty is South Africa's greatest challenge But what is poverty How can it be measured And how can it be reduced if not eliminated In South Africa human science knowledge about the cost of living grew out of colonialism industrialization apartheid and civil resistance campaigns which makes this knowledge far from neutral or apolitical South Africans have used the Poverty Datum Line PDL Gini coefficients and other poverty thresholds to petition the state to chip away at the pillars of white supremacy and more recently to criticize the postapartheid government's failures to deliver on some of its promises Rather than promoting one particular policy solution this book argues that poverty knowledge teaches us about the dynamics of historical change the power of racism in white settler societies and the role of grassroots protest movements in shaping state policies and scientific categories Readers will gain new perspectives on today's debates about social welfare redistribution and human rights and will ultimately find reasons to rethink conventional approaches to advocacy

Cape Radicals Crain Soudien, 2019-06-01 The history of a radical group of intellectuals who founded the New Era Fellowship which shaped human rights precedents and social justice policy in South Africa In 1937 a group of young Capetonians socialist intellectuals from the Workers Party of South Africa embarked on a project they called the New Era Fellowship NEF In doing so they sought to disrupt and challenge not only prevailing political narratives but the very premises class and race on which they were based In different forums public debates lectures study circles and cultural events the seeds of radical thinking were planted nurtured and brought to full flower Taking a position of non collaboration and non racialism the NEF played a vital role in challenging society's responses to events ranging from the problem of taking up arms during the Second World War for an empire intent on stripping people of colour of their human rights to the Hertzog Bills which foreshadowed apartheid in all its ruthless effectiveness In subsequent narratives of liberation their significance has been overlooked even disparaged and has never been fully understood and acknowledged By shining a contemporary light on the NEF and locating its contribution in current sociological and political discourse educationist Crain Soudien shows how its members were at the forefront of redefining the debate about social difference in a racially divided society

Historian Hermann Giliomee, 2018-01-04 In this eloquent memoir already widely read and praised in the author's native South Africa Hermann Giliomee weaves together the story of his own life with that of his country a nation that continues to absorb and inspire him both despite and because of its tortuous history An internationally respected historian his landmark The Afrikaners writes J M Coetzee includes an account of the origins and demise of apartheid that must rank as the most sober objective and comprehensive we have Giliomee has devoted a lifetime to exploring the origins and perpetuation of the deep divisions in South African society Although he grew up in the heart of the Afrikaner nationalist movement he soon began to cut his own path in examining the rise and entrenchment of exclusive Afrikaner power and became one of the National Party's chief critics As an outside insider or to his critics a snake in the grass Giliomee has an understanding of Afrikaner power that is informed and nuanced He has engaged with members on all sides of South Africa's debates many of whom appear in these pages through vivid and insightful portraits and his outspokenness has hit nerves across the political spectrum The personal journey of this original and courageous thinker will appeal to anyone interested in the complexities of South Africa's past and present

Reconsiderations in Southern African History

Labour Disrupted Malehoko Tshoaedi, Christine Bischoff, Andries Bezuidenhout, Janet Cherry, Nomkhosi Xulu-Gama, Mondli Hlatshwayo, Aisha Lorgat, Babalwa Magoqwana, John Mashayamombe, Mpho Mmadi, Siphele Ngcwangu, Sandla Nomvete, Jantjie Xaba, Lucien van der Walt, Edward Webster, 2023-10-01 Analyses the fragmentation and future of labour movements in South Africa and globally in the context of globalisation the fourth industrial revolution and the Covid 19 pandemic

What is Slavery to Me? Pumla Dineo Gqola, 2010-04-01 A study of slave memory in South Africa using feminist postcolonial and memory studies Much has been made about South Africa's transition from histories of colonialism slavery and apartheid Memory features prominently in the country's reckoning with its pasts While there has been an outpouring of academic essays anthologies and other full length texts which study this transition most have focused on the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC What is slavery to me is the first full length study of slave memory in the South African context and examines the relevance and effects of slave memory for contemporary negotiations of South African gendered and racialised identities It draws from feminist postcolonial and memory studies and is therefore interdisciplinary in approach It reads memory as one way of processing this past and interprets a variety of cultural literary and filmic texts to ascertain the particular experiences in relation to slave pasts being fashioned processed and disseminated Much of the material surveyed across disciplines attributes to memory or popular history making a dialogue between past and present whilst ascribing sense to both the eras and their relationship In this sense then memory is active entailing a personal relationship with the past which acts as mediator of reality on a day to day basis The projects studies various negotiations of raced and gendered identities in creative and other public spaces in contemporary South Africa by being particularly attentive to the encoding of consciousness about the country's slave past This book extends memory studies in South Africa provokes new lines of inquiry and develops new frameworks through which to think about slavery and memory in South Africa

Switzerland and South Africa 1948-1994 Georg Kreis, 2007 While other states imposed economic sanctions on the apartheid regime of South Africa Swiss authorities long adhered to the position that South Africa is a state like any other Swiss big business corporations saw an attractive trade partner in South Africa in part they also profited from the boycotts of others Additionally some political forces sympathised openly with the regime in Pretoria Encouraged by the debate concerning Swiss policy and activity during the Second World War in 1997 the order was given to initiate a historical study of Swiss behaviour towards the apartheid regime Thus this report commissioned by the Swiss parliament and the Federal Council and passed over to the Swiss National Science Foundation for execution came into being It unites the results of ten different research projects The report identifies the most important players involved in fashioning relations with South Africa it explains the legal situation in which these persons acted and it describes the thought processes that led to the actions The longest chapter deals with the attitudes and the areas of activity in the economic sector Here the trade with loans gold diamonds and war materials is paramount Other chapters are concerned with questions that are not primarily economic in nature such as political declarations the illusion of being in the role of a mediator contacts in sports and culture and after 1986 the beginning of support for the black majority

Hannah Arendt and the Uses of History

Richard H. King, Dan Stone, 2008-09 Hannah Arendt first argued the continuities between the age of European imperialism and the age of fascism in Europe in The Origins of Totalitarianism This text uses Arendt's insights as a starting point for further investigations into the ways in which race imperialism slavery and genocide are linked

Understanding the British Empire Ronald Hyam, 2010-05-20 Understanding the British Empire draws on a lifetime's research and reflection on the history of the British Empire by one of the senior figures in the field Essays cover six key themes the geopolitical and economic dynamics of empire religion and ethics imperial bureaucracy the contribution of political leaders the significance of sexuality and the shaping of imperial historiography A major new introductory chapter draws together the wider framework of Dr Hyam's studies and several new chapters focus on lesser known figures Other chapters are revised versions of earlier papers reflecting some of the debates and controversies raised by the author's work including the issue of sexual exploitation the European intrusion into Africa including the African response to missionaries trusteeship and Winston Churchill's imperial attitudes Combining traditional archival research with newer forms of cultural exploration this is an unusually wide ranging approach to key aspects of empire

The Locus of Care Peregrine Horden, Richard Smith, 2013-01-11

The care of the needy and the sick is delivered by various groups including immediate family the wider community religious organisations and the State funded institutions The Locus of Care provides an historical perspective on welfare detailing who carers were in the past where care was provided and how far the boundary between family and state or informal and organised institutions have changed over time Eleven international contributors provide a wide ranging examination of themes such as child care mental health and provision for the elderly and question the idea that there has been a recent evolutionary shift from informal provision to institutional care Chapters on Europe and England use case studies and link evidence from ancient and medieval periods to contemporary problems and the recent past whilst studies on China and South Africa look to the future of welfare throughout the world By placing welfare in its historical social cultural and demographic contexts Locus of Care reassesses community and institutional care and the future expectations of welfare provision

Politics and Society in South Africa Daryl Glaser, 2000-12-22 Darryl Glaser supplies an illuminating overview of the scholarship since 1970 on South Africa's political history. His emphasis is on the debates between liberals, Marxists and to a lesser extent post structuralists about the origins and the course of South Africa's racial order. Tom Lodge, University of Witwatersrand. A well researched, well argued, readable, interesting, informative and competent study. Capital and Class. Providing a wide ranging and critical introduction to contemporary South Africa, this book uses an interdisciplinary lens to introduce the student to the main debates, historical context and issues that have characterized the study of South Africa over the last three decades. Key topics include the role of colonialism, capitalism and modernity in the formation of the racial order, changes in the South African state, questions of class, race and ethnicity, black resistance and the transition to democracy. A number of underlying debates are critically evaluated. For example, the contribution of materialist and class analytic approaches, the application of post structuralism and theories of modernity and the prospects for democratic liberalism and socialism in post apartheid South Africa.

Inside African Anthropology Andrew Bank, Leslie J. Bank, 2013-04-08 Inside African Anthropology offers an incisive biography of the life and work of South Africa's foremost social anthropologist, Monica Hunter Wilson. By exploring her main fieldwork and intellectual projects in southern Africa between the 1920s and 1960s, the book offers insights into her personal and intellectual life. Beginning with her origins in the remote Eastern Cape, the authors follow Wilson to the University of Cambridge and back into the field among the Mpondo of South Africa where her studies resulted in her 1936 book, Reaction to Conquest. Her fieldwork focus then shifted to Tanzania where she teamed up with her husband, Godfrey Wilson. In the 1960s, Wilson embarked on a new urban ethnography with a young South African anthropologist, Archie Mafeje, one of the many black scholars she trained. This study also provides a meticulously researched exploration of the indispensable contributions of African research assistants to the production of this famous woman scholar's cultural knowledge about mid twentieth century Africa.

God's Peoples Donald H. Akenson, 1992 Akenson brings to light critical similarities among three politically troubled nations: South Africa, Israel and Northern Ireland.

Struggles in Southern Africa for Survival and Equality H. Simons, 1997-04-21 A fascinating account which discusses the indigenous peoples at the Cape at the time of the Dutch colonisers' arrival through to the years of apartheid. This includes the colonial conquest of Zambia, expanding upon the role played by venture capital and the demands of manufacturing capitalism in the colonisation of large parts of Africa. The place of women in both colonial settler society and indigenous society is also dealt with. Through all the chapters runs the thread of the lives of the common people and how their interactions are circumscribed by social conditions.
